Sports Dept. . . . Khubarb Heard at Clearwater Victory

CLEARWATER — St. Mary's academy Cardinals, of O'Neill, dropped a 41-48 decision to the favored Clearwater Cardinals Friday night on the tiny Clearwater rink. But feeling was running high among SMA partisans who witnessed 36 fouls assessed against the parochial team.

One of the officials was Richie Ashburn, the Philadelphia Phils' baseball star, and it was the consensus of O'Neillites that the refs were whistle-happy. Twenty-eight personals were called on Clearwater.

Clearwater Forward Barrett, who breezed along at a 20-points-per-game clip last season, was limited to 2 fielders by Big Bernie Mohr, SMA center.
Mohr proved to be the outstanding performer of the evening. Besides hawking the great Barrett, he established a modern individual scoring record for SMA players. His evening's total: 29.
The game sorely strained relations between Ref Ashburn and Big Bernie, who have been lifetime friends. Mohr moved to O'Neill from Tilden, Richie's hometown, not many months ago.
Coach Duke Kersenbrock's parochial kids led 25-23 at intermission.

Subzero temperatures chilled the SMA partisans no more than the officiating.

Niobrara Holds on For Narrow Victory

NIORRARA — The Niobrara Lions edged out a 1-point victory over the Spencer Pirates Tuesday evening, December 18, at Niobrara by a score of 42-41. The Pirates rallied in the fourth quarter to tally 17 points after trailing the Lions 25-19 at half-time and the third quarter had ended, Niobrara 37, Spencer 24.
High-point scorer for Spencer was Ray Sharp with 15 points and for Niobrara was Jay Eberly with 12. Both of these players fouled out in the last quarter.

Eagles Cop Again in Pre-Holiday Finale

The O'Neill high eagles made it 3 wins in 4 pre-Christmas starts by defeating the Atkinson Balers, 38-32, Friday night on the O'Neill rink. It was so cold outside the customers stalls went begging.
The Eagles were lucky to get by the orange without a spill, because they were off-balance all evening. The count was knotted 9-all at the end of the first stanza. O'Neill forged a 19-18 half-time advantage, was out in front 30-26 at the end of the third. Dave Eby turned in a bright floor game.

In a prelim in the O'Neill seconds, annexed 45-28 over the Atkinson reserves.
