ST. JOHN'S CATHOLIC
(RFD, Clearwater)
Rev. C. J. Kaup, pastor
Sunday masses, 8:30 and 10:30 a.m.
Confessions Saturday 3:30, 5:30, 7 and 9 p.m.

DO THEY REALLY?
Mr. X, ever since his childhood, has had drilled into his head things against the Catholic church. Perhaps he perused magazine articles and books which gave "facts" about the church as seen from the inside by ex-priests and "escaped" nuns. Or perhaps he listened to orators who cared success in promoting religious hatred and earn their 30 pieces of silver.

If we should ask Mr. X to disregard such racketeers and to search the records of priests and nuns who have been "exed" from their orders, Mr. X would probably say he had neither time nor interest. Perhaps we should not blame him for that.

But to all the Mr. X's we make this appeal: Take 2 minutes' time to think the thing out. If all the accusations against the church, from the days of the apostles down to the present time, were true, how could the church have lasted 1900 years? How could she have mounted to a membership today of over 338,000,000? How can she draw into her fold more than 85,000 people yearly in the U.S.A. alone — in England about 13,000 each year?

Remember, too, that those who join the Catholic church do not do it for worldly advancement. They do not do it because they have not heard the propaganda against her. They do not do it because the Catholic church fits a certain type of undeveloped mind, for the converts include many of the outstanding men and women of the world—authors, scientists, teachers, clergymen, and the like. No, they do it because they have delved into history and theology from all sides, and their consciences have permitted no other course.

The Mr. X's of today, with little time for investigation, are letting their common-sense be their guide. Many now refuse to be deceived by professional anti-Catholics. Others are asked for information on the foolish and malign accusations which their common-sense will let them believe.

Our society is in existence to furnish true facts about things Catholic, present and past. If it's anything Catholic, ask a Catholic!
