Livestock Producers and Buyers Get ACTION At Our AUCTION

Rendering modern, friendly, efficient marketing service to please our growing number of customers is one of the basic aims of this progressive Livestock Auction. For the consingor . . . for the buyer . . . we offer convenience of location, adequate facilities, and-most important of all-the profitable advantage made possible through free and open competitive bidding. THE FAIREST SELLING METHOD OF ALL!

MARKET REPORT-Monday, August 26, 1957 Once again, due to lighter receipts, the buyers were bidding actively for hogs. Extreme top hit $22.00 with the No. 1 and No. 2 hogs selling from $21.40 to $21.95. Some of the heavier hogs and some of the underweight butchers sold from $20.00 to $21.00. The sow market followed the butcher trend and one select consignment of small butcher sows sold for $20.85. The balance of the sows sold from $18.00 to $20.00. Plenty of demand was shown for all sizes of pigs. 85 pound unvaccinated pigs sold for $21.00. Other pigs sold from $12.00 We sold about 50 cattle of all classes. More and more people are taking advantage of our Auction to market their cattle. When your livestock is ready to sell, call us, and let
