

Lillian A. Bench, John Ernst Wed in Kansas Church

Lillian Annette Bench, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bench of Seattle, Wash., became the bride of John Ernst, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Ernst of Manhattan, Kans., in a beautiful ceremony performed in the P. C. Hill Memorial church at Miltonvale, Kans., Saturday, October 12.

The Ernst family formerly resided at O'Neill.

Rev. Warren S. Freeborn, assisted by Rev. E. A. Coates conducted the ceremony at 3 p.m. The church was decorated with white tapers and baskets of white and yellow mums highlighted with pink snapdragons.

Nuptial music was furnished by Miss Ruth Johnson at the organ. She also accompanied Winston Stephens, who sang "Because" and the "Lord's Prayer", and Miss Barbara Sutton, who sang "God Gave Me You".

The bride, given in marriage by her father, appeared in a gown of white embroidered nylon tulle lace over cream satin. The gown was designed and made by the bride's mother. It's close fitting bodice was accented by tiny satin covered buttons and a scalloped Queen Ann collar.

The floor-length skirt of embroidered lace was fashioned with several full tiers. Her finger tip veil was edged in matching lace and held in place by a lace tiara. She carried a bouquet of red rose buds.

The bride was attended by Mary Esther Ashby, matron of honor, a friend of the bride; Margaret Ann Ernst, sister of the groom; and Janice Bench, sister of the bride. The attendants wore ballerina length, identical, satin gowns of pink and green and carried colonial bouquets of mums and daisies tied with pink and green satin streamers. Their head pieces were white fur and pink flowers.

Becky Lynn Hendricks, niece of the groom, dressed in a pink dress delicately trimmed with white lace, scattered rose petals for the bride.

The bridegroom's attendants were Art Austin of Woodbine, Kans., a friend; Bernard Lorenz, a cousin from O'Neill; and Charles Kientz of Manhattan, a friend. Guests were ushered into the church by David Bench of Lincoln, brother of the bride; and by Paul Pankey of Rockford, Ill., a friend. They also served as candlelighters.

All the men in the wedding party wore white dinner jackets and dark trousers. Their boutonnières were red carnations.

The bride's mother wore a plum-colored crepe dress with black accessories and a corsage of white mums. The bridegroom's mother wore a turquoise blue wool knit dress with black accessories and a corsage of white mums.

Mrs. Robert Hendricks, sister of the groom, was in charge of the guest book. Mrs. Leon Hendricks, also sister of the groom, received the gifts.

Following the ceremony, a reception for the guests was served in the college dining hall. The beautiful five tiered cake was cut by Annette Powell, and Beth Whitney poured the punch. The bride's table was served by Alice Sandoz and Nita Reno. Miss Imo Saunders was reception hostess.

The bride and bridegroom are graduates of Miltonvale Wesleyan high school. For the past year Mr. Ernst has been employed with the Kansas Farm Bureau Mutual Insurance company in Manhattan.

The couple left immediately following the reception for a short trip to the Lake of the Ozarks and are now at home at 917, Moro, Manhattan, Kans.
