

Lila Hansen Weds
Warren Ebbers Here

A very pretty wedding was held at the Methodist church of O'Neill Sunday, January 6, at 2 p.m., with Rev. V. R. Bell officiating.

Lila Hansen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Hansen, and Warren Ebbers, of Firth, were joined in holy matrimony in a double-ring ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was dressed in a gown of white satin and net with a floor-length skirt and long sleeves ending in a point at the wrists. She wore a white illusion fingertip veil with lace and a beaded headpiece.

The bride carried out the traditional custom with something old, new and blue.

The bridegroom wore a suit of gray-blue and a white carnation boutonniere.

The maid-of-honor, Miss Wava Pearson, of Lincoln, had a floor-length gown of pink satin with a matching headpiece.

Wilmer J. Bishop, of Pleasant Dale, acted as bestman. His suit was navy blue.

Melvina Mulhair, niece of the bride, acted as flower girl. She was dressed in a blue floor-length taffeta gown. She carried the bride's bouquet of red roses.

Richard Mulhair, nephew of the bride, acted as ringbearer.

Janet and Larry Gifford, niece and nephew of the bride, were candlelighters.

Mrs. D. H. Hansen, mother of the bride, appeared in a street-length dress of navy blue and Mrs. John Ebbers, mother of the bridegroom, wore a street-length dress of wine. Both mothers had carnation corsages.

A. E. Bowen was organist and John Bowen sang "Because" and "I Love You Truly."

William Hansen, brother of the bride, and Earl Ebbers, brother of the bridegroom, were ushers.

A reception was held at the church basement immediately following the ceremony with 45 relatives and friends as guests.

The wedding cakes were baked by the bride's sister, Mrs. Charles Gifford, and a neighbor, Mrs. Vernon Harding.

Out-of-town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Pape, of Cortland; Mr. and Mrs. Owen Hensinkvelt, of Princeton; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ebbers, of Hallam; Mr. and Mrs. John Ebbers, of Firth; Earl Ebbers, of Firth; Wilmer J. Bishop, of Pleasant Dale; Mary E. Soucek, of Lincoln, and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Bouma, of Hallam.

After a short wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Ebbers will be at home on a farm near Firth.

Mr. and Mrs. Schulz Are Feted

A group of friends surprised Mr. and Mrs. Robert Schulz on Sunday, January 6. It was a combination birthday anniversary and farewell party. Mrs. Schulz's birthday occurs on that day and Mr. and Mrs. Schulz will soon be leaving for Florida.

There were 4 tables of pinocchle, with Mrs. D. N. Loy and Frank Greiner winning high, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lowry were low, and Robert Schulz won traveling.

Ruby Fox Bride of Francis Belzer

A beautiful and impressive wedding was solemnized at 9 a.m., Wednesday, January 2, in St. Patrick's Catholic church when Miss Ruby Fox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fox, of O'Neill, became the bride of Francis Belzer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Belzer, also of O'Neill. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Kenneth Carl before an altar decorated with poinsettias and red carnations.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was gowned in lace and heavy satin. The bodice of lace worked into flowers at the neckline and extended below the hip line, ending in a low point in the back. A full satin skirt fell in a long train. She carried a bouquet of white carnations.

The maid-of-honor, Mrs. William Kelly, wore a pink gown with a pink bonnet-shaped hat and carried white carnations. The bridegroom wore a light blue suit, and his brother, Edward Belzer, who was bestman, wore a light tan suit.

Mrs. Joseph Hansen as soloist sang, "On This Day," "Ave Maria Stella," "Panis Angelicus," and "Ave Maria," accompanied at the organ by Sister M. Flores, who also played 2 wedding marches, the festival processional and recessional.

A breakfast was served immediately after the ceremony to the wedding party at the M & M cafe, followed by a reception at the home of the bride's parents.

In the center of the table was a 3-tier wedding cake trimmed in pink roses and topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom.

The couple went to Fremont for a wedding trip. For going away the bride wore a wine checked suit and a corsage of white carnations.

They are making their home here. Mr. Belzer is employed at the Merri Bottling Co., and Mrs. Belzer is employed at Lookers.

Mrs. Robert Carroll and daughter, of Atkinson, were among the out-of-town guests.

New Officers Get Acquainted with Jobs

Members of the Beautiful Valley Garden club answered roll call on the subject of "What I've Done to Attract Birds" when they met at the home of Laverne Harley on Tuesday evening, January 1.

Rena Dierking was lucky enough to win the first door prize of Susie Hubbard's choosing, who took over as door prize chairman while the rest of the 1952 officers also got acquainted with their new jobs, including: Lou Hubbard, president; Bernice Platt, vice-president; Laverne Harley, secretary-treasurer.

Movies will be shown when the club meets with Esther Atkinson on February 5.

Miss Froelich's Engagement Announced

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Froelich have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Nancy, to John Robert Berigan, son of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Berigan, of Atkinson. Miss Froelich, who attended Barat college, Lake Forest, Ill., for 2 years, is a senior at Duchesne college, Omaha. She was a countess in the 1950 court of Ak-Sar-Ben. Mr. Berigan, who attended St. Louis university, St. Louis, Mo., is now a senior at Creighton university, Omaha. No date has been set for the wedding.
