

Cardinals Romp; Sacred Heart Next

Tough Test Expected Tonight at Norfolk

At their first away game Friday afternoon, the Cardinals soundly rapped the Niobrara Lions, 63-0. The Lions were limited to 11 yards net gain and had four passes intercepted. Jim McGinn collected 20 points on three touchdowns and two executions of extra points.

Ron Clark and Bill Craig each tallied twice and Tom Donohoe and Gary Holly once each. The latter TD came on a 22-yard run on an intercepted pass.

Ned Mullen added two more points when he kicked a ball carrier in the end zone. The services were lost of Jim McGinn because of an ankle injury.

Unbeaten thus far and sharing top honors in the Niobrara Valley eight-man grid conference, the St. Mary's academy Cardinals will clash with the Knights of Sacred Heart at 8 o'clock tonight (Thursday) at Norfolk.

The Norfolkans lost to Exeter, 7-14, last week, but the game was closer than the score indicates.

The Cardinals romped Verdigris 8-0 Tuesday evening at the annual homecoming game. Offensively, the Cards scored seven times in 21 plays, while the defensive units scored five times, three on pass interceptions by Ziska, Belina and Terry Hynes, once on a blocked kick by Jim Shoemaker, and another on a sparking 75-yard kickoff return by Gary Holly.

Because of injuries, Craig was the only letterman to be in for more than three plays on defense the second half. Schneider and T. Donohoe scored two TD's and Craig, Stevens and Bill Hynes one each.

Creighton Whips O'Neill Eagles, 13-0

CREIGHTON—The Creighton high gridlers pummeled across a touchdown in the opening quarter after blocking an O'Neill punt and then wrapped up the evening with a TD in the final three seconds of the game, winning 13-0.

O'Neill's only serious scoring threat came when Quarterback Darrel Dexter hit End Harold Parks in the endzone but Parks dropped the ball and the play was ruled incomplete.

Creighton's second TD came on a play around O'Neill's right end. Kayl was the Cardinals' damage chief. Ronnie Smith, fleet O'Neill back, was the Eagles' lone threat. The Eagles hit the road again Friday night as guests of the Ainsworth Bulldogs. Both teams are quite evenly matched.

STUART WINS
STUART—The Stuart high Broncos outsped the Randolph high Cardinals, 26-0, Friday night at Stuart. Randolph had one touchdown called back because of a penalty. On another occasion the Cardinals got to the Stuart five and lost the ball on downs.

CAPTAINS INDIANS
STUART—Dennis Brewster, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Brewster, captained the Omaha university Indians Saturday night in a grid game with St. Ambrose of Davenport, Ia.

Mrs. Harden Anspach, Mrs. Marvin Johnson and Mrs. John Conrad spent from Wednesday, October 2, until Thursday in Lincoln.

Ewing Homecoming Includes Parade

EWING—Dennis Scheer and Beverly Rotherham were crowned king and queen at the annual homecoming game Friday when the Ewing Tigers were defeated by the Atkinson Balers, 31-0.

They were crowned at the half by the senior attendants, Patricia Hahlbeck and Stanley Bartos. Other attendants were: Sharon Kropp and Jerry Hahlbeck, juniors; Ruby Carl and Duane Bollwitt, sophomores; Annette Rotherham and Freddie Wright, freshmen.

Floats in the half-time parade were led by George Van Conet and Cathy Reifert.

Senior class float was awarded first place and the junior class float, second place. Miss Sandra Shradar was mistress of ceremonies for the parade.

A parade also took place at 3 o'clock through the business section of Ewing.

The visiting Balers built an 18-0 first half lead. Fumblitis in Ewing's backfield denied the Tigers several scoring opportunities.

Romaine Saunders of Lincoln, a former editor of The Frontier and author of "Prairie Land Talk", arrived Tuesday. He plans to return Friday.

Bruder, Winkler Rites at Atkins n

ATKINSON—Miss Bertha E. Bruder of Boulder, Colo., daughter of Mrs. Joseph Bruder and the late Mr. Bruder of Atkinson, became the bride of Edward Winkler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Winkler of Emmet, at 10 a.m., Wednesday, October 9, at St. Joseph's Catholic church in Atkinson. Rev. R. J. Parr officiated.

The bride appeared in a pink lace over taffeta dress with a bouffant waltz length skirt. Her headress was of pink velvet decorated with sequins. She carried a Bible and a bouquet of white carnations and blue forget-me-nots.

Mrs. George Shald was bridesmaid for her sister. The bridegroom was attended by his brother, Charles Winkler of Atkinson. Both men wore blue suits.

The ushers were Ray Schafer and Brenton Wabs. The acolytes were Robert and John Ries. The music was furnished by St. Joseph's choir.

Both mothers wore navy blue dresses with daisy corsages. After the ceremony the bride placed a bouquet of roses on the Blessed Virgin's altar.

A brunch was served to 50 guests at the home of the bride's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ries by Mrs. Hans Bogue, Mrs. George Ries and Mrs. Roy Ries.

Mrs. Charles Winkler was in charge of the gift book. The couple plans to live in Emmet after a short wedding trip.

Assistant Agent Arriving Nov. 1

George Hartman of Paxton will be Holt county's new assistant agricultural agent. It was announced Wednesday by Ora Yarges, county chairman of the Holt agricultural extension board.

Mr. Hartman is a 1956 graduate of the University of Nebraska. He spent seven months as assistant agent Dawson county at Lexington and worked with the production testing program over the state a year ago.

Hartman will come to Holt county about November 1. His time will be divided equally between the farm and home program and other extension activities.

He is engaged to wed Miss Hemphill of Tekamah this month.
