Variety Show Draws Full House, Ewing

EWING — The school auditorium was packed to capacity Saturday evening for the variety show given for the polio benefit drive. No charge was made for admission, but the donations boosted the polio fund for the village quota. The program began with remarks by John Walker, master of ceremonies.

Miss Jackie Mosel sang "In the Garden" with Mary Alys Dierks pianist. Mrs. Bernice Shindler was honored again and again for her yodeling numbers. Two accordion selections were given by Bill Ernesti. Impersonations of the Misses JoAnn Bauer and JoAnn Lydon proved to be popular.

Thelma Drayton's presentation of "The Royal Family of Broadway" was especially pleasing, as well as the encore.

A solo "I'm in Love," by Don Ernesti, a popular soloist in the Ewing high school, followed on the program with Marcia Gibson accompanist.

The baby show in which a trick background was used provided a hilarious moment in the evening's entertainment. Participants were Mayor Leland Welke, Willis Rocky, Pat Lampert, Ray Neisus and Wilbur Bennett.

The saxophone four, of the Ewing high school, played "Five Foot Two" and an encore. A talk was given by Rev. C. J. Kaup, of St. John's Catholic church, on the use of the polio fund and the need for the continuation of funds for research as well as assistance for those afflicted.

"The Lord's Prayer," sung by Miss Joellyn Eacker, accompanied by Miss Marcia Gibson, brought the program to a close.

Mrs. John Bauer and Mrs. Willy Rockey made up the program committee.

The American Legion auxiliary served doughnuts and coffee, and all proceeds went to the polio fund. Auxiliary members in charge were Mrs. Florence Hahlbeck, Mrs. Gerald Chapula, Mrs. Maud Boise, Mrs. Margaret Gibson, Mrs. Mabel Boies, Mrs. Lucille Hahlbeck and Mrs. H. R. Harris.
