Spend Sundays Swimming

The Riverside 4-H club entered a float in the hay days parade and we received honorable mention for it. We worked on the float Friday, August 9, and Sunday, August 11, at Van Horn's. On Sunday we also had a picnic lunch.

We want to thank Father Carl for the ideas and help that he gave us, and we also want to thank the parents who helped us. We have been spending our Sunday afternoons by swimming. There is usually a group of about 40 persons and we have lots of fun.

The next meeting will be August 25 at Bill Babutzas and the club rosary will be September 2 at Ed Boyles.

On Monday night, Vitis had a yard party and wicker roast for Marlin Babutzas and Stanley Price, who are home on furlough.

Several of the members exhibited articles at achievement day and most of them received ribbons. By Mary Agnes Boyle, news reporter.

Retired Lumberman Visits Philadelphia

LYNCH—George Lueken, 78, arrived home last Thursday from a several months' trip visiting relatives and friends along the route to Philadelphia, Pa., where he spent several weeks with his daughter and husband.

Aside from five weeks which he was forced to spend in a hospital during his stay with his daughter, he enjoyed his trip immensely, he says.

What impressed Mr. Lueken the most was his visit to Independence hall. He could put two fingers in the lower part of the crack in the Liberty Bell. He saw George Washington's gun which is enclosed in glass as are all articles which are being preserved.

Mr. Lueken, who was a lumberman in his early days observed the well preserved floors in the Independence hall. They are oak wood, 10-inch width flooring boards, oiled instead of varnished and in excellent shape.

Mr. Lueken makes his home in Lynch with his son, Melvin, and family.
