Little League in 3-Way Tie

Final Standings:

Team	W	L
Northeast Cards	6	3
Southwest Braves	6	3
Southwest Phillies	6	3
Northwest Indians	9	0

The Peewee Little League season drew to a close Monday evening as the Northeast Cards plastered the Southwest Braves, 9-7, sending the final standings into a three-way tie.

There will not be a playoff. Team managers have been: Fred Appleby, Northeast; Joe Olendick, Southwest; Bob Kurtz, Southeast Phillies; Charley Richter, Northwest Indians.

Simonson post 93, Little League sponsors, hosted the peewees Tuesday evening at a wienie roast in Carney park. Commander George Janousek and Archie Bright were in charge of arrangements. Merri Dr. Pepper furnished the pop-lots of it—and the Gateway Motel provided the ice.

DELOIT—Stanley Bartak was a recent patient at Antelope Memorial hospital.

St. Mary's Senior Cherry Rodeo Queen

Miss Jennie Hostetter, who will be a senior at St. Mary's academy during the 1957-'58 term, was selected rodeo queen by popular vote at the Cherry county fair. Miss Hostetter is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Max Hostetter of Valentine.

Miss Hostetter was presented with a 5X white Stetson hat by the Chamber of Commerce and an engraved compact by the fair board. She was also presented a floral bouquet.

She will represent Cherry at
