Church Notices

Rev. Wayne A. Hall, pastor

Vacation Bible school will be-gin July 23 and end August 8. The sessions will begin at 9 a.m. The theme of the course is "The Bible is My Guide." Every boy and girl four-years-old and over is invited to attend. It means much if our youth can grasp the truth that the Word of God is a lamp unto their feet and a light unto their path.

The services of the week are as follows:

Sun. July 13: Sunday-school 10 a.m.; worship 11 a.m.; evening service 8 o'clock. Tuesday, 2 p.m., story hour, 8 p.m., CA service; Wednesday, 8 p.m., prayer service and Bible study; Thursday, 2 p.m., ladies' prayer meeting; Saturday, 8:30 p.m., street service.

What a privilege we have in our country to meet together un-molested, to hear the Bible taught and to worship our Lord accord-ing to the dictates of our con-science. If you want to be saved from your sins, we will be glad to point you to the Christ who alone can forgive and cleanse.

Rev. Samuel D. Lee, pastor

Sunday-school, 9:45 a.m.; wor-ship, 11 a.m.; spiritual life group, Monday, 3 p.m.; church choir practice, Saturday, 10 a.m.

The Women's association pic-nic which was announced for to-day (Thursday) has been post-poned until Tuesday, July 15, at 7 p.m. The picnic is to be held at the Sam Robertson ranch, off highway 281 north of town. The picnic is for everyone, grown-ups and children, members and friends of the church.

Our church is to be one of eight in the state to have a vis-iting team of youth caravanners. The team is to arrive on Satur-day, July 19, and will be work-ing in the church program throughout the following week.

Because of the coming of the youth caravan, the communion service will be held on Friday evening, July 25, rather than on the preceding Sunday.

Rev. Wallace B. Smith, who is now serving the charges at Hem-mingford and Marsland, has been appointed to O'Neill and will take up his duties September 1.

Thursday 2 p.m.: The Woman's Society of Christian Service will hold their picnic at Ford park. This is a covered dish picnic.

Friday 2 p.m.: The Dorcas quilting circle will meet in the new addition of the church parlors.
