METHODIST (O'Neill)

Rev. Wallace B. Smith, pastor
Calendar: Friday, September 19: Dorcas society meets at the church at 2 p.m.
Sunday, September 21: Church-school, 10 a.m.; worship, 11 a.m.; youth fellowship, 6:30 p.m.
Tuesday, September 23: District WSCS seminar here in O'Neill.

Thursday, September 25: Choir rehearsal for all choir members. It should be remembered that the church school does not operate for the benefit of children alone. That study hour is set up for the purpose of educating all ages of the history and practice of the Christian life! There are classes for all ages. There are teachers who have interest in their classes. There is a fine, spiritual fellowship awaiting all who attend.

The morning worship service is designed to meet the worship needs of children and adults. To meet those needs, music, scriptures and the spoken word in prayer, children's story and sermon are employed. Meditation at present is concerned with a sermon study of the parables Jesus told concerning the lost coin, the lost sheep and the prodigal son. The subject of this coming Sunday's sermon is: "The Shepherd's Peril."

CHURCH OF CHRIST (O'Neill)

Corner Sixth and Grant
John Thomas, minister
Bible school at 10 a.m. Communion and preaching, 11 a.m.
The morning message will be entitled, "Mammon, the God of Anania and Saphira."
Evening worship at 8 o'clock. "Guiltily As Charged."
Bible study and prayer meeting Wednesday, 8 p.m.
"Not unto us O Lord, not unto us, but unto thy name give glory, for thy mercy and for thy truth's sake."—Psalms 115:1.
We invite everyone to attend these services and worship the Lord with us.

Stafford School Is Burglarized

EWING—Mrs. Earl Wright, director of the Stafford school, reported that the school was broken into during the weekend. The phonograph with all the records are missing and also a view-master. Sheriff Leo Tomjak was called.

The morning fellowship meetings are now plural! Effective Sunday evening, the intermediate fellowship and choir will be back in session. Invited to attend are all boys and girls who are in the sixth, seventh and eighth grades. The evening will be filled with study and song. One of these days the folks attending the morning worship services will hear them present a message in song. The senior youth fellowship is designed to meet the needs of youth in high school. But it meets those needs only if they are attended.

ASSEMBLY OF GOD (O'Neill)

Rev. Wayne A. Hall, pastor
The special salvation and healing campaign is in progress with the Hanson Evangelists ministering. Many have been helped and received spiritual blessing already. The services begin each night at 8 o'clock. Don't miss the inspiration, help and blessing that is waiting for you.

Sunday, September 21: Sunday-school 10 a.m.; worship 11 a.m.; evangelistic service 8 p.m.
Jesus went about doing good and healing all that were oppressed of the devil, for God was with him.

Jesus also said: "Greater works than these shall ye do; because I go unto my Father."
The day of miracles is not past, just turn your faith loose.

METHODIST (Emmet)

Rev. Wallace B. Smith, pastor
This (Thursday) evening, September 18, is the date for our quarterly conference for our church. The time is 8 p.m. The pastor is anxious that all members of the official board be present. Rev. Jay Laverne Jay, district superintendent of the northern district, will conduct the meeting.

There are services every Sunday morning at 9:45 a.m. at your church at Emmet. There's song, sermon and prayer for those who attend. For the little folks there's a nursery with a trained leader telling the gospel story using beautiful pictures. Sunday is God's day. It should be used to glorify Him.
