

Carol Stevens, Page, Becomes a Bride

PAGE—Miss Carol Stevens and Keith Cable of Lincoln were united in marriage Sunday, September 21, at 1:30 p.m. at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Stevens, at Page. Rev. C. E. Wilcox performed the double ring ceremony.

Miss Ruth Parks played the wedding march and accompanied her sister, Miss Jane Parks, who sang, "Always" and "I Love You Truly."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white tulle and tulle gown. Her white veil, held in place by a crown of white daisies, draped to the floor. She carried a beautiful bouquet of white carnations and pom-poms and wore the traditional something new, something borrowed and something blue.

Her only attendant, her sister, Mrs. Fritz Brandt, appeared in a pink gown. She wore a pink tiara. She carried a bouquet of yellow carnations and pom-poms.

The bridegroom wore a gray business suit with a white carnation boutonniere. His brother-in-law of the bride, was best man. He wore a blue suit with a white carnation boutonniere.

Ronnie Parks, nephew of the bride and son of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Parks, carried the rings on a white satin pillow.

The bride's mother wore a navy blue sheer dress. Her corsage was of pink carnations. A reception for the family and a few friends was held immediately after the ceremony.

After a short honeymoon, Mr. and Mrs. Cable will return to Lincoln where they will make their home for the present.
