

Carpenter Rites Held at Oakdale

CHAMBERS—Myron Ellsworth Carpenter, 79, died Tuesday, September 10, at the home of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Carpenter near Chambers. Funeral services were conducted at 10 a.m. Saturday, September 14, at the Methodist church in Oakdale with the pastor, Rev. Lester Hart, officiating. Music was furnished by Mrs. Ralph Hunter and Mrs. Evelyn Cowin with Miss Crosier, pianist. Pallbearers were his nephews—Ralph Carpenter, Elmer Carpenter, Romaine Peterson, Don Carpenter, George Sprout and Vernon Frustena. Burial was in the Oakdale cemetery.

The late Mr. Carpenter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Myron Dana Carpenter, was born December 26, 1877, near Petersburg. He moved with his parents to a farm southwest of Oakdale when a small boy and grew to manhood there. He spent several years on ranches in Cherry county near Valentine.

On January 1, 1898, he was united in marriage to Minnie Kidder of Oakdale. The couple farmed near Neligh for a number of years, later moving to Rushville and then to South Dakota. Three daughters and four sons were born to them.

After the death of his wife in 1938, Mr. Carpenter lived alone in Oakdale where he was engaged in carpenter work. In October, 1955, he moved to Chambers where he resided until his death. Survivors include: Daughters—Mrs. E. R. (Mildred) Carpenter of Chambers; Mrs. C. A. (Lucille) Palmer of Sedro Woolley, Wash.; Mrs. Lee (Harriet) Howder, Vivian, S.D.; sons—Adrian of Wieser, Ida.; Hilton of Sunny Side, Wash.; Dana of Denver, Colo.; and Mervin of Burlington, Wash.; brother—Charles of Neligh; 17 grandchildren and 18 great-grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his wife, parents, one brother and two sisters. Relatives attending the funeral included Mr. and Mrs. Dana Carpenter of Denver, Colo.; Mr. and Mrs. Mervin Carpenter of Burlington, Wash.; Hilton Carpenter of Sunny Side, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Ben Medcalf and family of Sioux City; Mr. and Mrs. Dean Stevens and family of Atkinson; Mr. and Mrs. Lee Howder, Mrs. Norman Erickson, Mrs. Harold Koester and Miss Kay Howder, all of Vivian, S.D.; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Barnes and Billy of Valentine; Victor Carpenter of Allen; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Carpenter of Plainview; Mr. and Mrs. John Maliskewski and children of Creighton and Mr. and Mrs. George Sprout of Elgin.

Connie Lou Gilman Weds Charles Everett

AMELIA—The Methodist church at Amelia was the scene of the wedding of Miss Connie Lou Gilman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Gilman of Atkinson and Charles Gene Everett, son of Mrs. Beatrice Everett and the late Harley Everett of Atkinson on Saturday September 14.

The 2 o'clock double-ring ceremony, was solemnized by Rev. Harold Dean Bonath, church pastor. Baskets of lavender gladioli, asters and candelabra decorated the church. White satin bows marked the pews.

Marcia Widman played the wedding march and recessional. She also accompanied Donald Adams, who sang "Because" and "Always".

The bride given in marriage by her father, appeared in floor length gown of crystaline satin with a fitted bodice and full train. The gown had two nylon lace panels down the side of the skirt with a design of sequins. The gown featured a round neckline trimmed with an insert of lace and sequins. She wore mits to match. The fingertip, four-tiered veil was draped from a lace cap trimmed with pearls and sequins and she carried a bouquet of lavender gladioli and asters with satin streamers. Her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls, a gift from the bridegroom. She carried out the tradition of something old, something new something borrowed and something blue with a penny in her shoe.

Mrs. H. G. Clausen of Fairfield, Ia. was her sister's maid of honor. She wore a ballerina length dress of lavender net over satin and a small picture hat with gloves and shoes to match. Her bouquet was lavender gladioli and asters.

Rolland Everett, brother of the bridegroom served as bestman. The bridegroom and his attendant wore grey flannel suits with white carnation boutonnières.

Jack Gilman of Valentine, brother of the bridegroom, and Russell Everett, jr., of Atkinson cousin of the bridegroom, had charge of seating the guests.

The mothers of the bride and the bridegroom wore navy blue crepe dresses with accessories to match and pink aster corsages.

A reception for the couple was given by the bride's parents in the church annex, which was decorated with lavender and white streamers. The four-tiered wedding cake was baked and decorated by George Enbody, cousin of the bride. Mrs. Marvin Doolittle cut the cake. Mrs. Stanley Thompson poured the coffee and Miss Phyllis Fullerton poured the punch. Mrs. Jerry Weber of Stuart had charge of the guest book and Miss Nancy Watson had charge of the gifts.

A wedding dance was held in Amelia that evening. For travel, the bride chose a beige suit with brown accessories.

