Methodist men in northeast Nebraska gathered at Creighton Methodist church Sunday afternoon and evening, March 16. Rev. J. LaVerne Jay, of O'Neill, northeast Nebraska district superintendent, and Rev. James E. Scott, jr., of Nebraska Wesleyan university, Lincoln, were the main speakers. Seven lay speakers were certified and five Methodist men's groups were chartered. At a business meeting the group voted to hold the next district Methodist men's rally in O'Neill. The group passed the two following resolutions:

"Moved, seconded and carried that the northeast district men's conference go on record as endorsing Representative Harrison, who is a past president of the Norfolk Methodist men, for his stand as a 'teetotaler' in Washington social circles."

"Moved, seconded and carried that the northeast district men's conference go on record as opposing any move toward universal military training because we hold it a threat to Christian liberties and in direct opposition to our principles of democracy."

Kenneth Eyer, of Royal, district lay leader, presided at this conference. Harvey Tompkins, of Inman, is assistant district lay leader, and assistant district lay leader subdistrict.

Among lay speakers from Holt county who were certified are Frank Schroeder and Ray Sedivy, both of Ewing, and Raymond Heiss, of Page.

Many Form Operators Not Signed for '52

"In checking our files after the schedule of ACP sign-up meetings are over, we find many operators who have not signed their 1952 statement of intentions, possibly partly due to weather and road conditions." This was stated this week by Harry E. Resel, chairman of the Holt county PMA committee.

As no more sign-up meetings will be held in the county, it will be the responsibility of all operators to come to the PMA office, any day, Monday through Friday, to sign up for the 1952 program. Deadline date for signing up is March 31.
