

EWING—The Order of Eastern Star Jephthah chapter 35, entertained the Sunset chapter of Orchard Wednesday, July 16, at the parlors of the wing Methodist church, beginning at 2:30 p.m.

Mrs. William Spence had charge of the guest book and as each member registered she was given a number which corresponded with a number being held by a member of the Ewing chapter, giving the ladies an opportunity to get acquainted. They also guessed on the contents of a jar containing buttons. Mrs. Audrey McGrew was the winner in this contest and was presented a prize by Miss Fern Pruden.

Other contests and prizes made up the afternoon's entertainment in charge of Mrs. Henry Fleming, Miss Fern Pruden, Miss Ina Bennett and Mrs. Spence.

The luncheon, prepared and served by Mrs. Sis Ebbengaard, Mrs. R. G. Rockey, Mrs. M. B. Huffman assisted by Vina Woods, consisted of eight kinds of open-faced sandwiches in various shapes were served with a tuna fish salad in lettuce cups, angel party pie and coffee completed the refreshments. This was served centerpieces of gladioli flanked by candelabra style from tables with tall white candles.

Jephthah chapter is the mother chapter of the Orchard Sunset chapter, which was organized in 1924. There were five of the former 25 members present. Mrs. Gordon Fletcher, Mrs. Alma Drayton, Mrs. Alma C. Hudson and Mrs. Deemer Conner. At present the chapter has 80 members with 50 on the active list.

Twelve past matrons from Orchard were present and eight from the Ewing chapter. Mrs. Leonard Hales and Mrs. Audrey McGrew, both of Brunswick, were guests.
