

Antelope Clubbers Visit Grand Island

DELOIT — Antelope county project clubs made a trip by bus to Grand Island on Tuesday, November 13, leaving at 7 a.m. Twenty-four members of the Antelope clubs made the trip.

There are 12 clubs in the county. Five were represented. Those who went on the tour from the Clearwater Creek club were: Mrs. Melvin Napier, Mrs. Clint Taylor, Mrs. Henry Trennepohl, Mrs. B. A. Cratty, Mrs. Manuel Fredericks and Mrs. Henry Reimer.

The chamber of commerce arranged for tours of the following places: Home for old soldiers and sailors, sugar refinery, the new Veterans hospital which cost $5,200,000, and the radio station where the county agent, Mrs. Brown, of Neligh, was interviewed.

Members of the Clearwater Creek club were surprised to find that most of the people they met had no idea where Antelope county was located.
