

Eagles Whip Burwell; Victory 3d Straight

Lone Longhorn Tally on Interception

The O'Neill high Eagles chalked up their third consecutive triumph of the grid campaign with an impressive 33-7 showing over Burwell Friday night at Burwell.

Only six minutes had elapsed when the Eagles hit pay dirt with Boxcar Duane Booth ramming from the 4 to climax a long march.

Before the period had ended, fleet Bobby Carroll scooted across from the 10.

In the second stanza, George Kilcoin was sprung off his own right tackle and raced 65 yards to score. Larry Chase added an extra point with a run and Dave Eby's toe added another.

The half ended with O'Neill in front, 20-3.

The Blues continued their scoring ways in the second half. Elby slipped across from the 3 on a quarterback sneak but missed the PAT. During the third period Carroll scampered 55 yards off guard with Booth booting the point.

This ended O'Neill's scoring because Coach Marv Miller turned the game over to the bench-warriors.

The Longhorns scored on a pass interception that carried for their only six points.

Ronnie Bazelman's defensive and offensive play in the center of the line sparked for the winners and Gaylen Hull, a durable tackle, was in his customary fine form. Eby's ball handling and deception was rated good.

The Eagles face Creighton here Friday night and are rated easy favorites.

Broncos Wilt in Second Half

STUART—A sizeable crowd of football fans were out to see the Stuart high Broncos play their first home game of football Friday night. They played the Springview Indians at the ball park.

While the Broncos are short on weight they held the Indians to a scoreless tie for the first half but let the game finish with a 20-7 score in favor of Springview.

The Broncos lost their first two games at Burke, S.D., and Valentine with the scores 45-0 and 59-0, respectively.

Other Stuart News

Mrs. Berlin Mitchell, Lucille, Fred, Marvin and Warren went to Omaha Saturday and visited over the weekend at the D. A. Boldra home.

Joe Deerner, student at the Milford trade school, spent the weekend with his mother, Mrs. Nick Simons.

Mr. and Mrs. Alphonse Oberding of Emmet, Ida., are visiting with relatives and friends here and in Atkinson. They formerly lived here.

John Obermire, student at the State Agricultural college in Lincoln, and Miss Billie Ruther, student in a beauty school also in Lincoln came Friday to spend the weekend with the Gus Obermire family.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Robertson of Rogers were overnight guests at the Berlin Mitchell home on Wednesday, September 24. Mrs. Robertson and Mr. Mitchell are cousins.

Mrs. Mary Henning of Atkinson, Mrs. Gus Obermire and daughters, Mary Rita and Karen were in Norfolk Saturday.

Bassett Surprises Ainsworth, 25-12

BASSETT—Rock county high school (Bassett) griders defeated Ainsworth Friday night in a grid game, 25-12.

Ainsworth kicked-off and the ball went into the end zone. Without benefit of huddle, the Bassett crew put the ball into play and went 80 yards to score the first TD.

LOANS AVAILABLE

Commodity credit loans and purchase agreements are now available on pasture and grass seeds. Anyone who is interested in this program may contact his local PMA office for full particulars, according to Harry E. Ressel, chairman of the Holt county PMA.

Ticklers By George

"The champ says tell the boys and girls that he is in the pink of condition because he eats his breakfast food every day!"

Chambers Hits Butte 22-0 in Six-Man

CHAMBERS — The Chambers high Coyotes played Butte at Chambers Friday and triumphed 22-0. The Coyotes are undefeated in three starts.

Halfback Cavanaugh's running and End Beed's defensive play sparked for the victors.

On Thursday, September 19, Valley Center school played the Chambers grade school in football, the game ending in a 6-6 tie. A return game is planned.

Cardinals Bow in Season's Opener

SHARP, BLACK & CO. BRING DISASTER

SPENCER — A stronger, smoother Spencer high grid team turned back the St. Mary's academy six-manners Tuesday night, September 23, under the lights at Spencer, 12-6. The home team already had romped over Butte and Colome, S.D., and the seasoning gave the Boyd countys a distinct advantage over Coach Joe George's inexperienced crew.

