The room where the banquet was held and the tables were decorated in the school colors—black and gold. Three of the tables were centered with one each of the three trophies the team won this year. One was centered with a basketball and the other two were centered with basketball balloons.

The following menu was served: baked ham, scalloped potatoes, peas and carrots, molded salad, buns, coffee and tea, ice cream and cup cakes.

Waitresses were Ruth and Beulah Miller, Roxana Simmons, Dixie Singleton, Ruth Graves, Gwen Klin.

The program: Welcome, by Diana Fussleman; piano solo, by Thelma Summers; speech, by John Lamason; crowning the queen and king; song, by Lois Miller and Jerry Terrill; speech, by Ralph Brostrom; awarding of medals, by Diana Fussleman; speech, by captain of the year—Bob Sorensen; instrumental, by Walter Rutherford and Larry Taylor; song, by Jerry Terrill; Farewell, by Diane Fussleman; school song, everybody.

The queen Roxana Simmons, and the king, William Zemple, were crowned by the last year's king, LeRoy Leist.
