Linda Tolbert Derby Champ

(Continued from page 1) of a group of O'Neill stores. Gambles have set aside a baby's car seat. Thus, Linda can ride as proud and as comfortable as anyone when she goes for a spin in the car.

New Outlaw Grocery has reserved a case of Gerber's baby food. Yes sir, a complete case!

Jacobson's hoped REA had arrived at her home—and, sure enough, the Hank's Craft electric bottle warmer and vaporizer will be welcomed.

Biglin Brothers join in the 1952 shower with a toilet adapter. Saves wear and tear on the washing machine and the diapers. Plastic, it rests on china toilet bowl.

Midwest Furniture & Appliance will present a child's training chair made from solid birch.

Shelhamer Foods wants Linda to have a good start—hence a case of Heinz baby food.

McIntosh Jewelry will provide their customary gift—a 10-karat gold infant's ring. It's something she'll cherish for life.

At Gilligan's Retail store there will await the '52 champ a baby's water bottle. Linda might use that hotwater bottle enroute home today from the hospital.

McCarville's will present a pair of Red Goose shoes. All children love Red Goose shoes.

The J. M. McDonald store will present a 100 percent wool Chatam blanket—a white one. It's vital that Linda keep snug and warm.

Drying diapers can be a rough chore during winter months. No chore at all with a high-boy wooden clothes dryer like Coyne's Hardware is presenting.

O'Neill Photo Co. will present one 8"x10" tinted enlargement with frame and 12 3"x5" mounted prints. Linda can pose for Mr. Photographer any time during those precious early weeks.

Photographer any time during those precious early weeks. And with pop in far-away Pearl Harbor it's a safe bet she'll head for the O'Neill Photo her first trip to town.

The Apparel Shop will present Linda one of their finest dresses from their infant's wear department. It will be styled by a nationally known maker.

And, just for good measure, The Frontier is issuing to Linda Lee a 1-year subscription to north-Nebraska's fastest growing newspaper.
