Hear Progress on Lutheran Mission
ATKINSON — More than 75 delegates and visitors were in attendance at the annual spring Lutheran laymen's conference of circuit seven of the Lutheran church, Missouri synod, which was held Wednesday, May 25, at Immanuel Lutheran church, Atkinson.
 Rev. H. T. Schauland, Lutheran missionary to the Negroes in Omaha, told of the church's work there since 1946 when a mission was started. The membership has reached 100 and is steadily increasing, he said.
 "Many difficulties are encountered in this work, due especially to the racial discrimination and low standards of living which result from low incomes.
 "Yet," said Pastor Schauland, "the people are progressive, and have built a parochial school in order to improve the education of their children."
 Members of the conference heard a tape-recorded play entitled, "Who Is My Neighbor?" produced by Hope Lutheran church of which Reverend Schauland is pastor. The play brought out the fact that racial prejudice has no spiritual foundation.
 "Venture of Faith," a motion picture produced by the Lutheran Laymen's league, was shown. This movie, which is based on a true story of Valparaiso university, will be shown in the various Lutheran churches throughout this area.
 Rev. A. G. Deke, pastor of Grace church, Norfolk, addressed the conference on stewardship. He pointed out that members of the north Nebraska district must double their efforts in order to meet the budget requirements for 1952.
 John W. Walter, of Chambers, chairman of the conference, was in charge of the sessions.

New Church Used for First Time
 The new basement of Christ Lutheran church, O'Neill, has been opened for use for the first time since the building operations began last fall.
 Vacation Bible school classes were held in the new basement with an enrollment of 22. This is the largest Bible school enrollment in the history of the church.
 Rev. Robert W. Olson said the basement should be ready for regular Sunday services within two weeks. Some electrical work and the finishing of the kitchen are yet to be completed.

Evelyn Meusch a Church Bride
BUTTE—Miss Evelyn Meusch and Vincent Obermire were married at Sts. Peter and Paul Catholic church at Butte on Tuesday, May 27.
 Rev. Charles Knippen officiated at the 9 o'clock nuptial high mass.
 The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Meusch, and the bridegroom is a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Joe Obermire.
 Donald Meusch, brother of the bride, was bestman. Miss Mary Obermire, niece of the bridegroom, was bridesmaid. Larry Halbur and Joe Obermire served as ushers.
 The bride's gown was of imported French chantilly lace over white taffeta. It was fashioned with a high neckline, a fitted basque waist, and a full skirt, which extended into a cathedral train.
 A lace chlotte held her double-tier illusion fingertip length veil. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and a white rosary.
 Her attendant wore a gown of orchid marquisette over taffeta. It was fashioned with a high neckline and a bouffant skirt. She wore a matching hat and carried a bouquet of pink carnations.
 Following the ceremony a dinner was served to the immediate families and guests at the Town House, O'Neill.
 After a wedding trip in the west the couple will live on the bridegroom's ranch north of Atkinson.

Clear Home Scene of Reunion
ATKINSON—A family reunion was held memorial day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Cleary in Atkinson. Six brothers and sisters of Mrs. Cleary, together with their families, gathered there for a basket dinner.
 Those present included: Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Mlinar, the son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mlinar, of Columbus; Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Lewis, Raymond and Charlene, of Butte; Mr. and Mrs. Mel Shepperd and family, of Omaha; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Mlinar and family, of Emmet; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Mlinar and son, Kenneth, of Stuart; Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Mlinar and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Mlinar and son, Marion, of Atkinson; and Mrs. John Smith and Carolyn, of O'Neill.
 A brother and sister who were unable to be present were John Mlinar, of Norfolk, and Mrs. Arthur Wise, of Omaha.

Medcalf Family Holds Reunion
 A Medcalf family reunion was held Sunday, June 1, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Medcalf.
 A picnic dinner was enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Medcalf, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Medcalf, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Miller and family, of Chambers; Mr. and Mrs. P. T. Avart and Patty, and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Medcalf and sons, of Ainsworth.

Nuptials at Chambers
CHAMBERS—Lighted cathedral candles and arrangements of stephanotis and fern decorated the altar of the First Presbyterian church in Valentine for the marriage of Miss Corinne Frances Jaspson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Joseph, of Valentine, to Larry A. Tangeman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Tangeman, of Chambers, on Tuesday, May 27, at 2 o'clock.
 The Rev. William M. Spence read the lines of the double ring ceremony in the presence of 125 guests. The wedding music was played by Miss Marlene Nicholas, organist, who also accompanied Miss Clara Kellner, of Valentine, when she sang "Through the Years" and "The Lord's Prayer." Both girls wore white dresses with pink corsages.
 Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride chose a gown of ballerina length white nylon embroidered tulle over white satin featuring a full skirt and long sleeves ending in points over the wrists. The molded bodice had a high neckline and buttoned down the back. Her fingertip veil of illusion was secured by a band of white satin. She carried a bridal bouquet of stephanotis and white orchids attached to a small white Testament.
 Miss Janet Arrasmith, of Valentine, friend of the bride, attended as maid of honor, wearing a gown of Nile green nylon net over green satin. Miss Ruth Jones, of Chadron, attended as bridesmaid. Her gown was identical to that of the white gown was fashioned like that of the maid of honor. Both carried a nosegay of pink roses and stephanotis and wore matching headbands.
 Helen Kay Dam, of Valentine, was flower girl. She wore a nylon dotted sheer gown over pink taffeta with a bouffant skirt. She carried a bouquet of pink rose petals. Jimmie Vanderheiden was ring bearer.
 Arland and James Tangeman, of Chambers, brothers of the bridegroom, attended him. Jack and Bill Joseph, brothers of the bride, were ushers. All wore white carnation boutonnières.
 The bride's mother chose a two-piece dress of tan with orchid accessories. Mrs. Tangeman chose a two-piece dress with brown accessories. Both had corsages of white carnations.
 A reception was held in the social room of the church following the ceremony where a four-tiered wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom centered the serving table. Pink and white was the color scheme.
 Mrs. Jerald McClenahan, of Chambers, sister of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Alvin Coleman, of Valentine, served the cake. Mrs. Dwight Dam had charge of the guest book.
 For their wedding trip to Baltimore Md., Mrs. Tangeman chose

Genelle Park Weds Norman Trowbridge

PAGE—Miss Genelle Park, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Park, of Page, became the bride of Norman K. Trowbridge, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Trowbridge, in a 3 o'clock ceremony Sunday afternoon, June 1, at the Page Methodist church.
 Rev. C. E. Wilcox officiated at the double-ring ceremony in the presence of the families, before an altar arranged with garden flowers in the bride's colors, lavender and white.
 The soloist, Miss Barbara Trowbridge, sang "The Wedding Prayer" and "I Love You Truly," accompanied by Mrs. Neven Iekes, jr., who also played the nuptial selections and the marches.
 Given in marriage by her father, the bride appeared in a white nylon street-length dress. She wore a pearl necklace and earrings, a gift of the bridegroom, and carried a bouquet of pink roses on a white Bible.
 Maid-of-honor was Miss Judith Trowbridge, sister of the bridegroom, who appeared in orchid sheer and carried a bouquet of yellow daisies.
 Ronald Park, brother of the bride, was bestman.
 Both mothers of the couple chose navy dresses with white accessories. Each wore a corsage of red carnations. The grandmother of the bridegroom wore print silk and had a corsage of white carnations.
 Following the ceremony, 30 guests were entertained at a reception at the bride's home.
 The bride, a graduate of the Page high school, was graduated
