ence of the Methodist church, performed the double-ring ceremony in the presence of 150 guests. Preceding the ceremony, Miss Marcia Ducey of Chester sang "I Love Thee" and "Through the Years."

During the ceremony she sang "Wedding Prayer" while the couple knelt on a white satin pillow. She was accompanied by Mrs. J. G. Wheeler of Norfolk, who also played the wedding music which included "Because" and "The Love of God," as favorite numbers of the bride and bridegroom.

The candles were lighted by nieces of the bride, Penny and Ann Chapin of Clatskanie, Ore. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a white formal length gown with a gathered skirt. The bodice, which came to a point over the waist, had a scalloped yoke of chantilly lace with a peter pan collar. The long sleeves came to a point over the wrists and were edged with chantilly lace. She carried a cascade bouquet of tufted carnations centered with a

Mrs. Bert Newkirk, Jr. . . . formerly of Amelia, weds in pretty church rite.

Arden Anderson, Lincoln, a July Bride

AMELIA — Miss Arden Edna Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Anderson of Amelia, and Bert Eugene Newkirk, jr., of Lincoln, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Eugene Newkirk of St. Joseph, Mo., were united in marriage Sunday, July 20, at 7 o'clock in the evening in St. Paul's Methodist church in Lincoln, by Dr. Frank A. Court.

The wedding rites were performed before an altar flanked on both sides by baskets of salmon-colored gladiolus. White tapers in candelabras provided lighting for the ceremony. The bride, given in marriage by her mother, marched down a white canvas aisle which lead to the altar. She appeared in a soft tulle satin with a fine net yoke edged in chantilly lace. Tiny satin buttons down the back formed the closure of the fitted bodice. It was complete with long fitted fingertip sleeves. The full skirt ended in a long train trimmed with matching chantilly lace. The matching fingertip veil extended from a seel pearl trimmed crown.

She had the traditional something old, something new, and something borrowed and something blue. The bouquet consisted of a white orchid and a prayer book. She wore a sterling rhinestone necklace, a gift of the bridegroom.

The maid-of-honor, Miss Norma Jean Anderson of Lincoln, sister of the bride, was dressed in pale yellow fine net with hat and gloves to match. She carried a bouquet of blue carnations. A candlelighter, Miss Beverly Brown, was dressed in a pastel green formal net, and another candlelighter, Miss Jean Wilborn, wore a pastel lavender lace formal.

The bestman was Roy Anderson of Grand Island, brother of the bride. Ushers were J. R. Pool and Burkett L. Reed, both of Lincoln, friends of the couple.

The bridegroom, bestman and ushers were attired in white coats and black trousers. Each wore red carnation boutonnieres.

The musician was Dale Ganz, He played "I Love You Truly," "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

A dinner for the wedding party was held at the Colonial Cup in Lincoln. The T-shaped bride's table was graced with a wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom and three bouquets of flowers and candles were arranged at each end of the table. Lemon leaves were arranged through the center of the table.

The bride's mother wore aqua with white accessories. The bridegroom's mother appeared in lavender with white. Both wore corsages made up of a large white rose with small pink roses surrounding.

The bride attended high school at Atkinson and studied nursing at Bryon Memorial hospital in Lincoln. She is now employed at the Veterans hospital, Lincoln.

The bridegroom graduated from high school and attended junior college at St. Joseph, Mo. He is now employed as chief of medical illustration service at the Veterans hospital, Lincoln.

For travel the bride chose an eggshell suit trimmed in dark brown, accessories and an orchid corsage. They will be at home to their friends August 4 at 2724 So. 14 street, Lincoln.
