TOP ANGUS BULL BRINGS $2,000

Siders Entry Brings Best Figure; Show Honors to Revell and Ressel

(Other pictures on page 8.)
Forty-seven bulls grossed $29,870, an average of $635 per head, in the 6th annual Holt County Aberdeen-Angus Breeders' sale held Tuesday at the O'Neill Livestock Market.
Top selling bull, Steel Creek Bandolier 64th, was consigned by Ray Siders. This bull brought $2,000, paid by Alfred Martens, of Atkinson.
Martens paid $1,850 for the next highest priced bull, sold by E. J. Revell & Sons. This bull, Formero L. 72d, was the grand champion bull of the show held in the forenoon. The champion was calved April 20, 1950.

The reserve champion bull, Eric Bandolier of Holt, calved September 2, 1950, brought $800, consigned by Harry E. Ressel.

The grand champion female was consigned by Freeman L. Knight, brought $700. Top selling female, owned by Forre L. Knight & Sons, brought $800. Both top selling females were purchased by Charles Hill, of Johnstown, Hill, of Johnstown.

Thirteen cows in Tuesday's Angus sale brought $7,170, an average of $552, and 6 heifers in the 4-H division averaged $226—grossing $1,355.

The sale, including 47 bulls and 19 females, grossed $38,395, an average of over $580.
The pavilion was packed with spectators and buyers at both the show and sale.

"Tex" Spitzer, of the J. Garrett Tolan farms, Pleasant Plains, Ill., was the judge. He presented a type demonstration on stage at the American Legion auditorium on the eve of the show and sale. The event was the annual Angus banquet.

Charles Reece, jr., of Simeon, was master-of-ceremonies. Remarks were made by Ray Siders, president of the association; Edward M. Gallagher, O'Neill banker; Henry Vequist, veteran Angus breeder, and others. The American Legion auxiliary served the banquet to more than 200 persons.

As in previous years South Dakotans were well represented among the buyers.

Ewing Visitors

Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Urban and Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Street were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Urban in Ewing.

2 File for Holt County Offices

There were 2 filings this week for nominations in the Holt county 1952 primary election.
County Superintendent Alice L. French, who was appointed in November, 1950, to succeed Miss Eliza McCullough, has filed for the 2-year term to fill the vacancy.
County Judge Louis W. Reimer has filed for reelection for a 4-year term. Judge Reimer took the post in May, 1939, following the death of the late Judge C. J. Malone.
State Sen. Frank Nelson, of O'Neill, filed several months ago with the secretary of state for reelection to the unicameral legislature. District Judge D. R. Mounds filed early in January.
County filings are with Holt County Clerk Ruth Hoffman. Deadline for filing for the April primary is February 21.
All nominations sought to date are on the non-political ballot.

His wife died 2 years ago. They would have observed their 58th wedding anniversary the day of his death.

The Jansens came to Holt county from Iowa 66 years ago and settled 5 miles north of Atkinson.

Survivors include: Sons—Edward, Norbert and Fred, jr., all of Atkinson; Elmer and Joseph, both of Casper, Wyo.; daughters—Mrs. Edward Bouska and Miss Martha, both of Atkinson; Mrs. Frank Johnson, of Casper, Wyo.; Mrs. Frank Ackerman, of Midwest, Wyo., and Mrs. Robert Hoffman, of Clark, Ill.

Capped in Omaha

Mr. and Mrs. James J. Kelly went to Omaha Saturday, February 3, to attend the capping of their daughter, Miss Mary Lois, at St. Catherine's school of nursing. Miss LuAnne Fritton accompanied them to Omaha.

Miss Carolyn Tams, of Inman, was an overnight guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Marcellus, while Dick Marcellus spent the night at the Tams home Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Marcellus and family spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Tams and Janelle Tams returned to O'Neill with them for a short visit.

HEREFORDS GROSS OVER $30,000

Rowse Entries Win Laurels but Whitaker Bull Tops Market

The annual spring show and sale of the Holt County Hereford Breeders' association, held here Saturday, saw show honors go to George Rowse & Sons, of Chambers. But Whitaker & Whitaker, also of Chambers, walked off with the top money.

