Editorial & Business Offices: 122 South Fourth Street O'NEILL, NEBR.

CARROLL W. STEWART, Editor and Publisher

Established in 1881—Published Each Thursday

Entered the postoffice at O'Neill, Holt county, Nebraska, as second-class mail matter under the Act of Congress of March 3, 1879. This newspaper is a member of the Nebraska Press Association, National Editerial Association and the Audit Bureau of Circulations.

Terms of Subscription: In Nebraska, $2.50 per year; elsewhere in the United States, $3 per year; abroad, rates provided on request. All subscriptions are strictly paid-in-advance.

at Stewart Home -

The Bar X project club Christmas party was held on Friday,
December 14, at the home of consum all members but one present.

The husbands and children atwere played and Christmas carols were played on the piano. There was a grab bag and treats.

Went to denevieve O'Neill and Ray Margaritz; low score to Agnes Stewart and "Swede" Wabs.

There was a "There was a "The

R. H. "Ray" SHRINER INSURANCE

Ice cream and cake were served to the children with stick candy

The adults played cards and consumed plates of homemade Mickey and Betty Stewart with candy. Ice cream, cake and coffee were served by the hostess before returning home.

High score in cards went to
Genevieve O'Neill and Ray Mar-

Next meeting will be held Jan-uary 15 with Mrs. Arthur O'Neill. By Leone Wabs, reporter.

Family Gathering at Young Home -

A Christmas eve family dinner party was held at the home of Mrs. Guy Young on Monday evening, December 24. Those present were her son, Pfc. Stanley Young, of Ft. Belvoir, Va., Rev. and Mrs. Harold Young and sons, of Eskridge, Kans., Mr. and Mrs. Welter Huston and son, Dickie of Walter Huston and son, Dickie, of Kansas City, Mo., and Mr. and Mrs. Carol Summerer and son, of

O'NEILL LOCALS

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Cavanaugh went to Omaha Sunday to meet their son, Pvt. Quentin Cavanaugh, who is stationed at Ft. Belvoir, Va., and who will return to O'Neill with them to spend the

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Clements went to Pilger on Sunday to visit her sister and on Monday they went to Lincoln to spend the holi-days with their daughter and hus-

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Mlinar and Smith and family.

Tom Salem Never Refused Credit to Anyone; Could Supply What City Stores Couldn't his act to win the favor of a fair was not unusual the sunlight. These men of learn-will know who owes you.

Tom said, Oh, I'll do that some day. His stock of merchandise was unlimited and when an order was received at the Omaha wholesale houses from Salem at Amelia, the standing instruction was to get it out to him at once though the truck drivers had to miss others.

Mrs. Saunders at one time sent the big stores up and down O street. Then she sent to Kansas City and it was not found there. Then she went to Salem's in Amelia and found what she wanted among his amazing collection of merchandise.

Tom helped with hundreds of dollars his people in his native explain why a week is required Syria, and had an open hand for for the paper to reach you. The ship above that which many na-

Windows are coated with ice. A Friday evening callers at the home of Mrs. Carrie Borg and Marvel were Mrs. Howard Rouse and Mrs. Paul Nelson.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rohrer, of Creighton, are spending the holidays with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Clyde

Mrs. Donald Clyde

Mrs. Carrie Borg and tube out on the post has dropped to 10 below. A few householders have ventured out to clear the sidewalks. A car here and there groans and chugs while the wheels spin and the impatient gent at the steering wheel feeds in more gas. An hour later he is still there. The pines an cedars accident. . In 43 years of motorstill there. The pines an cedars accident. . . In 43 years of motorare dusted with ermine. The win-2 daughters were Monday guests ter of '51-'52 has taken us to its gotten into the statistics. . . at the home of Mrs. John L. cold embrace in mid-December. Among the half-million from Frontier want ads bring results! you have no more future than a shrine near Lisbon, Portugal, as snowman, there's something about 1951 holy year drew to a close. the arctic season that holds an ir-

> I have loved the first keen kiss of the frost That is wine and fire to the restible charm.

blood. And the wheel that cuts through the frozen ruts, And the roar of the mountain flood, And the mellow peace of the Sabbath morn

And the homeward turn in the lane. And the lamplight glow and the falling snow That beats so softly on the

Any day, most any hour of the day they may be heard; just turn the button on that little box that sits on a shelf in every home. And if we don't know what "ought to be done" we are pretty dumb.

