Chambers-Earley Nuptials at Fremont

Charlene Chambers, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Chambers, of Fremont, became the bride of Joseph E. Earley, son of Mr. and Mrs. James T. Earley, of O'Neill, Saturday, November 17, at St. Patrick's church in Fremont.

The double-ring ceremony took place at 10 a.m. with Rev. Robert H. Duffy officiating.

Pink roses and white mums decorated the altar and the pews were marked with white mums. Pat Wojcik was the soloist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attired in ivory satin. The bodice of the gown had a lace collar and inserts of lace, and the long sleeves tapered to points over the hands.

The skirt ended in a train. A pearl tiara held the bridal veil of illusion net in fingertip length.

The bride carried a prayer book with a bouquet of pink roses and violets and streamers.

Joanne Chambers was her sister's maid-of-honor. Her gown had a purple velvet bodice and a ballerina length skirt of lavender net. A lavender net stole was worn with the dress.

Her headress was of purple veiling, and she carried a colonial bouquet of baby mums in lavender, yellow and white.

Marcia Rice, the bridesmaid, was similarly gowned.

Jim Earley served as best man and Julius Madigan, as groomsmen. Ushers were Melvin Hansen and Donald Dobson.

Mike Moore was ring bearer. A reception followed, and a breakfast was held for the bridal party and the immediate families.

The reception table, skirted in pink, held a pink wedding cake surrounded by grapes and fall leaves. Silver candelabra held lavender candles.

Assisting were Peggy Beckius, Sally Grace, Nancy Schulte, Charlotte Rhoades, Lois Giebler and Mesdames Don Peterson, Bud Johnson, Milton Johnson, David McGath, Jack Christensen, George Odvody and Dick Lamberty.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. James T. Earley, of O'Neill; Capt. and Mrs. Owen A. Moore, and Mike, of Tomah, Wis.; Mary Magee, of Washington, D.C., and Mr. and Mrs. James H. Gaughan and Mrs. Ella Gaughan, of North Bend.

Others were Mrs. Tom Coyne, Mrs. James Earley, Jr., and Edward Earley, all of O'Neill; Dr. and Mrs. Cecil Muller, of Omaha; Mr. and Mrs. Kermit Haun and Mike, of Des Moines, Ia.; Pat Wojcik, of Jamestown, N.D., and Charlotte Rhoades, of Blair.

The couple will be at home after November 25 at 435 East Fifth street in Fremont.

'Messiah' Chorus Needs Male Voices

First rehearsal of the O'Neill community chorus was held Wednesday evening, November 14. Seventy candidates were on hand.

The director, Charles B. Houser, reported he was "very gratified with the turnout and with the enthusiasm shown at the first meeting. But," he complained, "we need a good many more male voices to balance our chorus."

Mrs. Houser said 5 tenors and 7 basses had reported, but 2 or 3 times that many are needed to match the preponderance of sopranos and altos.

The date for the presentation of Handel's "Messiah" has been set for Friday afternoon, December 16, at the O'Neill public school auditorium. No announcement is ready concerning the solo parts.

James G. Bastian, of the O'Neill high school music department, will be accompanist at piano or organ. Mr. Houser said it is possible an organ will be temporarily installed and used.

The chorus will hold Wednesday evening rehearsals.

Luther A. Frost, WW I Vet, Dies

STUART—The body of Luther A. Frost, about 60, a World War I veteran, is scheduled to reach Stuart late Wednesday, November 21, from Hot Springs, S.D., where he died Tuesday.

Frost was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Frost. Survivors include: Brother—Waldo, of Stuart; Sister—Mrs. Bessie Gettner, of Stuart.

Methodist Church Scene of Wedding

Miss Betty Jane Williamson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Williamson, and Billie Gene Marcellus, son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Marcellus, were united in marriage in a 2 o'clock ceremony at the Methodist church on Sunday, November 18.

Rev. R. R. Bell officiated at the double-ring ceremony. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, appeared in a brown suit with green accessories. She wore a brooch, a gift of the bridegroom. Her corsage was of yellow roses.

Miss Wilma McKim, friend of the bride, was bridesmaid. She wore a black and white checked suit with white accessories. Her corsage was of red roses.

Little Karen Rae McKim, cousin of the bride, was flower girl. Kenneth Wrede, friend of the bridegroom, was best man. Both wore blue suits with white carnation boutonnières.

Ushers were Lewis Pierson and James McKenny. The candles were lighted by Sharon and Margie Marcellus, sisters of the bridegroom.

The bride's mother wore a navy blue suit and the bridegroom's mother wore a wine suit. Both had white carnation corsages.

A reception was held in the church parlors immediately following the ceremony. The bride's table was covered with a lace cloth. A 3-tier cake, topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom, and encircled with red roses formed the centerpiece. Serving was by Mesdames Orville McKim, Jasper Hitchcock, Howard Peters, Robert Tams and Keith Schweigert, aunts of the couple.

Miss Carolyn Hiatt was in charge of the guest book and Misses Marlene Malcolm and Margie Huebert took care of the gifts.

Among the guests were the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William Anderson, of O'Neill, and Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Williamson, of Page, and the bridegroom's great grandmother, Mrs. L. L. Cosner and his grandparents, George Robertson and Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Marcellus, all of Stuart. They all were given white carnation corsages and boutonnières.

ST. ANTHONY'S NEARS FINISH . . . Workmen are in the home stretch on the new half-million dollar St. Anthony's hospital here. Plastering is being completed and interior painters will begin their work December 1. Within about a week the terrazzo floors will be laid in the corridors, entrances, 2 operating rooms and delivery room, and quarry tile will be placed in restrooms and shower stalls. Construction Superintendent Olaf Mathisen said this week that only miscellaneous concrete work remains to be done on stairways and landings. Already the heating plant is in operation on all 3 floors, the electricians are abreast with the plasterers and the laundry equipment goes in within 2 weeks, Mathisen said. Landscaping will not be done until later. In midsummer Mathisen estimated November 1 would be the finish date. Bricklayer labor problems and adverse weather caused considerable delays, he explained.
