The Skudlers . . . bound for Japan

Young Mission Couple to Sail

AMELIA—Rev. and Mrs. Edward Skudler will be missionary speakers at the Bethany Free Methodist church, of Amelia, on Sunday, March 30.
Reverend Skudler served in World War II and was a body-guard to Gen. Douglas MacArthur. While with the occupation forces in Japan he felt God's call to be a missionary to the Japanese.
After returning to the United States he completed four years of college work at McPherson, Kans., and Seattle (Wash.) Pacific college. They plan to sail for Japan about May 1.
Edward was reared in the Amelia community. Mrs. Skudler is from Washington and is also a graduate of Seattle Pacific college. They both speak the Japanese language.
Everybody is invited to hear them and those who would like to visit with them are invited to stay for a basket dinner.

Confessions, Saturday, 3:30 to 5:30 and 7 to 9 p.m.
Lenten devotions, Sunday at 7:30 p.m.; Friday, 8 p.m.
A CATHOLIC WON'T ARGUE WITH GOD!

Pouring water on a forehead while reciting certain prescribed words may seem like a trivial peg upon which to hang the salvation of a soul. But Christ, who is God, so commanded—and a Catholic won't argue with God. A hell of eternal punishment for those who defy their Creator is something all of us would like to disbelieve, but Christ warned of just such a place for the accursed—and a Catholic takes God at His word.
Confessing one's sins to a priest may seem an unnecessary mortification when God may also be reached direct, but we believe that His Divine Son commanded it plainly—and a Catholic says "yes" to his God.
Changing the substance of bread and wine into the substance of the body and blood of Jesus, our God, may sound like Oriental magic, but we affirm that Christ Himself did it, gave the power to His priesthood to do it, and commanded its continuance—so a Catholic partakes of his God.
That a mere human being can infallibly define God's revelations is incredible only if one considers the mere human being and forgets the infinite God who so chose to preserve His truths and to guide His children. Since we are assured that God gave this power to St. Peter, a Catholic knows the will of his God.
There's nothing in Catholic doctrine that conflicts with human reason; and those mysteries which transcend our understanding are easy to accept if one bears in mind that an all-powerful God can reveal His truths and His commands without asking the preacceptance of His methods by the tiny, finite minds of His creatures.
No, a Catholic won't argue with God. 'Twould be useless. 'Twould be presumptuous. 'Twould be damnably dangerous.

METHODIST (Chambers)
Rev. L. R. Hansberry, pastor
Sunday-school, 10:30 a.m., Clair Grimes, superintendent.
Worship, 11:30 a.m.

Tradin' Boots ARE ON!

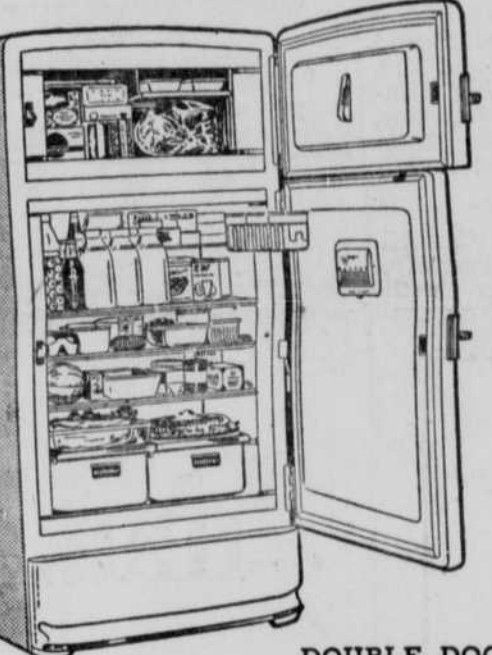

BOB JACOBSON, ILENE GEHRING, VIC JACOBSON
THE JACOBSON TRADING POST

For nigh onto three years nowa we've been havin' this trade-in round-up. And pardner we're havin' another one this year only it's a whale of a lot better. Our store is jam-packed with some mighty good merchandise and every one of our hired help has their tradin' boots on ready to "steer" you to the right kind of appliance for your individual need. Better ride in this week and rope yourself one of these critters we got around here. Man, we're tradin' for everything.

ROUND - UP STARTS THURSDAY MARCH 27

DOUBLE DOOR

HOTPOINT

Brings You Traditional Fine Automatic Electric Ranges and These 4 Basic Types of REFRIGERATION

1. THE "U" TYPE REFRIGERATOR
2. THE FULL WIDTH REFRIGERATOR
3. THE FULL HOME FREEZER
4. THE DOUBLE DOOR REFRIGERATOR

The question is . . . what are the advantages and disadvantages of these different freezing units and which one is suited for me?

Frankly, the question cannot be answered without first knowing the individual's present refrigeration system. For instance a family who owns a refrigerator and a home freezer doesn't have the same problem as the family who owns only a refrigerator. By the same token, a family having a refrigerator with an across top freezer is not confronted with the same problems as the family having a refrigerator equipped with the "U" type evaporator.

Your Employees Work FULL Time . . . So Should Your Senator

ELECT VAL PETERSON for Full-Time Representation

- Peterson will get rid of part-time representation. (The record shows that Nebraska's senior senator missed one-fourth of the roll call votes in 1949 and 1951.)
- Peterson will get rid of the "let-John-do-it" attitude. (Nebraska's senior senator failed to lift his hand or his voice to assist Sen. John Williams, a freshman senator, dig out corruption in the Internal Revenue Bureau.)
- Peterson will WORK FULL TIME to cut spending and reduce the tax load. (Nebraska's senior senator missed 10 of the 20 roll call votes that determined the position in 1951 of the U. S. Senate on economy vs. spending.)
- Peterson will command respect—he means what he says. (While Nebraska's senior senator, on one occasion, was issuing a public statement calling for economy, he was at the same time sponsoring bills for special interest spending.)

Peterson will fight FOR:

- Parity for Agriculture
- Resource and Power Development
- A Foreign Policy BY and FOR America

Peterson will fight AGAINST:

- Reckless "Give-Away" Spending
- Universal Military Training
- Irresponsible Government