SMA kicked to Spencer and the Boyd crew racked up seven points in seven plays. With Bobby Fritton pitching and three backs sharing the surface load, the Cardinals bounced back with a TD. Near the end of the first-half, Spencer pounced on a Cardinal fumble on the SMA 10 and pounced the oval across for another six points.

Two Spencer lads—Sharp and Black, both weighing in the neighborhood of 190 pounds—played havoc with their power going into the Cardinal line.

SMA plays Greeley Friday night at Greeley.

9 Holt Hunters Get Doe Permits

Nine Holt county hunters were among the one thousand Nebraska sportsmen drawing 1952 doe hunting permits issued by the Nebraska game commission.

They are: A. W. Carroll of O'Neill; Charles G. Everett of Atkinson; Carl F. Hoppe of Atkinson; William S. Linville of Atkinson; John F. Ruther of Ewing; Louis Steinhauer of Stuart; Robert L. Vance of Ewing; Louis Vitt of O'Neill, and Vern Wrede of Inman.

From Boyd county: Audrey Ann Adams of Spencer; Ida Minnie Kaczor of Spencer, and James P. McAllister of Spencer.

From Rock county: Leonard B. Anderson of Newport; Charles E. Burke of Bassett; Clifford T. Turpin of Bassett, and Richard Turpin of Bassett.

From Antelope county: Alva Jonathan Rice of Clearwater.

2 Holt Gridders on Norfolk JC Squad

Two Holt county men, Don Beckwith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph A. Beckwith of O'Neill and Robert Fox, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fox, also of O'Neill, are members of the Norfolk Junior college Blackhawk football squad.

Bob is slated to play guard. He is the smallest member of the team, standing 5-6 and weighing 140 pounds.

Don, who was slated for an end position on the team, is currently receiving medical attention for an injury sustained during early practice. His injury consists of a shoulder separation which is now healed but as yet it has not been deemed advisable for Don to participate.

Spencer Wallops Randolph

SPENCER—The Spencer high six-man grid team vanquished the Randolph Cardinals Friday night under the lights at Randolph, 36-12. Spencer led, 18-6, at intermission. Randolph this season is playing six-man football for the first time. In past years it has fielded powerful 11-man teams.

Move to Minnesota — Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Adamson shipped their household goods to Hutchinson, Minn., where they plan to live. Saturday they were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Marcellus.

Try FRONTIER want ads!

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Loy of Salt Lake City, Utah, arrived Tuesday after a six-year absence. During their week's stay they plan to visit Mr. and Mrs. D. N. Loy and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Knight and son, Mike, of Hastings were weekend visitors of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. For Knight and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Lieb of Atkinson.

