

Cards Capture Class C Crown

(See RECAP at right)

ATKINSON—The St. Mary's academy Cardinals borrowed a page from Frank Meriwell Friday night and captured the Atkinson class C regional basketball tournament.

They trailed a hot Page high outfit until the final 2 minutes, overcoming a 12-point deficit, eased into a 2-point lead, and then stalled while the clock was grinding out the finish in the final game of the meet.

The Eagles and a host of their followers were stunned by the amazing turn of events after Little Bill Zempel had helped produce a neat lead with remarkable long-range accuracy.

Zempel hit 6 fielders out of 7 tries during the first-half, giving Page a 10-7 first period lead of a 21-12 halftime advantage.

Coach Duke Kersensbrock's youngsters were futile during the first half. Their passes were going where the guy wasn't, their shooting from near and far was miserable. It looked like Page's night by 16 lengths.

Even at the 3d quarter the complexion of the game had not changed and there was no evidence that a sleeping volcano was about to erupt.

Don Becker and Bernie Mohr finally loosed the shackles and got cracking—Becker with 11 points and Mohr with 7 during the furious 4th when the Cards made their height payoff.

It was Wayne Donohoe's bucket in the final moments that put the Cards on the glory trail.

Final 3 minutes of the game was recorded by George Hammond and broadcast on the Saturday "Voice of The Frontier" program (WJAG, 780 kc.)

Battle Creek Knocks Cardinals

BRUNSWICK—The St. Mary's academy Cardinals bowed to a speedy Battle Creek quint, 34-26, in the inter-regional playoff game here Wednesday night.

Battle Creek had capped the Plainview class C tourney; SMA the Atkinson.

Long Don Becker was the only Card hitting and his offensive efforts were not enough to match 2 speedy Battle Creek forwards.

Battle Creek thus earned a ticket to the state tourney.

Nels Jacobsens Wed 58 Years

EWING — On Thursday evening, February 28, 35 friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Nels Jacobsen for their weekly prayer meeting. Rev. Melvin Grosenbach, Wesleyan Methodist minister from showed 2 reels of film, "Cain O'Neill, led the meeting and also and Abel" and "Time Runs Short." Rev. R. Nabholz, district superintendent of the Wesleyan Methodist church, disclosed the reason for the suppressed feeling when he paid a tribute to Mr. and Mrs. Jacobsen, and read the 91st Psalm and then congratulated them on their 58th wedding anniversary.

Mr. Jacobsen, 88, is a native of Denmark and Mrs. Jacobsen, 76, was born in Jersey City, N.J. They began their married life on a homestead near Naper. In 1897 they moved to a farm 2 1/2 miles east of Ewing, which was their home until 1937, when they retired and moved to Ewing.

Mrs. Hazel Norwood was the only one of their children present for this anniversary celebration. Their son, Thomas, who lives in Florida, and a daughter, Mrs. Helen Lee, of LaHonda, Calif., were unable to attend.

The wedding cake, all white, topped by a miniature bride and bridegroom, was baked by Mrs. Norwood. This was served with sandwiches and coffee for refreshments.

Out-of-town guests were: Rev. and Mrs. Melvin Grosenbach, of O'Neill; Rev. R. Nabholz, of Lincoln; Mrs. Ray Cole, William Herman, Anita Clausen, Rev. and Mrs. W. A. Lamb, all of O'Neill.