LINCOLN-Tom Salem was . A half hour this morning I was perhaps the most widely-known amused if not edified by what of any who have lived in south- came over the air from the storewest Holt county. During his house of worldly wisdom em-years behind the counter in his bodied in the ample brains of paold-time country store in Amelia, triots at a great university. One where you could get anything from a spool of thread to a block of salt for the mess stirred up in Washingcattle. Tom nev-er refused any-one credit and it tions and the raw deals exposed to > to run a bill ing, one and all deplore the scan-with him of dals. Tom. How he remains with me.

a spindle. I said to him one day, Give me a ledger and that stack of accounts you have on that wire spike and I'll post them up so you hopes there will be no white-

The printers must be hardpressed. The Frontier shows up down this way a week after it is printed. I got calls at different times from both D. H. and George Miles to come in and take up the slack but no SOS call comes in the present press of holiday ads, and I don't know whether conto Lincoln for a certain kind of and I don't know whether congarment. It could not be found in clusion assumes it to be superannuation or lily white hands unfit to juggle type. (Editor's note: The superannuated Saunders hands are always welcome inside our por-But we'll have you know The Frontier is turned over to Uncle Sam's helpers every Wed-nesday night. It's hard for us to for the paper to reach you. The needy at home and abroad. He Ernest Brinkmans, formerly of cherished his American citizen- O'Neill, tell us their copy usually reaches Lincoln on Friday morn-

Prairieland was wet with 5 feet foot of snow iays in white purity of rain in 1951, the weatherman across the earth. Mercury in the says. . . The deer population has Even though you may have many lands were 10,000 Amerireached that period of life when cans who visited the Fatima

A Nebraska editor, Mr. Law-rence, of the Lincoln Star, thinks maybe Judge Thomas F. Murphy of the federal court in a New York district can do the job, but believes Gov. Tom Dewey is the one to put on the trail for a cleanup in Washington. Dewey certrainly did a job of that kind in New York. Whether the Truman move for a cleanup at this late date as another election draws on is for political effect or otherwise is everybody's guess.

In the 6 years functioning Alcoholics Anonymous has taken 120,00 folks out of the ranks of firewater consumers.

A woman selected a suit in a New York swank establishment but her check in payment would not be accepted unless the lady could identify herself. "Have you a new one dollar bill?" she asked the manager. It was produced and she pointed to the signature in the lower left hand corner, Georgia Neese Clark, treasurer of the United States. She got the suit. A woman selected a suit in a

Mr. Seaton hopped from the editorial scantum down at Hastings to a seat in the U.S. senate and it is now Senator Sea-ton, a new face in official cir-cles of the community where it is said he was born. Nebraskans have two strangers in the cogressional group at the nation's seat of authority.

The cheerful soul who loves a white Christmas had that pleasure | and Mrs. Robert W. Olson, a son, | Neill & Hagertys Add-O'Neill in prairieland and could have 12 | John Robert. . . Two new Holt | WD_Kenneth Werner to No. feet of it if they went up to county officers will assume their Tripp county, S.D.

miss knows that's the kind of a guy he ought to be.

