

Chambers Coyotes Bag Pair of Wins

CHAMBERS—The Chambers high Coyotes, tutored by Coach Tommy Hutton, bagged a pair of post-holiday victories, turning back Bartlett and St. Joseph's hall, of Atkinson. The Bartlett game was played at Bartlett Wednesday, January 2, and the St. Joe encounter was staged Friday, January 4, at Chambers.

Chambers 56; Bartlett 20
It was a slow first-half against Wheeler county high (Bartlett) with the Coyotes holding a 22-12 advantage at intermission. The Chambers crew found the range for 34 points in the 2d half, including 19 in the 3d quarter.

Chambers 56; Bartlett 20
Bernard Gribble hit 17 points for the victors and Ralph Adams accounted for 14. The Chambers reserves won, 30-13.

Chambers 40; St. Joe 29
The Chambers Coyotes found sweet revenge for perennial trouncings in other years by defeating St. Joe, 40-29, before a full house of customers. The visitors led 9-7 at the first quarter and 20-12 at halftime. The Coyotes trailed 1 point going into the final frame. During that period the Josies were held to 6 points and Hutton's kids poured in 18 with a furious rally.

Nyal Rowse and Bernard Gribble accounted for 19 points between them to lead the Coyote attack. Gokie stood out for the Josies with 11.

The Coyote pups won a prelim, 35-19.

St. Mary's Hits Inman Crew, 36-28

INMAN—The Inman high Tigers pressed the lofty St. Mary's academy Cardinals all the way Friday evening, but the Cards won, 36-28, behind the 15, 10 and 8 point-getting performance of Messrs. Don Becker, Bernie Mohr and Slim Weier, respectively.

Inman's Richard Bohn, guard, kept the Tigers in the game with nifty out-court shots. He was as "hot as his mates were cold."

Inman led 12-11 at halftime but trailed by 2 points at the end of the 3d. The SMA height began to tell in the closing moments.

Inman seconds were buried, 4-27, by the Card scrubs. The SMA graders lost a thriller to the Inman graders, 23-24.

Inman Ousted from Tournney—BRUNSWICK—Page and Clearwater are seeded 1 and 2, in a 2 - conference prep basketball tournney, which got underway here Monday night. The meet continues through Friday.

The Clearwater Cards are defending champions and favored to repeat. Both Clearwater and Page are undefeated today with Page having played more games.

The Elkhorn valley league stages an annual tournney. This year the meet has been expanded to include Sandhill Gateway conference members. Oakdale with a strong record and Inman are other seeded teams.

Results: First round (Monday, January 7): Orchard 53 over Chambers 33; Brunswick 33 over Ewing 2. Second round, (Tuesday, January 8): Page 40 over Orchard 31; Brunswick 33 over Ewing 32.

In the first round play the Orchard Orioles proved too much for the Chambers Coyotes, the Orioles holding command all the way. Brunswick barely squeaked by the Ewing Tigers in a thriller from start-to-finish.

Inman's loss to Brunswick by a 5-point margin was considered a major upset. Inman tried to stall, which proved to be the wrong strategy.

3 Eagles Ejected but Neligh Spilled

NELIGH—Three O'Neill high Eagles took to the showers via personal foul route Friday night, but Coach Paul Baker's Blues managed to stay ahead of the Neligh Warriors and finish in front, 57-51.

Chased from the court were Don Godel, Gary Buckmaster and Junior Worth.

Godel, Davey Eby and Buckmaster accounted for 38 points for the Blues, who trailed 10-13 at the end of the first period, 22-25 at intermission. After the rest, the Eagles soared to a 39-35 margin.

In the prelim the O'Neill seconds won 52-45.

Warren Cronk New Noble Grand
PAGE—At the regular meeting of Page lodge 358, IOOF Monday night, the following officers were installed by district deputy grand master, I. L. Watson, and staff, of Inman:

Warren Cronk, noble grand; Ralph Larson, vice-grand; B. H. Stevens, secretary; Carl Max, treasurer; Don Cunningham, conductor; Glen Harris, chaplain; Harry Tegeler, right supporter to noble grand; V. E. Hunter, left supporter to noble grand; Leo Neubauer, inside guard; L. F. Felsman, outside guard; Soren Sorensen, jr., right scene supporter; Arnold Stewart, left scene supporter; R. V. Crumly, right supporter to the vice-grand; Charles Sorensen, left supporter to the vice-grand.

There were 38 members and 7 visitors present. Following installation those present were treated to an oyster stew.

Riverside Clubbers Busy Since Holidays

On Friday night, December 28, the Riverside 4-H club held its annual Christmas party at the IOOF hall in Inman.

Many guests were present. At midnight, lunch was served by the ladies, and gifts were exchanged.

Card parties have furnished part of the recreation for the club in the past few weeks. The first one was held at the Leo Schneider home.

The next party was held at the home of Mrs. Anna Ramold.

On Friday night, January 4, Mr. and Mrs. John Vitt and family planned a skating party, but the ice was very rough, so we again tried our luck playing pitch.

Most of the members also attended the Christmas program at district 5 and 174. These programs were to be held earlier in the week but were postponed because of snow and bad roads. The teachers of these schools are former members—Marie Schneider and Cathie Boyle.

Several members also attended a skating party at Ed Boyles, St. Mary's alumni dance, and 2 dances held near Ewing at which Edward Boyle helped furnish music.

Our next club rosary will be February 5, at Ed Boyles.

On Sunday night, January 5, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Boyle entertained the club and friends at a card party. Dick Boyle and Mrs. Bill Babutzka won high score and Ed Boyle and Marie Schneider won the low. — By Mary Agnes Boyle, news reporter.