Pyramid Coats Are Practical and Perky

BY EDNA MILES

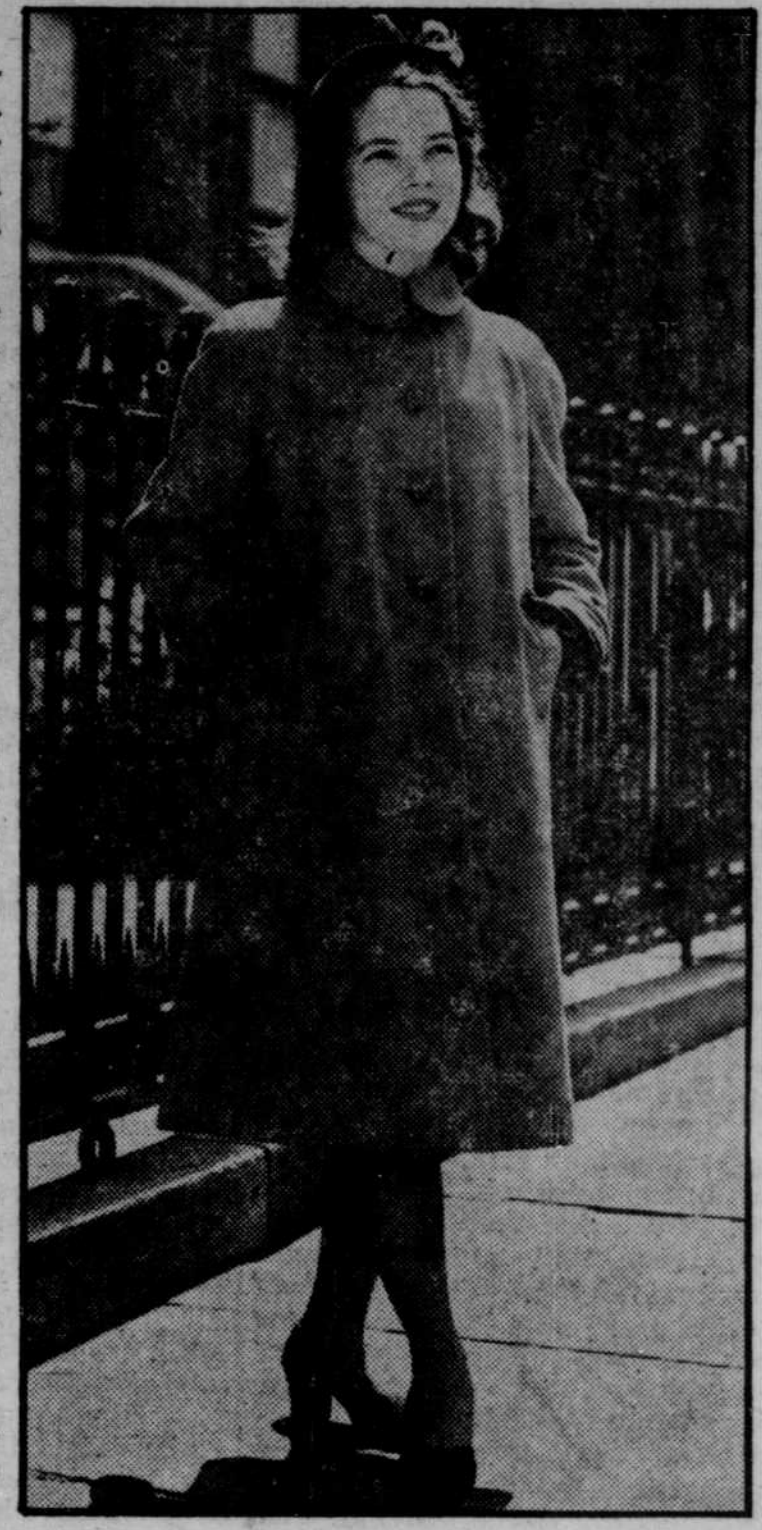

THE big deal in coats for teenagers this fall is the pyramid. The pyramid is enlivened by touches that make it individual and keep it from becoming a kind of campus uniform.

It may, for example, have sleeves that are pushed up to balloon fullness. Or a deep collar, jumbo pockets and wide cuffs. It may have an upstand collar and touches of velvet trimming, in matching or contrasting colors. There are also purple poodles, pyramid silhouettes in nubby poodle cloth of winter violet.

Fashion-right coats that have such practical features as a deep hem that can be let down as a teen-ager shoots skyward are likely to appeal to mother and to be generally easy on the family budget.

One such coat (left) is a pyramid in all wool monotone tweed by Bambury. Velvet is used for the shawl collar and the cuffs. The saddle shoulder and double flap pocket treatment both look new in a teen-age coat. And there's a deep hem to grow on.

Another coat (right) is single-breasted with a Peter Pan collar and turn-back cuffs. In light gray all-wool broadcloth, it, too, has the deep hem that adds to the life of the coat.

Nebraska Story in N. Y. Times

The story of Nebraska in text, pictures and advertising will be told in a special 16-page tabloid supplement to the Sunday, Oct. 5, issue of the New York Times.

The supplement was prepared by the division of Nebraska resources as part of its campaign to attract new industry to the state.

Cost of the supplement was paid by the division of resources and 25 individual advertisers including: Northern Natural Gas company; Cushman Motor Works; Fairmont Foods company; American Bus Lines; Consumers Public Power district; Roberts Dairy company; Kansas-Nebraska Natural Gas company; Bankers Life Insurance company of Nebraska; the Nebraska Farmer; Tote System, Inc.; Dempster Mill Manufacturing company; Store Kraft Manufacturing company; Beatrice Foods company; Metropolitan Utilities district of Omaha; Industrial Chemical company; Central Electric and Gas company; Cudahy Packing company; Lincoln Homebuilders association; Nebraska Telephone association; Union Stock Yards company; Greyhound Bus Lines; Nebraska Natural Gas company; Schmalz Hardware and Omaha Public Power district.

