

Win $31 in Prizes in Bussie Competition

Thirty-three members of the O'Neill vocational agriculture class attended the Niobrara valley heretofore field day, Thursday, March 6, which was sponsored by the Butte Community club.

One highlight of the day was a juggling contest which was open to all FFA and 4-H members and veterans and other adults. The contest consisted of two classes of heretofore buns and two classes of heretofore neuters.

The O'Neill FA boys won four blue ribbons, four red ribbons, and five white ribbons.

Those winning in the blue group were Eddie Price, David Page, Alfred Meyer and Kenneth Taylor. The red ribbon winners were Vernon Johnson, Eddie Ritts, Raymond Harmon and Bobby Rockford.

The white ribbon winners were Lyle Davis, Radean Black, Harold Dexter, Dwayne DeVal, and Eugene Ermer. A total of $31 was awarded along with the ribbons.

The boys made the trip in cars which were furnished by five boys' fathers.

Riverside Clubbers Win Recognition

All the members and leaders of the riverside club attended the annual 4-H family fun night at the O'Neill high school auditorium on Saturday, March 15. Several members and our leader received awards.

They were: Mrs. Vitt, plaque for two years of leadership; Edward Boyle, health medal and registration for club work; John Vitt, safety medal; Mary Frances Vitt, health medal and safety medal; Patrick Boyle, boys' record medal; Richard Boyle, Successful Farming subscription; Dorothea Vitt, juicer.

Each member received a certificate of achievement for the projects we carried last year. We sang one song for the program.

On Sunday night Mr. and Mrs. Leo Schnieder and family entertained the club and friends at a card party. Charles Boyle and Charlene Boyle won high and Jack Ramold and Ramona Schnieder won low.—By Mary Agnes Boyle reporter.

Lois Ann Bergstrom to Girls' State — The American Legion, of Sanders post 214, was honored Thursday evening at the Legion club when the auxiliary was host to the members in observance of the 33d birthday anniversary of the Legion. This organization is now composed of approximately 3 million veterans of two world wars and the Korean conflict.

A 7 o'clock luncheon was the highlight of the anniversary party. A three-tier birthday cake was cut by Commander Duane Fudge.

Following the luncheon, separate business sessions were held. Commander Fudge presided over the Legion meeting. It was voted to give $10 to the Ewing public library for boys' books and a book for adults was presented to the library by the post.

Mrs. Deloris Kirschmier, president of the auxiliary, was in charge of the business session. The selection of Lois Ann Bergstrom, a junior in the Ewing high school, to attend girls' state in June was one of the main features. For the community project of the month, the auxiliary chose the Ewing library. Ten dollars was given for the purchase of girls' books. An Easter gift will be sent to a hospitalized nurse, by the unit, the secretary, Mrs. Alvin Gibson, in charge.

Some discussion was held on child welfare, the April auxiliary project.

On adjournment of business sessions, the Legion showed several reels of film, one on industry of Denmark, others of sports and comedy.