After a week's trip to the Black Hills, the couple will be at home a ranch at Amelia.

Freshmen: Maria Ellen Stevens, president; Thomas Higgins, vice-president; Jerry Jurgensmeier, secretary.

Cheerleading tryouts were conducted last week. Girls elected were: First team—Rita Hoehne, Regina Vitt and Mardelle Vitt; second—Ellen Lohaus, Jackie Arbutnot and Betty Schneider.

Freshmen have been conducting the annual magazine subscription drive. Money raised in this project usually is spent for something to add the school.

Wednesday, September 11, the seniors sponsored a welcome dance for all newcomers. New teachers and new students were introduced to returning students.

A pep rally was held Thursday evening on the campus in preparation for Friday night's Crofton game, won by SMA, 14-13. Speeches were given at the bonfire by Capt. James McGinn, Coach Don Templemeyer, Rev. Robert Duffy, and others. Students snake-danced and cheered downtown.

Wednesday the frosh came to school dressed in original outfits designed by seniors. The frosh spent most of the day obeying Spartan orders, reciting pieces, singing songs, polishing shoes and performing duties seniors conjured up. The day was climaxed with a kangaroo court and a dance—the freshmen admitted free.

Married 170 Years . . .

Snells, Snyders, Downeys Celebrate

PAGE—Three Page couples will note wedding anniversaries during the week. They are Mr. and Mrs. Rollie Snell, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Snyder and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Downey. Mr. and Mrs. Rollie Snell and Kate Julius were married September 19, 1885, at O'Neill. The trip was made by lumber wagon, taking all day for the journey. They returned to his home that evening and began housekeeping without the formalities of a honeymoon, pre- and post-nuptial showers, a big wedding and trills. They are noting their 63d anniversary this week. Frank Snyder and Miss Nova Henry were married at Tecumseh September 21, 1898, and went to the Nebraska state fair—for a wedding trip. Louis Downey and Bertha Tavenner were married September 22, 1898, at the home of her parents near Inman. Theirs has been a companionship of several occupations—farmer, nurseman, storekeeper. All three couples have been retired in the village of Page for some years, and all except the Snells are still doing their own work. Mrs. Snell had the misfortune to fall while in Iowa visiting some time ago and, at present, Miss Maude Martin is assisting with the care of Mrs. Snell and with the household chores. Mr. Downey will be 93-years-old next July. Daily he goes up town for the mail and works in their garden. He is handicapped by deafness and uses writing as a means of communication. He has his second eyesight. Tom Schneider Is Honored— Mr. and Mrs. Leo Schneider held a picnic Sunday afternoon for their son, Tom, who left for the service Wednesday, Sunday, September 8, Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Bahl held a family dinner in his honor.

Gamble Proxy to Host George Head

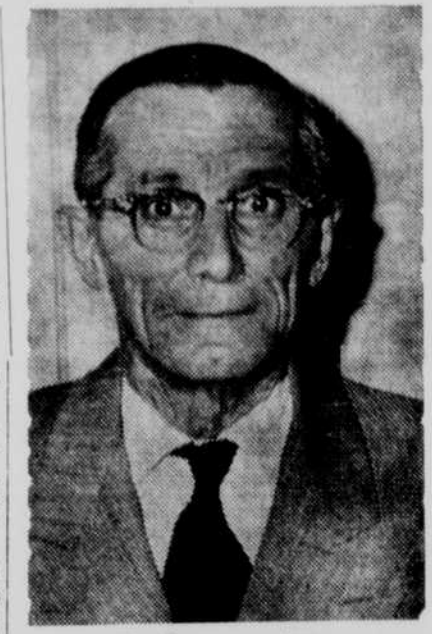

George V. Head, furniture department manager of the Gamble store at O'Neill has been advised by the Minneapolis, Minn., home office of Gamble-Skogmo, Inc., that his department sales increase was the largest in a five-state area. Because of his splendid performance, he will be a four-day guest of the president of the company, Bert Gamble, in Minneapolis.

Mr. Head has been in the O'Neill Gamble store since it opened in the new building in 1947. He has been associated with the Gamble organization nearly 15 years.

George will be "wined and dined" in the finest eating places in Minneapolis. He will see one of the major football games, will sail on at least one of the Great Lakes in Mr. Gamble's personal yacht. He'll golf at Minneapolis' famous Minnekohda Country club, will visit all the better night clubs, and many other exciting experiences are in store, including a guided tour of the Twin Cities—all as a personal guest of Mr. Gamble, president and chairman of the board for Gamble Skogmo, Inc.

George says he wants to thank his many friends and customers for their loyal patronage. "Without these fine people in and around O'Neill I could never have received this high honor", he added.

Ray Donohoe and Tom Schneider are leaving September 19, for Omaha to enter the army.
