Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Pierce returned to their home Tuesday, October 8, from their stay at their son's farm where they took care of the grandchildren and helped on the farm while Mrs. Annie Pierce went to Atlanta, Ga., to attend the funeral of her brother-in-law, Forest Dell Sanford, who was killed in a auto accident. Mr. Sanford was 35-years-old. The funeral was Saturday, October 5. He was the husband of the former Mavis Quast whose father was the pastor at the Venus Lutheran church for several years. The couple visited here frequently. He is also survived besides the widow by a 12-year-old son, Russell.

Mrs. Lavin Hines entertained the Work & Fun club at her home Wednesday afternoon, October 9. There were 12 members present and Mrs. Myrtle Wheeler, Mrs. F. E. Pierce, Mrs. Harold Tyler and Mrs. Dale Dorr were guests. The latter joined the club. New officers elected were: Olga Ulhir, president; Lila Pospeshil, vice-president; Viola Pospeshil, secretary and treasurer. The nutshell sisters were also revealed at this meeting and dues were paid. Sewing was done for the hostess, who served luncheon at the close of the afternoon. Mrs. Max LeMasters will have the November meeting.

H. J. LeMasters had a stack of alfalfa destroyed by lightning Sunday, October 6.

Fred Ulhir was a Verdigre visitor Wednesday, October 9. Sharon Sanders of Verdigre spent Tuesday night, October 8, with Annet Ulhir at the Fred Ulhir home.

Woodwork Study Planned by Scouts

EWING—Boy Scout troop 181 met Thursday evening, October 10, at the scout headquarters. Eleven scouts answered roll call and payment of dues. Larry Noffke led the troop in the pledge of allegiance to the American flag. Alfred Schilousky, patrol leader, was in charge of the meeting. "How the Compass Works" was explained by Dan Rotherham.

A woodworking program was planned by those interested in this project. There was a general discussion on beautification of the football field in northeast Ewing, and plans were made to make this a scout project.

The candlelight service was used to welcome into the troop a new member, "Duke" Hobbs, who recently joined. Meeting was adjourned by the scoutmaster's benediction by H. R. Harris, S.M.

Guests were Rev. Lee Brigden and son, Gary.

This Team Won 'Em All in '08

This 1908 O'Neill high football team (above) went through an undefeated season and pasted the Spencer team that season with only eight men, several players being on the shelf due to injuries. The O'Neill-Spencer score was astronomical with O'Neill on the long end. In the photo: Front row—Matt Kane and Ambrose Biglin; second row—Bill Biglin, McNichols, Tom Golden, Bernie McCafferty, Bob Hanley, Rodey Ryan; third row—Larry Hunt, Ed Campbell, Joe Murphy; fourth row—Bill McNichols (center, alone); back row—Coach Bill Hammond, Neil Brennan, Ducky McNichols, Erwin Gallagher and Ernest Pitkin Simmons. Standing at extreme right: Coach Mike Horiskey.—(Photo courtesy Mrs. J. J. Frenking of Omaha, the former Florence McCafferty).

County Commander Speaker at Ewing

EWING—Lawrence Hamik of Stuart county commander of the American Legion, was guest of Sanders post 214, Thursday evening, October 10, at a regular meeting of the group. He gave an informal talk on work of American Legion and on county government day to be held in the near future at O'Neill.

Lester Bergstrom, post commander, presided at the business session. Reports on the fall festival of Ewing were given by the chairman.

The auxiliary also met the same evening at the club room Mrs. Victor True was honored at a pink and blue shower.

The business session was conducted by Mrs. Helen Sisson. At the November meeting it is planned to have as a guest, Mrs. Lettie Jean Coulthard of Oakdale, district president.

On adjournment, the ladies were joined by the Legion members for refreshments served by Mesdames, Alfred Napier, Wayne Shrader and Ernest Pierson.

Hats of Yesteryear Modeled at Party

17th Anniversary of WSCS Noted

EWING—Twenty-three were present at the annual birthday party of the Women's Society of Christian Service Tuesday evening, October 8, at the parlors of the Ewing Methodist church, celebrating the 17th anniversary of the society and the birthdays of the members.

Decorations for the tables for the 6 o'clock dinner was carried out in a Halloween theme of orange and black with bouquets of fall flowers as centerpieces by the committee. Mrs. Earl Billings and Mrs. Ben Larsen. Birthday money was given, also a fifty cent donation instead of the usual exchange of gifts. Mrs. James Tinsely, president, held a short business session in connection with the election day dinner in November.

The evening's program in charge of Mrs. Henry Fleming and Mrs. J. N. Wunner consisted of several contest games with prizes. A skit featuring "Hats" with Mrs. Fleming as narrator, was very entertaining. One hat of special interest, was a "bonnet" over one hundred years old which was modeled with a shoulder shawl of great age by Mrs. Wunner. Another hat 60-years old was worn by Mrs. Lee Brigden. An elaborate creation of feathers and ribbon trimmings, was worn by Mrs. Andrew Olson who also had the long hatpin which was used with this style. Others modeling original styles were Mesdames James Tinsely, Allan Pollock, Earl Billings, Ben Larsen, William Spence, Henry Fleming and Miss Hazel Ruby.

Insurance Is Topic of Meeting—EWING—Casualty Insurance" was the topic of the lesson for the Facts and Fun Home extension club when the group met Thursday afternoon, October 10, with Mrs. H. R. Harris as leader. Many interesting points developed from this subject for discussion.

At the business meeting in charge of Mrs. J. L. Pruden, achievement day—October 31, to be held at O'Neill—was discussed and plans made to attend.

Mrs. Frank Schmidt and Mrs. Harry Van Horn were appointed to present the November lesson and will meet Monday, October 14, with Mrs. Catherine Indra, home extension agent, for instructions to be given to leaders. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Pruden assisted by Mrs. Harris. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Andrew Olson, Thursday, November 7.

Other Ewing News—Mrs. J. H. Wunner and Miss Frances Rotherham were prize winners at the Thursday bridge club when the group met October 10 at the home of Mrs. John Archer. A 2 o'clock desert luncheon was served by the hostess. Guests were Mrs. Sis Ebbengaard, Mrs.

Henry Fleming and Miss Rotherham. The Jolly Workers, a club organized to help others, was entertained Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Charles Rotherham. Twenty-six members answered roll call. Mrs. Dewitt Hoke, presided at a short business session. During the informal hours which followed, a quilt was tied for the hostess. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Rotherham assisted by Mrs. Hoke, Mrs. Willie Shrader and Mrs. Floyd Lee.

NOTICE TO CUSTOMERS OF CONSUMERS PUBLIC POWER DISTRICT OPERATING ELECTRIC WATER HEATERS

Effective October 1, 1957, a change is being made in the policy and rate applicable to electric water heaters served by the District.

In order to give our customers better water heating service, the restrictions on charging time and heating element capacity are being relaxed.

The slight increase in rate under the new policy is substantially offset by an increase in the number of kilowatt hours in the water heating block in our combination rates.

May we suggest that you inquire as to new policy and rates for water heater service, at our nearest office to be sure that you will receive the maximum benefits from your electric water heater.
