George D. Hansen, of O'Neill, democrat, for supervisor, Second district.

George Collins, of Atkinson, republican, for county surveyor.

The latest visit of old man winter brought to an end 3 weeks of springlike weather.

One of The Frontier's correspondents, Mrs. Henry Reimer, of Deloit, had been so enthusiastic about the spring weather she wrote:

"It's like June in January at Deloit this February."

But Monday's change in the weather brought out furlined boots and snowshovels. Several inches of snow fell during the night and traces of snow were added Tuesday and Wednesday.

The snow was fanned by a strong northwest wind.

Wednesday afternoon the cold wave was moving out of the region. Thursday's forecast called for diminishing winds, increased cloudiness and warmer.

The Elkhorn river had been running bank full—and more in places—during the thaw.

Summary based on 24-hour periods ending at 5 p. m., daily, follows:

	Hi	Lo	Prec.
February 14	34	28	.09

North Siders, Tilden Cop Benefit Tilts

Exhibition basketball games last Thursday evening, arranged by Earl ("Short") Hunt for the polo drive, produced these results:

The North Side "has-beens" defeated the South side "ever-doubtfuls" 28-27 in a preliminary.

The Tilden Townies, led by Philadelphia Phillis' Richie Ashburn, defeated the O'Neill Lions team, 65-47.

The prelim was a farce in which substitutes were paraded by the dozens. About 30 performers of yesterday had a go at the ball only to prove quite convincingly they were much too old for the game. Oldest players taking part in the show were Ed Hancock and Henry Lohaus, who played basketball at O'Neill high and Humphrey in the late 1920's.

The Rebels led most of the way but wilted in the closing moments.
