Don F. Engel

NEW AND OLD . . . Don F. Engel (above), a native of Platte county and a 1950 University of Nebraska college of agriculture graduate, has been appointed Boyd county agent and will headquarter at Butte. He will succeed Walter G. Sire (below), who has served as Boyd agent since 1942. Previously he was Holt county assessor. Mr. Sire is limiting his activities for health reasons and will continue with his livestock interests. Engel has been assistant Holt county agent for the past 6 months and won the attention of state extension officials.