The Whitaker bull, Silver Larry 1st, a great-grandson of the register of merit bull, Larry Domino 50th, commanded an impressive $1,710 figure, a new high mark in association history. Purchaser was Max A. Baird, of Brunswick.

Grand champion of the show, NR Eclipse Domino, of Pioneer Shadow - Mischief Stanway breeding, was purchased by Elwyn White, of Atkinson, for $1,300. The reserve champion of the show, Choice Pioneer, of same breeding and same ownership, was sold to E. A. Riemenschneider, of Pierson, Ia., for $910.

Sale Manager James W. Rooney reported that the 54 head—including males and females—sold grossed over $30,000, an average of $555 per head. The 41 bulls grossed $24,670, an average of $602; the top 10 bulls grossed $9,485, nearly a $1,000 average. Wilford Scott, of Chadron, was the judge.

Bulls which placed first in their class in addition to the 2 champions were shown by: Riverview Hereford Ranch, of Butte (2), Whitaker & Whitaker (2), Elwyn Robertson, of Chambers (1), C. V. Robertson, of Chambers (1), and George Rowse & Sons.

Other top selling bulls were: RHR Bozato Anxiety 4th, consigned by Riverview Hereford ranch and selling to H. W. King, of Verdigré, for $1,050; CM Puss Mischief, shown by C Bar M Hereford ranch, of O'Neill, selling to D. C. Schaffer, of O'Neill, for $800, and RHR Bozato 33rd, sold by Riverview Hereford ranch to Elmer Christiansen, of Verdell, for $800.

The champion female, Carl Starina, a TH North Star bred heifer, was shown by Henry Wood, of Ewing, and sold to C. V. Robertson for $670. Mr. Wood also had the reserve champion female, Beauty Starina, of the same blood lines. She sold to Paul H. Reel, of Spencer, for $650. Other females winning first in their class were shown by: Harold Van Vleck & Sons, of Clearwater, Whitaker & Whitaker, and George Rowse & Sons.

Other top selling females were: Miss Nebraska Paladin, sold by S. R. Robertson, of O'Neill, to Floyd Tucker, of Rose, for $510; Lady Paladin II, sold by George Rowse & Sons for $495 to William Smeal, of Howells, and JRS Lady V, sold by Whitaker & Whitaker to Ray Hoffman, of Chambers, for $425.

George Rowse & Sons won possession of the silver cup offered by the O'Neill Chamber of Commerce to the breeder showing the best pair (bull and female) of the show. This cup was presented to Mr. Rowse by D. D. DeBolt, president of the Chamber. This cup becomes the property of the breeder winning it 3 times. The cup was won by the Rowses in 1950 and S. R. Robertson in 1951.

Ewing Band in Winter Concert

EWING—The music department of Ewing high school presented its winter concert at the school auditorium on Thursday evening, January 31, under the direction of the instructor, Gerald Chalupa. Eighty-eight students participated.

Propst Withdraws Injunction Suit

On behalf of himself and "all holders of school land leases in the state of Nebraska, similarly situated," William Propst, Grant filed in Lancaster district court for dismissal of his request for an injunction to prevent the state board of educational lands and funds from auctioning off state school land leases.

Propst's petition stated that he had offered a bid for use of a section of land in Perkins county and his bid had been accepted by the board. The lease is for 12 years.

Propst asked dismissal of the suit because "the questions have become moot and there is no actual controversy."

Here for Sale

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Reece, of Simeon, arrived Monday to attend the Angus sale and banquet. They were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ressel while they were in O'Neill.

BIDDING KEEN ON SCHOOL LEASES

Emmet Wertz Pays $4,600 for Section Formerly Held by Max Wanser

Lots of bidding went on Thursday and Friday during another round of Holt school land lease sales.

Thursday forenoon bidding was mild, but in the afternoon the competition was keen. All sales are subject to confirmation by the Nebraska state board of educational lands and funds.

This issue of The Frontier carries official publication of a large series of auctions to be held during the period February 23 to March 7. (See page 7.)