20 Cases Smallpox In Dorsey Locality

50 Years Ago

T. N. J. Hynes, Mike and Will Fallon and Mike Sullivan are here from Park City, Utah, to spend the holidays, . . There are some 15 or 20 cases of small pox with him of dals.

with him of more than Yet among them their talks disthe deverybody thought this light of the scale of and everybody world's thinking today. One parents here. . Fred Gatz took was a friend of thought expressed this morning advantage of the first cold snap and cut ice. . . Parnell Golden is did it was some-thing of a mys-the few entrusted with govern-has been shaking hands with his tery. The ac-counts were wrong and all ever are upon them. counts were wrong and all eyes are upon them week. . . The cold wave has sub-kept on bits of paper he kept on while the thousands plugging sided. Snow is fast disappearing under the melting rays of a warm sun and the streets are sloppy as

> Miss Irenia Biglin went to Sioux City for a short visit with friends. . Miss Loretta Ryan expects to leave soon for Chicago, Ill. . . Mr. and Mrs. Vern Sageser and Mrs. M. L. Sageser were shopping in O'Neill. . The farm residence of C. M. Ernst, 2 miles north and 2½ miles west of O'Neill burned to the ground. . . Mr. and Mrs. Tom Mains, of Stuart, spent Christmas at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Arbuthnot. . . The WCTU will meet with Mrs. H. M. Uttley. . . Miss Mariam Golden came home from a day in April.

Columbus. 10 Years Ago Mr. and Mrs. Emmet Crabb went to Wagner, S.D., to visit their son, Verie, and family. . . Mr. and Mrs. James Rooney went to Tecumseh, being called there by the illness of Mr. Rooney's father. . . Miss Mary Brophy cameb home from Grand Island. . . Mrs. Henry Bauman spent the weekend in Atkinson. . . Howard Graves, Junior Harris and Robert Lowery arrived from Baltimore, Md., to spend the holidays with relatives. . . Miss Martha Switzer entertained 12 guests at her home at a miscellaneous shower in honor of Miss Jane Jeffrey. . . Mrs. C. J. Gatz entertained the Delta-Dek club.

Santa brought 2 babies for Christmas: Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Layh, a son, Rickey Lee and Rev.

HAROLD'S BOWLING ALLEY

- O'NEILL -

CATTLE AUCTION

At Atkinson, Nebraska EVERY MONDAY AND TUESDAY

EVERY MONDAY, starting at 12 o'clock noon - WE SELL CALVES AND YEARLINGS. This is the day to bring in your calves and light yearlings.

EVERY TUESDAY, starting at 10:30 A.M., we sell butcher catile and small consignments of other classes of cattle until 2 o'clock P.M., following which we sell carload lots of stockers and feeders.

LIST YOUR CATTLE IN ADVANCE AND GET FULL ADVANTAGE OF OUR EXTENSIVE ADVERTISING!

ATKINSON LIVESTOCK MARKET Atkinson, Nebr.

duties. Leo Tomjack, sheriff, and William E. Wefso, assessor.

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS

Mary Hamik 5-11-48 $1- Lots 2 & & DeWight D Perkins 9-29-51 $1-3 Blk 16- Atkinson GRD DEED — Edward L. WD — State of Nebraska to Charles Clauseen 12-10-51 $1280-12-51 $200-2/21st Int in Lots 2 & SW 4 36-30- Range 13

3 Blk 16- Atkinson.

WD-Kenneth Werner to Niobrara Valley Electric Membership

Corporation 11-28-51 $25- W1/2 lot 9 Blk F- Perkins Annex- Cham-WD-Howard M Perkins to Ha-QCD-Martin Hamik et al to zel I Nielsen-Richard E Perkins-

NE1/4 7-25-11

WD-Morris L Harmon to Wm Howard Friedrick arrived home J Froelich 3-3-51 $3600- E½ Saturday, December 22, from Chicago, Ill., where he attends an WD — Theodore W Strong to electrical school. He is spending Andrew Wettlaufer & wife 12-12- the holidays with his parents, Mr. 51 $3500- Lots 13-14-15 Blk G- O'- and Mrs. P. O. Friedrick.

WM. KROTTER CO.

Phone 531

West O'Neill

Phone 415-O'Neill

Ship Me To

Can you imagine the happiest New Year possible? That's what we're wishing for you today.

MEMBER FDIC

- O'NEILL -