Mary Jo Mahony, James Gallagher August Nuptials

St. Patrick's church was the scene of the wedding of Miss Mary Jo Mahony, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mahony of O'Neill and James Gallagher, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Gallagher of Inman.

Very Rev. Timothy O'Sullivan performed the double ring ceremony before an altar decorated with pink and white gladioli and phlox, Saturday, August 24 at 9:30 a.m.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose an imported hand draped chantly lace gown over bridal satin. The sculptured bodice was styled with a sweetheart neckline outlined in lace and was embroidered with sequins and seed pearls. It had tiny cap sleeves and a bouffant floor length skirt, which was worn over hoops and flowed into a chapel train. She wore short white gloves. Her fingertip veil of imported illusion fell from a tiara of orange blossoms and seed pearls. She carried pink roses on a white prayer book, which was a gift of the bridegroom. She wore a single strand of pearls.

Attending the bride were her sister, Miss Maureen Mahony, Miss Dorothy Harlan of Tilden College a classmate of the bride and Miss Marilyn Gallagher of Denver, Colo., a sister of the bridegroom. They wore identical gowns of deep pink crystallette styled with portrait necklines and fitted bodices with very full skirts. Their headbands of matching crystallette petals were embroidered with seed pearls. Their shoes matched the gowns. They wore short white gloves and pearl earrings, a gift of the bride. Their bouquets were of white mums with pink streamers.

Edward Gallagher, a brother of the bridegroom, served as best man. Other attendants were Richard Bohn and Harold Pribil. Ushers were Frank Rohde, Edward Boyle, Nick Ramold, Frank Sheff and Charles Mahony, a brother of the bride. The bridegroom and his attendants were attired in white dinner jackets with dark trousers. They wore black bow ties and white boutonnières.

The mother of the bride wore a navy dress with black accessories. Her corage was white feathered carnations. The mother of the bridegroom chose a dress of Dior blue with matching hat and accessories of black and white.

Miss Cecelia Arbutnot accompanied Miss Edith Gallagher and Miss Karen Mahony, sisters of the couple, who sang "On This Day", "O, Lord I Am Not Worthy" and "Ave Maria". Following the ceremony a luncheon was served to the immediate families and wedding party at the Town House. A reception was held at the Legion club for 140 guests. Assisting at the reception were Mmes. Matt Beha, Frank Sheff, Leo Schneider, Joe Kalina and Ralph Van Horn. Assisting with the gifts were Mrs. Edward Boyle, Mrs. Gordon Bourn and Miss Mary Alys Dierks. Miss Karen Mahony had charge of the guest book. The wedding cake was baked and decorated by Mrs. Matt Beha and cut by Mrs. Andrew Ramold. Mrs. Wendell Bahl poured. Serving were the Misses Rita Janson, Margaret Boyle, Eunice Van Horn and Betty Jane Schneider.

Out-of-town guests were from Norfolk, Emmet, Inman, Omaha, Ewing, Page, Fullerton, Stuart, Cedar Rapids, Belgrade, North Platte, Sheldon, Ia., Sioux City, Ia., Denver, Colo., and Nampa, Ida.

Following a two weeks' honeymoon to Canada the couple will be at home on a ranch near Inman. For traveling the bride chose a brown suit with white and brown accessories.

The bride is a graduate of St. Mary's Academy and St. Catherine's School of Nursing. She has been employed at St. Anthony's hospital the past year. The bridegroom is a graduate of Inman high school and is ranching with his father.

Twice Daily Grid Chores for Cards

Thirty-one candidates checked out football gear for the St. Mary's Cardinals pre-school workouts.

With the promise of more hopefuls with the opening of school, the Cards squad should reach 36. Twice-a-day workouts have been the menu for the opening week, with one-a-day practices beginning with the opening of school.

With a nine-game schedule ahead, the eight-maners have been busy preparing for their season opener with Crofton on September 13, at Carney park. Balance of the schedule:

September 19 — Springview, home. September 26 — Lynch, home.

October 4—Niobrara, there. 8—Verdigre, home. 11—Norfolk Sacred Heart, there. 18—Naper there. 23 — Butte, there. 31 — Spencer, home.

This year the SMA Athletic association is again offering family season tickets. This ticket will entitle both parents and all school age children to admission to all regularly scheduled Cardinal home games in both football and basketball.

The Cards will play at home five times during the football season and seven times in basketball making a total of at least 12 home games. Tickets may be purchased at these firms, starting Monday: Western Auto, Gilligan Rexall Drug, O'Neill National Bank, First National Bank, Biglin's.