C. V. Price chief of the division of Nebraska resources, is spending the week of October 5 in New York to follow up on inquiries expected to result from this extraordinary advertising effort.

Marilyn Holsclaw Becomes a Bride

Baskets of gladioli and chrysanthemums decorated the altar of the chapel of the First Presbyterian church in Lincoln Sunday afternoon, September 28, for the wedding of Miss Marilyn Lenore Holsclaw of Lincoln, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred H. Holsclaw of O'Neill, and Donald W. Snell of Lincoln, son of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Snell of Gretna.

Rev. V. Vin White officiated with the double-ring ceremony. Escorted by her father, the bride wore a ballerina-length gown of white taffeta and nylon net. Her finger-tip veil was held by a pearl-trimmed cap and she carried a shower bouquet of red roses and white chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Lois Murdy of Lincoln, the bride's only attendant, wore a ballerina-length gown of white taffeta and net with a matching cap. She carried yellow and white chrysanthemums.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Holsclaw chose a wine colored dress with gray accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore navy with gray accessories and both mothers wore pink carnation corsages.

Serving as bestman was Roland Eggers of Lincoln, Marvin Holsclaw of Alliance and Delbert Snell of Gretna were ushers.

A reception for about 35 guests was held after the ceremony. The couple will live in Lincoln after their wedding trip.

The bride was graduated from O'Neill high school and is a secretary in the state capitol. The bridegroom, a graduate of the University of Nebraska, 1952, is employed by the department of roads and irrigation.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding and reception included Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Holsclaw of Alliance; Mr. and Mrs. James H. Holsclaw and Danny and Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Holsclaw, Janice and Priscilla, all of O'Neill; Mr. and Mrs. Dale Harder, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wolf, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Snell, Richard and Delbert, Misses Marlene Bevelheim and Vera Snell, all of Gretna, and Richard Bierman and Richard Barnall, both of Omaha.

Orchard Woman Hurt by Fall

ORCHARD—Mrs. Adeline DePeel suffered painful injuries to her right arm, face and neck when she fell down a flight of stairs Saturday while attending an auction sale of the Mrs. Jessie Bowen household goods.

The accident occurred when Mrs. DePeel mistakenly opened a door leading to the basement and fell down the stairs to the basement floor.

A doctor was called and Mrs. DePeel was removed to her home. Examination revealed no broken bones, however the full extent of her injuries may not be known for several days.

Mrs. DePeel is being cared for by her daughter, Mrs. Dolly Trease.

Antelope Named for Fleet Animals

Antelope county in northeast Nebraska, Holt's neighbor on the southeast, obviously was named for the fleet-footed animal which is used to be found in Nebraska in great numbers. There's an interesting yarn, though, as to just why it was so named.

The name was given by Leander Gerrard of Columbus, who served in the state senate in 1871. In the summer of 1867 or 1868, so the story goes, Mr. Gerrard, who was active in promoting the settlement of northeast Nebraska, was in the area occupied by the county with a group of homeseekers. They ran low on food, but Mr. Gerrard came to the rescue by shooting a fine antelope. The circumstances occurred to him when he was preparing the bill for the organization of the county, and he applied the name, "Antelope."

Another, and more exciting version of the story has it that Mr. Gerrard was in pursuit of Indians who had stolen some livestock around Columbus when he shot the antelope.

County Christened by Columbus Man

A number of factors contributed to retard the early settlement of Antelope county. One was the conflict between the county commissioners and the B & M railroad over taxes on the lands in the county granted the railroad in lieu of lands along the road's right-of-way which earlier had been granted to the Union Pacific. Another was the grasshopper visitations of 1874-'76 which had a serious effect on most of the state.

The earliest town of significance, and the first county seat, was Oakdale, laid out in 1872. A small, one-story frame courthouse was built in 1873 at a cost of $650. It burned in 1875 and was not replaced because of the desire of some of the citizens to remove the county seat to Neligh.