Charles Diehl renewed his lease on section 16, township 30, range 13, for $235. Louis Goeke claimed his lease for $150 on the N½ except the SE¼NW¼ of the same section. Lloyd Taylor was high bidder on NE¼NE¼-SW¼ NW¼-NW¼SW¼-SE¼SW¼ of section 16, township 25, range 12. His bid was $250. The former lessees were Isaac Taylor and C. F. W. Lehman.

Others who were successful in renewing their leases were:

Ralph Van Horn, E½SE¼-16-27-9 for $50.

James P. Gallagher, NE¼ of 34-28-10 at $100.

William Riech gave $300 for all 36-25-13 and W. S. Simmons's bid was $250 on NE¼-W½ of 16-27-9.

Emmet Wertz renewed his lease on all section 16, township 30, range 8 for $4,600. There was considerable bidding on the lease formerly held by Max Wanser. A bid of $2,900 was posted by John Steskal, of Inman. Legal description is all 16-27-10.

A. G. Johnson renewed his lease on NW¼SE¼-36-32-9 for $25. Emil and Joe Forman, of Walnut, were high bidders on all 36-32-9 for $5,900. This lease was formerly held by Frank Bartos. Harold Daniels, of Ewing, renewed his lease for $200 on 5½NW¼-16-25-9 and Arthur Pacha, of Atkinson, was high bidder on all 36-29-15. His bid was $3,900. He is the present lessee.

The following were successful in Friday's bidding on renewing their leases: James P. Gallagher, $4,900, all 16-29-10; Joseph Distenhaupt, of Atkinson, $50, E½ NE¼-16-29-15; Art Kaplan, of Atkinson, $1,500, SW¼SW¼-E½ SW¼-16-29-15; Charles Dvorak, of Atkinson, $1,250, N½SE¼-16-29-15; E. O. Slaymaker, of Atkinson, $800, S½SE¼-16-29-15, and H. & H. Gallagher, of O'Neill, $550, SW¼SE¼-4-23-11.

Leo Harte, of Inman, was high bidder on a lease formerly held by Orlo W. Colwell, of Butte, formerly of Ewing. The bid was $5,300. The description is all 16-28-10.

Other renewals were: Myron Benton, $1,700, all of 36-25-16; Anton Dobrovoly, of Atkinson, $1,600 on all 16-26-16; Emma Fleming, $1,050 on the S½NE¼ SE¼ of 16-26-10.

Meusch Bros., of Stuart, $1,000 for all 16-32-16, and Pierson and Knapp, of O'Neill, $300 for the N½ of 16-30-11.

Much interest was shown in the lease formerly owned by Louise Neubaum, which was bid in by Harry Keeler and Robert Vance. The price was $1,500 for the NW¼ of 16-26-10. Bob Sumner, of Ewing, was another who renewed his lease on the SE¼ of 16-25-11 for $625. Also Clyde Streeter, of O'Neill, who claimed his lease for $200 on the SW¼-N½SE¼, SE¼SE¼-16-30-11.

P. W. Sumner, of Ewing, was high bidder on the NE¼ of 16-25-11. His bid was $1,000, as was Ludwig Koenig, of Ewing, on SE¼-S½NW¼-NE¼NW¼-N½ SW¼ of Section 16, township 25, range 10, who bid $750. On the E½SW¼ of 16-25-11, formerly owned by P. W. Sumner, the bid of David Isaacson was highest. It was $500.

Most interest Friday afternoon concerned the former Guy Parsons lease on all of 16-28-16. Lincoln Hamilton, of Atkinson, bid $2,700 for this lease.

J. F. Storchmann, of O'Neill, bid $6,600 to renew his lease on all 36-32-13.

Another lease which changed owners was on the E½-N½ SW¼-SE¼SW¼-36-31-10, formerly held by Tomlinson and Siders, and was bid in by Albert Derickson, of Star, for $3,900. High bids were posted on the following by Guy Johnson, of O'Neill, $1,700, on the NW¼-36-31-10; Bob Clifford, of Atkinson, $1,025, on all 36-27-16; Francis Peter, of O'Neill, $2,200, for all 16-27-12, and F. J. Graham, of Dorsey, $900, for all 16-32-9. All were the former lessees.
