Rites Held Woman, 38, Mother of 4

Mrs. C. A. Prussa, Jr., Fatally Stricken Doing Housework

ATKINSON—Funeral services were conducted at 9 a.m., Thursday, June 19, at St. Joseph's Catholic church, Atkinson, for Mrs. Charles A. Prussa, jr., 38, who died at her home 2 1/2 miles southwest of Atkinson on Monday, June 16. Requiem high mass was conducted by Rev. Richard Parr, church pastor. Rosary was recited at 8 o'clock at the home on Wednesday and Thursday evenings. Burial was in St. Joseph's Catholic cemetery.

Pallbearers were John Flannery, Jay Crawford, V. B. Faust, Roy Mack, Raymer Funk and Gilbert Schneider.

Death came suddenly while the late Mrs. Prussa was performing her duties as wife and mother. Her death was attributed to a heart attack. She was not ill prior to the time of her death.

She passed away in the presence of her four children and her mother, Mrs. Anna Galligan, who had arrived only a few minutes earlier.

Death came so quickly, relatives said, that she died while uttering a sentence that was never completed.
 Her death came two days prior to her 38th birthday anniversary.

Mrs. Prussa, the former Miss Angela Galligan, was born on June 18, 1914, at Atkinson. She lived her entire life in this community. She attended a rural school and was a graduate of St. Mary's academy, O'Neill, with the class of 1932. She then taught school for several years.

On September 29, 1943, she was united in marriage to Charles A. Prussa, jr., who then was serving with the U.S. army and was soon to leave for duty overseas.

She continued to teach during the absence of her husband. After his release from service, the couple made their home at the Prussa farm where her death occurred. To this union four children were born.

Survivors include: Widower—Charles; sons—Charles, Eugene, 4, and Thomas Joseph, 7 months; daughters—Carol Ann, 3, and Mary Jo, 2; mother—Mrs. Anna Galligan; brothers—Owen J. and William L.; sister—Mary.

She was preceded in death by her father, who died four years ago, and one brother, John Eugene, who passed away in 1933 at the age of 3 1/2 years.

A prepared eulogy read: "She will always be remembered as a loving wife and mother, a devoted daughter and sister. Her passing has not only saddened her family but her many friends in this community. Her absence will be deeply felt by members of her family, who played such an important role in her life."

Out-of-town relatives who attended the funeral were: Her sister, Mary Galligan of Lincoln; Mrs. Olive Neal, Mrs. Alma Pew and Mrs. Bess Fullerton, all of Phoenix, Ariz.; Mrs. Matilda Galligan and sons, John and Francis, all of Omaha.

KILLING WEEDS ADVISED
 Farmers who planted trees this spring or last should not neglect to kill the weeds around them, says Extension Forester Earl G. Maxwell of the University of Nebraska. He says that if the weather stays hot and dry long enough the trees will suffer, especially if the weeds around them are allowed to get too much of the soil moisture.

COMPLETES BASIC
 Pvt. James E. Gallagher, 21 (above), son of Mrs. Eunice H. Gallagher of O'Neill and the late John C. Gallagher, has completed army basic training conducted by the 3rd armored division, at Ft. Knox, Ky. During the 16 weeks of intensive training, he received instructions on general military subjects and had practical work in various combat skills including the firing of basic army weapons—the M-1 rifle, carbine, .45 pistol and grenades. As a prospective tank crewman, he received special training in tank crew platoon tactics and in driving of army wheeled and tracked vehicles. He entered the army January 18, 1952.—U.S. Army Photo.