Neligh was founded in 1873 on land that was purchased from the Chicago and North Western railroad the year before by John D. Neligh. The town grew rapidly and for a time was a favorite hangout for cowboys and such notorious characters as Kid Wade and Doc Middleton. An important factor in the growth of Neligh was the location of the S. J. and S. J. office for the region there. Likewise, the early mill was a drawing card for business. The cultural life of the new town was greatly enriched when the Congregationalists established Gates college there, a flourishing institution in the eighties and nineties.

As a result of this growth, Neligh was victorious in the long contest with Oakdale over the county seat, and after five bitterly-contested county seat elections, the seat of government finally was removed in 1883.

A good sketch of Antelope county by Mrs. R. J. Hering will be found in "Who's Who in Nebraska," A. J. Leach, "Early Day Stories," published in Norfolk in 1916, also of value, as is the "History of Antelope county," published in 1909. An old sketch will be found in A. T. Andreas, "Illustrated History of Nebraska," Chicago, 1882.

Chambers Auxiliary Will Meet Friday

CHAMBERS — The Chambers Legion auxiliary met recently at the E. H. Medcalf home with the president in charge. Members were glad to welcome Mrs. Clayton Woods of California as a visitor.

All committees are requested to keep a record of their activities and present them at the May meeting.

Poppies to be made by handicapped veterans were ordered for 1953.

At the conclusion of the business meeting the constitution was read.

A social hour was enjoyed during which lunch was served by Mrs. E. H. Medcalf and Mrs. Orville Kellar. A welcome was extended to the new district II president, Mrs. Evelyn Skokan of Niobrara; also to Mrs. Phyllis Hancock, secretary of district II, also of Niobrara.

The gift shop assignment for hospitalized veterans was received and must be taken care of at the October meeting.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Esther Wood on Friday evening, October 3.

Attend Bank Meeting in Rapid City — Farmers and stockmen are borrowing more money on their land these days, and most loans are being used to refinance other debts.

State Losing Alfalfa Seed Market—Report

A four to five-million-dollar annual alfalfa seed market is rapidly slipping away from Nebraska farmers, according to the Nebraska seed advisory council.

At a recent meeting of the council and University of Nebraska college of agriculture officials, the general opinion was that west coast producers are already geared to supply the nation's needs of alfalfa seed. This, they say, will mean Nebraska seed will be thrown into the surplus market at greatly reduced prices instead of continuing to be in high demand as in the past.

The last of alfalfa seed production during the past three years in Nebraska is blamed for the loss of the market. Unfavorable weather, coupled with hit-or-miss production of higher quality seed.

While little can be done to correct the weather, Nebraska seedmen expressed the opinion that more general use of proven production methods could do much to even out production of higher quality seed.

Planned production of consistent annual acreage, plus the use of chemicals for insect control, were suggested as absolute necessary for good seed production. Staggered cutting, use of honey bees, and providing better facilities for natural pollinating insects, are also probably being used by some in other states.

Planned production of consistent annual acreage, plus the use of chemicals for insect control, were suggested as absolute necessary for good seed production. Staggered cutting, use of honey bees, and providing better facilities for natural pollinating insects, are also probably being used by some in other states.

Planned production of consistent annual acreage, plus the use of chemicals for insect control, were suggested as absolute necessary for good seed production. Staggered cutting, use of honey bees, and providing better facilities for natural pollinating insects, are also probably being used by some in other states.

Planned production of consistent annual acreage, plus the use of chemicals for insect control, were suggested as absolute necessary for good seed production. Staggered cutting, use of honey bees, and providing better facilities for natural pollinating insects, are also probably being used by some in other states.

Planned production of consistent annual acreage, plus the use of chemicals for insect control, were suggested as absolute necessary for good seed production. Staggered cutting, use of honey bees, and providing better facilities for natural pollinating insects, are also probably being used by some in other states.

Planned production of consistent annual acreage, plus the use of chemicals for insect control, were suggested as absolute necessary for good seed production. Staggered cutting, use of honey bees, and providing better facilities for natural pollinating insects, are also probably being used by some in other states.

Planned production of consistent annual acreage, plus the use of chemicals for insect control, were suggested as absolute necessary for good seed production. Staggered cutting, use of honey bees, and providing better facilities for natural pollinating insects, are also probably being used by some in other states.

