O'Neill Couple to California for Wedding Trip

Before an altar decoration of mixed gladioli, Miss Maureen Margaret Mahony, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mahony of O'Neill, became a bride to Francis Romaine Rohde, son of Mr. and Mrs. Romaine Rohde, of O'Neill.

Very Rev. Timothy O'Sullivan performed the double-ring ceremony at a 9:30 o'clock nuptial mass Tuesday, September 10, at St. Patrick's Catholic church. Given in marriage by her father, the bride appeared in a white gown of crystal and chantilly lace over tulle. The molded bodice was fashioned with a portrait neckline and long tapered sleeves buttoned to the wrists. The lace edged crystal over skirt revealed an underskirt of chantilly lace, forming a bouffant skirt that fell into a cathedral train. Her nylon tulle veil was held by a crown of orange blossoms.

The bride's bouquet was of talisman roses on a white prayer book a gift of the bridegroom. Her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls also a gift of the bridegroom. She wore short white gloves.

Mrs. James Gallagher served as her sister's matron-of-honor, and Mrs. Edward Boyle and Miss Karen Mahony served as bridesmaids for their sister.

They wore toast brown lace over tulle gowns, featuring sapphire necklines and tiny short sleeves with bouffant ballerina skirts. They wore matching head bands of lace and tulle with matching slippers and short white gloves. Their bouquets were gold and bronze mums.

Bestman was Bernard Rohde, brother of the bridegroom. Groomsmen were John Harrington and Nick Rapold.

Ushers were Edward Boyle, James Gallagher and Charles Mahony, brother of the bride.

A dinner was served at the American Legion hall. A reception followed from 2 until 5 o'clock for one hundred guests.

Miss Mary Alys Dierks had charge of the guest book. The Misses Delores Boyle and Dorothy Harlan had charge of the gift table.

Waitresses were Misses Delores, Mary Ellen and Shariene Boyle and Mrs. Wendell Babl.

Mrs. Andrew Babl cut the wedding cake which was baked and decorated by Mrs. Matt Beba.

Ladies who prepared the dinner were Msdms. Leo Schneider, Ralph Van Horn, Frank Shell, Matt Beba and Raymond Pribil.

Those assisting at the reception were Mrs. Ed Conway, Mrs. Clarence Gokie and Mrs. John Jansen.

Guests attended from Chambers, Ewing, Inman, Spencer, Tilden, Cedar Rapids and North Platte.

The bride is a graduate of St. Mary's academy and St. Catherine's school of nursing at Omaha. She has been employed at St. Anthony's hospital the past year.

The bridegroom also is a graduate of St. Mary's and served two years in the army. He is now farming north of O'Neill where the couple will make their home after returning from a wedding trip to California.
