Tupperware

modern utensils for modern kitchens and kitchens that may not be so modern. Canisters—the first you have ever seen that are really and truly dust, insect, vermin and spill-proof. Put salt or sugar in them—no matter how damp the weather, the contents remain sand-dry. The Tupper Seal, flexible air and liquid-tight covers and "material of the future" from which both are fashioned, accomplishes that.

Lareen Smith Club Hostess

CHAMBERS—The Better Ways extension club met at the home of Lareen Smith on Friday, November 16. Lareen Smith won the door prize of a cake cutter.

During the business meeting we planned the program for the lessons for the coming club year. The Christmas party is to be on December 14 at the home of Charlotte Smith. Loraine Haake and Charlotte Smith are to plan the recreation for the evening. Mary Lou Butts and Charlotte are on the serving committee. We are to each bring a guest to the party.

Charlotte Smith gave the lesson on "Newcomers for Your Garden." It gave us a brief preview of new varieties of vegetables and flowers for our spring gardens, also helpful tips on how to plant our gardens so that we may have better results.

After the meeting was adjourned Mrs. Edwina Walters and Charlotte Smith served lunch of ribbon and open faced sandwiches, cranberry salad on a lettuce leaf, stuffed celery, pickled crab apples, sweet pickles and coffee. For a favor we were given a covered cherry.—Eya Ada DeHart, reporter.