Planned production of consistent annual acreage, plus the use of chemicals for insect control, were suggested as absolute necessary for good seed production. Staggered cutting, use of honey bees, and providing better facilities for natural pollinating insects, are also probably being used by some in other states.

Planned production of consistent annual acreage, plus the use of chemicals for insect control, were suggested as absolute necessary for good seed production. Staggered cutting, use of honey bees, and providing better facilities for natural pollinating insects, are also probably being used by some in other states.

Planned production of consistent annual acreage, plus the use of chemicals for insect control, were suggested as absolute necessary for good seed production. Staggered cutting, use of honey bees, and providing better facilities for natural pollinating insects, are also probably being used by some in other states.

Planned production of consistent annual acreage, plus the use of chemicals for insect control, were suggested as absolute necessary for good seed production. Staggered cutting, use of honey bees, and providing better facilities for natural pollinating insects, are also probably being used by some in other states.

Planned production of consistent annual acreage, plus the use of chemicals for insect control, were suggested as absolute necessary for good seed production. Staggered cutting, use of honey bees, and providing better facilities for natural pollinating insects, are also probably being used by some in other states.

Planned production of consistent annual acreage, plus the use of chemicals for insect control, were suggested as absolute necessary for good seed production. Staggered cutting, use of honey bees, and providing better facilities for natural pollinating insects, are also probably being used by some in other states.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Fuller and Marilyn were Sunday dinner guests at Roy Beeson's.

Cattleman's Roundup Soon at Ft. Robinson

The first Ft. Robinson annual fall cattleman's roundup will be held near Crawford on Thursday, October 9, according to Dr. M. L. Baker, associate director of the university of Nebraska agricultural experiment station.

Doctor Baker will discuss range cattle nutrition.

The morning program will start at 9:15 a.m. (MST) in the theater building in Crawford. E. J. Dyksterhuis, regional conservationist with the soil conservation service, will discuss grasses and their management under grazing conditions. Dr. L. E. Johnson of the bureau of animal husbandry and regional coordinator of the north-central region beef cattle breeding research, will talk on beef cattle breeding. He will discuss work that is being done at colleges and universities on breeding problems.

The afternoon program will start at the theater building in Crawford. About 2:30 p.m., the group will adjourn.

Doctor Baker will discuss range cattle nutrition.

The afternoon program will start at the theater building in Crawford. About 2:30 p.m., the group will adjourn.

4th Street Market

Prices Effective Thurs., Fri., Sat., Sun. Morn. OCTOBER 2-5

JELLO, All Flavors	3 Pkgs. 25c
GLOSSTEX	Qt. 27c
SUNSHINE HYDROX COOKIES	WALDORF CRACKERS
Pkg. 37c	1-Lb. Box 23c
KRAFT CARMELS	1-Lb. Bag 37c
JOY, Reg. Size	28c
WHITE-ELCOR NAPKINS	60-Count Pkg. 12c
WATHENA-APPLE BUTTER	1 Qt. 23c
K I X	MORTON HOUSE BROWN Gravy & Pork Can 35c
Per Pkg. 15c
SKIPPY-PEANUT BUTTER	13-Oz. Jar 41c
BOLOGNA, All Meat	Lb. 45c
WE BUY EGGS	WE BUY EGGS

TOP SALES BEST FILLS PROMPT RETURNS

The Climax of 39 Years of SERVICE

The FRANK E. SCOTT Commission Co.

Sioux City Stock Yards Sioux City, Ia.

"Correspondence Solicited" "Market Reports Furnished"

ANNOUNCEMENT

OPENING OF ONE SQUARE BLOCK OF IDEAL RESIDENTIAL BUILDING SITES

4 Blocks to Schools

4 Blocks to Postoffice

One full block of ground divided into 13 lots of various sizes, all larger than average. Plenty of rich top soil for lawns and gardens. A natural slope across the entire block provides excellent drainage. Seven lots with an east front face Ford park. Six lots face west and command a wonderful view of the Elkhorn valley.

The excellent location of these lots, just 5 blocks from the schools and 6 blocks from 4th and Douglas, is worth the modest price. They will be sold on a "first come" basis. Make your selection now and take your choice. No lots reserved.

Bill Bowker Realty

Office Phone 52 O'NEILL Res. Phone 551-J