Newly-Wedded Pair Will Reside Here

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony T. Kettler, a newly-married couple, will reside in O'Neill where Mr. Kettler will be employed by Consumers Public Power district.

The Lady chapel of St. Cecilia's Cathedral, Omaha, was the scene Saturday for the wedding of Miss Opal Mae Wiles, of Weeping Water, and Anthony Thomas Kettler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Anton Kettler, of Omaha.

Rev. Charles Broderson officiated at the 10 a.m. ceremony. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Wiles, of Weeping Water.

Joseph Archibald, Omaha, was bestman; Charles Absher and Lloyd Shalla, both of Omaha, and Richard Barnett, the latter of Lincoln, ushered.

The white satin bridal gown was fashioned with an illusion yoke outlined by a satin and lace bertha and a full skirt that extended into a train. The bride wore a lace-edged fingertip veil of illusion held by a satin bonnet; she carried carnations on a prayer book.

Mrs. Barnett, matron-of-honor, wore rose taffeta, carried white carnations. Mrs. Absher, bridesmaid for her sister, wore aqua, carried yellow carnations.

A breakfast followed at the Hilltop House. After a trip to Chicago, Ill., Mr. and Mrs. Kettler will live in O'Neill. The bride was graduated from Bryan Memorial hospital school of nursing, Lincoln; Mr. Kettler received his degree from the University of Nebraska.

Ellis-Grimes Rites Read at St. Edward

CHAMBERS—Floor baskets of yellow chrysanthemums and yellow candles in 7 branched candelabra decorated the altar of the First Presbyterian church in St. Edward, for the Sunday afternoon, January 20, wedding of Miss Mary Louise Ellis and Milton C. Grimes.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Ellis, of St. Edward, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clair Grimes, of Chambers.

One hundred thirty guests were present for the double-ring ceremony performed at 3 p.m., by Rev. Charles Rabenberg, Mrs. Robert Corcoran, sister of the bridegroom, played the traditional organ prelude and marches and accompanied Mrs. George Nelson, of St. Edward, who sang "Through the Years" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white satin. A ruffle of lace outlined her sheer off-shoulder yoke.

Satin covered buttons extended from the neckline to below the waist and the full satin skirt fell to a long train. Her double-tier fingertip veil of silk illusion fell from a braided halo of seed pearl orange blossoms, and she carried white roses.

Miss Carol Schrimsher, of Talmadge, as maid-of-honor, wore a gold satin gown. The bridesmaids, Miss Sarah Harris, of Omaha, and Miss Gloria Brown, of Beatrice, wore identical gowns of royal blue taffeta. They wore matching demi-caps and carried bouquets of yellow mums and carnations.

Gerald Grimes, of Chambers, served his cousin as bestman. Ushers were Ralph Adams, of Chambers, cousin of the bridegroom, and Lee Ellis, of St. Edward, brother of the bride. The tapers were lighted by the ushers.

Decorations in the church parlors for the reception carried out the bride's colors of blue and gold. The four tier wedding cake was topped with a miniature bell and was cut by the groom's sister, Mrs. Loran Coppoc, of Ottumwa, Ia. Refreshments of cake and ice cream with a stenciled
