Stuart-Ewing Tilt

Likely Canceled

EWING—The Stuart-Ewing football game has been called off once more; possibly canceled. The game between the traditional prep rivals originally was scheduled Tuesday, October 22, but the Ewing Tigers were unable to field a team because of the influenza bug. The game was re-scheduled for Tuesday, October 29, but, once again, Coach Fritz Reifert would have been hardpressed to muster 11 men.

Flu has run rampant in Ewing high school—forcing a closing one day last week. The grade school is not seriously affected, Supt. Lewis Carter said.

Eagles Face Badgers; Cardinals Close

O'Neill high Eagles will go to Valentine Friday night to face the Badgers. Valentine is one of the top-ranking class B grid teams in the state.

Meanwhile, the St. Mary's academy Cards have finished with a premature closing. The Spencer Pirates forfeited. The Cards have nine straight wins and no defeats, amassing 321 points to their opponents' 44. (Season's summary in next issue.)
