

Miss Judy Martin
Weds Private Shaw

On Saturday, July 26, at St. Patrick's Catholic church in O'Neill, Miss Judy E. Martin, daughter of Mrs. W. M. Martin and the late Mr. Martin of O'Neill, and Pvt. Robert K. Shaw, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Shaw, also of O'Neill, were united in marriage in a double-ring ceremony. Rev. Kenneth Carl performed the marriage rites.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Edward Martin of O'Neill, was dressed in a white formal satin gown with a long train. The sleeves were long and pointed at the wrists. She wore a fingertip veil with a crown decorated with seed pearls. Her three-strand pearl necklace was a gift of the bridegroom.

The maid-of-honor, Miss Mary Murphy, of Sioux City appeared in a light blue formal with a fingertip veil. The bride and maid-of-honor carried bouquets of red roses.

The bridegroom and bestman, William Shaw, brother of the bridegroom, wore blue suits. Miss Kay Martin, sister of the bride sang "O, Beautiful Mother," "Ave Maria" and "Oh Lord I Am Not Worthy." Mrs. Joseph George accompanied her on the organ.

A wedding breakfast was served at the M&M cafe following the ceremony and a reception was held at the home of the bride's mother for immediate relatives.

The bride and bridegroom left for a wedding trip following the reception. For her going away, Mrs. Shaw wore a light blue gown with red and blue dots and a navy blue hat.

Mrs. Thomas Hutton Feted by Club
CHAMBERS—The WSCS of Chambers Methodist church met on Thursday, July 24, at the home of Mrs. Anna Albers with Mrs. Steve Adams as hostess. There were 25 members, two visitors and three children present.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. E. R. Carpenter. Roll call was answered by a favorite script verse. It was voted to send a layette to the Methodist hospital at Albuquerque, N.M.

A study lesson on "These Rights We Hold," was presented by Mrs. Louis Neilson, assisted by others. Mrs. Sarah Adams led the devotionals. A handkerchief shower was presented Mrs. Thomas Hutton, a member who is leaving soon for her new home at Newcastle. Lunch was served by the hostess. The next meeting will be August 7, at the church parlors with Mrs. K. N. Adams and Mrs. Art Miller hostesses.

Tell of County Fair Plans
The Junior Gardeners 4-H club met at the home of Neil Dawes Saturday, July 26. The meeting was opened by the president, Beverly Brittell. We answered roll call by telling what we plan to take to the county fair.

The lesson was on judging. We judged potatoes and onions. We named a committee for working on our float for hay days.

Later we had a demonstration on caring for a hoe by Perry and Larry Dawes. After that we played games. Then we had lunch.—By Perry Dawes, news reporter.

Varilek - Hytrek Nuptials at Stuart

STUART—The altar of the St. Boniface Catholic church was the scene of a pretty wedding Saturday, July 26, when Miss Marilyn Varilek, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Minor Varilek, became the bride of James Hytrek, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Hytrek.

Rev. A. J. Paschang performed the double-ring ceremony at 9:30 a.m. The bride, who was led to the altar on the arm of her father, was charming in a candlelight satin gown. The gown was fashioned with a sheer illusion yoke trimmed with tiny teardrop pearls. The long satin sleeves tapered to points at the wrists. From a fitted bodice a graceful skirt fell in unpressed pleats over a hoop skirt and swept into an aisle wide cathedral train.

Her veil of matching candlelight imported illusion billowed to her fingertips from a calot of lace and illusion trimmed with tiny pearls and beads.

She carried an arm bouquet of red and white carnations with long white streamers and a white prayer book, a gift from her parents at the time of her first communion.

Her only jewelry was a strand of pearls and earrings to match. She carried out the tradition of something old, something new, something borrowed, something blue and a penny in her shoe.

Miss Patricia Hanlon, of Des Moines, Ia., cousin of the bride, was maid-of-honor. Her ballerina length gown was orchid nylon net over satin with a picture hat, mitts and ballerina shoes to match. She wore a double strand of pearls, a gift from the bride. She carried a colonial bouquet of yellow gladiolus with long orchid streamers.

The bridesmaids, Miss La Von Prauner of Battle Creek, cousin of the bride, and Miss Teddy King of Valentine niece of the bridegroom, wore ballerina length gowns of yellow net over satin with picture hats, mitts and ballerina shoes to match. They each wore a single strand of pearls, gifts from the bride and carried colonial bouquets of orchid gladiolus with yellow streamers.

The bridegroom wore a gray suit and was attended by his brother, Dick Hytrek, and friends Kenneth Batenhorst and Dick Kaup, who wore light business suits. They each wore white carnation boutonnières.

Leslie Varilek, brother of the bride, and Jack Hytrek, brother of the bridegroom, were ushers, they wore dark trousers and white shirts.

For her going away dress, the bride wore a two piece brown and white dress with white accessories and a corsage of red and white carnations.

Mrs. Hytrek was a graduate from Stuart high school with the class of 1952 and Mr. Hytrek graduated from Stuart high with the 1951 class.

After a trip through the Black Hills, S.D., they will be at home to their friends in the Weichman apartment.

A 12 o'clock dinner was served to 60 relatives and friends and about 200 attended the reception at 2:30. The couple also entertained friends and relatives at a dance that evening in the auditorium.

Among those from out-of-town who attended the wedding were Mrs. Maggie Crago, the bride's grandmother, Dianna and Dick Dennett, Miss Ardine Smith, all of Armour, S.D.; Mr. and Mrs. Orin McLinn, Mrs. Dick Vanderpol, Mrs. Dickie Sharon and Brenda of Platte, S.D.; Miss Laura Mae Varilek of Omaha; Miss Patricia Hanlon, Dr. and Mrs. John Hanlon, all of Des Moines, Ia.; Ed Sule, Miss Delores Panek, Miss Marcella Liedgen, Miss Peggy Smith, Miss Carol Liedgen, Miss LaVon Prauner, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Tiltonson and Alfred Stuckwich of Battle Creek; Mr. and Mrs. Leo Dietrick and family of Meadow Grove; Mr. and Mrs. Pat Rison of Wisner; Mr. and Mrs. Ignatius Hytrek of Sarasota, Fla.; Mr. and Mrs. Gale King and family of Valentine; Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Whitcome of Ainsworth, and Mr. and Mrs. Pete Schmaderer of Oakland.
