IN MEMORIAM
 IN MEMORY of Hazel Noble, who passed away a year ago today.
 She had no one a last farewell. She said goodbye to none. The heavenly angels gathered near. And a loving voice said come. But we will meet again some day.
 Nevermore to part. And the sorrow will be lifted. From our sad and aching hearts.

A Vacation For Your Tavern Keeper, Too
 Your tavernman needs relaxation as much as any other business-man. Like many of his customers, he, too, will take a vacation.
 And, it is only natural that, while in other localities, he will visit other tavern keepers to learn better methods which can improve his operation.
 Aside from the ideas he gains from other tavern owners, your tavernman is aided by the continuing educational program conducted by the brewing industry in Nebraska. By cooperating in this program, your tavern keeper is continually informed of the approved methods of tavern operation.
 His cooperation with this educational program enables your tavern keeper to provide pleasant, wholesome surroundings for your enjoyment. It enables him to better serve the public.

Biggest Cattle Run Since November Expected

- The biggest cattle run since last November is expected today (Thursday) at the O'Neill Livestock Market. The abnormal receipts are attributed to poor pasture conditions in the sandhills area. The market on slaughter steers and yearlings earlier this week has been unevenly steady.
- The embargo is still in effect on feeder hogs. Fat hogs, however, will be sold as usual at today's sale.
