4,000 TB Seals Go into Mail

The National Tuberculosis association urges you to see and heed the call of Santa Claus peering hopefully at you from the business houses throughout Holt county, according to Miss Bernadette Brennan, of O'Neill, chairman of the TB seal drive in the county.

The J. M. McDonald company, realizing the great good accomplished in the past from the proceeds of Christmas seals, has set up a window display to remind you to be generous this year. Buy the seals you have received through the mail. Over 4,000 packets of them have been sent out from county headquarters, Miss Brennan explained.

"If you cannot buy all the enclosed seals, do your best. If possible, ask for more when sending in your contributions. Make this year your most happy by knowing you have gone all-out in helping prevent the onslaught of tuberculosis," she urged.

"Buy your seals, use them, and urge your friends and neighbors to do the same. Your Christmas joy will be greater for having helped in this humanitarian cause," Miss Brennan said.

Huskers Start Strong, Fade in Hectic 2d

The 2d quarter bogey, which has plagued the University of Nebraska Cornhuskers throughout the 1951 grid campaign, enabled Colorado to pile up 20 points Saturday in Memorial stadium, Lincoln, while 31,000 shivering fans looked on under a bright sun. Colorado won 36-14.

The Huskers completely outplayed the visitors in the 1st period, holding a 7-0 lead before the usual 2d period letdown. The Nebraskans were hobbled by the loss of Quarterback Jonh Bordogna, who was hurt. All-American Bobby Reynolds sat out most of the 2d because of lime in an eye.

Among Holt countyans witnessing what developed into a dismal, cold show for Nebraskans, were:

Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Farty, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Golden, Mr. and Mrs. John Stufbergen, Mr. and Mrs. George Head, Mary and Thomas Head, Cal Stewart, Mrs. Hardin Anspach.

The game was telecast over a nationwide network. Two O'Neill men, Paul E. Moseman and John Berigan, were members of the Nebraska band which did a half-time circus routine. Bill Stern did the descriptive for the network.
