

Broncs Split with St. Joe, Long Pine

STUART—The Stuart high Broncs went to Atkinson on Tuesday night, January 29, to meet defeat at the hands of St. Joseph hall, 45-37. The second teams held the score down to 18-16—another triumph for the Jo-sies.

The Broncs were victorious over the Long Pine high school team Friday night on the Stuart floor.

Ulrich was out in front with 23 points. He dropped in 8 field goals and 7 free throws. Brewster followed with 15 points and Coats 11. The second team score was 26-19 in favor of Stuart.

Dunning Cops Gals' Volleyball Tourney

STUART—The North-Central Nebraska conference gals' volleyball tournament got underway on Monday, January 28, at Long Pine with Stuart and Dunning playing the first game. Dunning was winner, 53-20. Later the same night Stuart lost a game to Long Pine, 28-53. This put Stuart in the group playing for consolation.

On Wednesday night, January 30, the Broncoettes were again matched with Long Pine, losing the game, 35-44.

The finals were played Thursday night. Winners were Dunning, first; Springview, second; Atkinson, third, and Bassett, consolation.

Local volleyball fans saw the gals defeated once more when they played Long Pine on the Stuart floor Friday night, February 1. Stuart stepped out in the lead but let Long Pine cop, 43-45.

Lions Star Girds for Ashburn & Co.

The O'Neill Lions club basketballers have stepped up rehearsals with hopes of upsetting Richie Ashburn and his Tilden Townies.

The Philadelphia Phillies baseball star and his mates are unbeaten in exhibition matches in these parts.

Proceeds from the game to be played Thursday, February 14, will go to the Holt county chapter, National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis. Members of the Lions team are Roy D. Johnson (manager), Bob Cole, Jess Wills, Dick Kazda, Don Harmon, Paul Baker, Shorty Miles, Jim Donohoe and Marlin Luber.

The Lions have played 8 games. They tangled with Orchard Sunday at O'Neill and with the Page Indians Wednesday night at O'Neill.

In a preliminary the North side business men's team will tangle with the South sideers. Don Peterson heads the North side artists; Dean Jeffrey, the South all-stars.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Brewster motored to Ainsworth on Sunday and were guests in the home of Mr. Brewster's brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Delmar Brewster.

Eagles Cop No. 11 in Ragged Contest

Coach Paul Baker's O'Neill high Eagles triumphed again Tuesday night, defeating Burwell Longhorns, 46-36, on the Burwell court. It was the 11th win for the Eagles, who have lost only 3 starts.

It was a ragged contest. Don Godel accounted for 21 points for the victors.

Hay Baler in Town Attracts Attention

STUART—It is unusual to have a haybaler working in town so a number of people went to see the Van Cleave crew at work on Saturday, February 2.

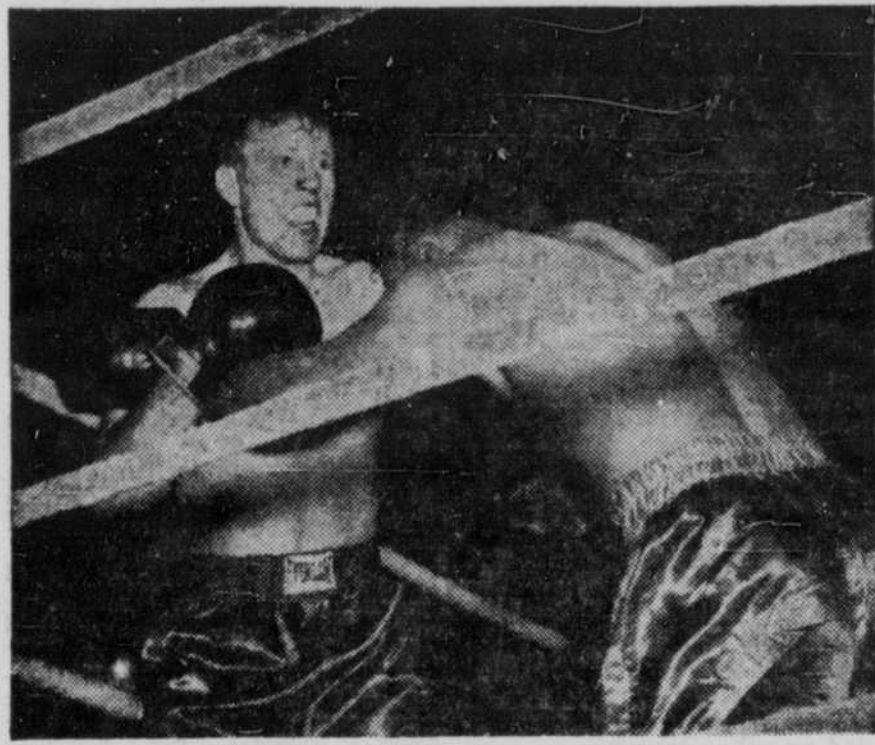

About 40 stacks of hay had been hauled into the north edge of town by way of underslung for speculation.

The fire department declared the loose hay a fire hazard and by order of the village board the hay had to be moved. The baling crew was secured and the baled hay will be stored.
