Deviled Tuna and Macaroni a Suggestion for Lenten Meal-in-One Casserole

By BLANCHE SPANN PEASE

Now that the time comes for you to serve Lenten meals, I think many of our readers might enjoy deviled tuna and macaroni. It's a colorful meal-in-one casserole that will please your guests as well as your own family. If you wish, you can use another canned seafood in place of the tuna, for example, try crab meat or salmon. Lettuce salad and hot rolls served with this are an excellent accompaniment. Nor need this be a Lenten dish alone, it's good served any day of the year.

DEVILED TUNA AND MACARONI

Four ounces shell macaroni, 2 tablespoons butter, 1 tablespoon enriched flour, 1 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon paprika, 2 teaspoons Worcestershire sauce, 1 1/2 cups milk, 1 tablespoon lemon juice, 1 cup flaked tuna (7 ounce can), 2 hard boiled eggs, 1 tablespoon chopped pimiento, sliced stuffed olives. Cook macaroni in boiling salted water until tender (8 minutes). Drain and rinse. While macaroni is cooking, melt butter or margarine in sauce pan. Stir in flour, salt and paprika and Worcestershire sauce. Gradually add milk, stirring constantly until slightly thickened. Add lemon juice and tuna. Dice hard cooked eggs, reserving 1 yolk for garnish. Fold eggs and macaroni into deviled sauce. Mix thoroughly. Pour into 4 greased individual baking dishes. Bake in moderate oven of 350 F. for 20 minutes. Garnish with sieved egg yolk, pimiento and olives. Makes 4 servings

Dear Blanche: I am going to share my recipe for golden brown sugar cake with your readers.

GOLDEN BROWN SUGAR CAKE

Two cups brown sugar, 1/2 cup shortening, 2 whole eggs, 1 teaspoon soda, dissolved in 1 tablespoon boiling water, 2 cups flour, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1 cup buttermilk or sour milk. Mix together with hands the sugar, flour, shortening and salt. After mixing reserve 1/4 cup of the mixture. Add to the remaining mixture the eggs, buttermilk and soda which has been dissolved in boiling water. Beat well and pour into a greased floured, loaf pan. Now sprinkle the 1/4 cup of the reserved mixture over the top of the batter and bake in oven for 35 minutes at 350 F.

OATMEAL CAKE

One cup sugar, 2 eggs, beaten, 1/3 cup chopped dates, 1/3 cup shredded coconut, 1 1/2 cups flour, 1/2 teaspoon baking powder, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/2 cup shortening, 1/2 cup vanilla, 1/3 cup chopped black walnuts, 1/2 cup oatmeal, 1 teaspoon soda, 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon, 1 cup sour milk. Cream sugar and shortening. Add eggs and beat well. Stir in vanilla, dates, nuts and coconut and oatmeal. Sift the remaining dry ingredients and add alternately with sour milk. Mix well and pour into a 6- by 10-inch pan. Bake in moderate oven of 350 F. for one hour.

I'm also enclosing some of my favorite hints. If you put powdered sugar in meringue instead of granulated sugar, it will keep the meringue from gathering water.

Rice will take the too strong taste from lard. Melt the lard and add 1/2 cup uncooked rice to each gallon. Heat until the rice is a golden brown. Cool and strain.

A can of cream of chicken soup mixed with vegetables and heated and then poured over toast is very delicious.

You can keep nuts and raisins from sinking to the bottom of a cake by sprinkling them on top of the batter when it is in pans.

Spends New Year's on Korean Front

LYNCH—S/Sgt. Charles J. Kolar's holiday experiences in the Far East theater have varied. Thanksgiving he went to Japan by air for a furlough. Christmas was spent in Korea. Dinners on both occasions "were real banquets," he wrote.

New Year's day, however, was different: He was slugging it out with the Reds on the front lines.

Kolar is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Kolar of Monowi. He entered the service November 21, 1950, and took his basic training at Ft. Riley, Kans., with company C., 86th regiment, Tenth infantry division. After basic training he spent 2 weeks furlough at home and on March 30, 1951, left for Ft. Lawton, Wash. On April 14, 1951, Sergeant Kolar . . . holiday conditions vary in the Far East.

he embarked for Camp Fuji, Japan, and was advanced to Pfc. He went to Seoul, Korea, in August.

Korea's average winter temperature this year has been 10 degrees below zero with 3 to 6 inches of snow. The men wear sufficient clothing to keep comfortable at all times.

Sergeant Kolar is now serving with the 25th infantry division on the fighting front in Korea. He is a section leader in the 14th infantry regiment. He spends 5 days on the front lines and then is sent for a 5-day rest period behind the lines. During these rest periods they make their shelter by digging a hole and covering it first with poles which they then cover with a mound of dirt. In these dugouts they keep warm by a stove made from 81 mm. mortar cans with artillery shell casings for stove pipes. They are comfortable in these rudely built dugouts.

Sergeant Kolar writes that he is able to attend church services quite regularly.

Sergeant Kolar wears the combat infantryman badge and his division is a veteran unit of the war in Korea.

Treasurer Quits During an Audit

State Auditor Ray C. Johnson

Saturday confirmed that Keya Paha County Treasurer Dale Sheppard has resigned after Mr. Johnson's staff started an audit of the treasurer's books.

Sunday Sheppard was quoted as saying he quit "because of the supposition of a deficiency of funds."

Asked if his decision to quit came suddenly, Mr. Sheppard said "not too sudden." He has been the Keya Paha county treasurer for 8 years. An audit of the books will be completed this week.

ATKINSON—A new Wurlitzer organ was used Sunday for the first time in St. Joseph's Catholic church, Atkinson.
