LETTERS TO EDITOR

O'Neill, Nebr.
October 6, 1952

Editor, The Frontier
Dear Mr. Stewart,

We were very glad to tour your newspaper plant and broadcasting studio, and it was very interesting.

I used to wonder if you folded all those papers by hand.

What I liked, best was the folder.

Well, I better close for now.

Your friends,
RITA JANSEN,
Teacher and Pupils of District 9

(Editor's note: We were pleased to escort your school group through The Frontier, and honestly, Rita, our backs would ache if we were obliged to fold 2,500 copies by hand. The folding is done by machine a few seconds after the printing is done. Come again!)

O'Neill, Nebr.
October 3, 1952

Dear Mr. Stewart,

I am writing for our school to thank you for letting us tour your newspaper office.

We appreciated touring it very much.

We have learned to spell the names of some of the machines in your printing office.

One of the boys in school brought a small rotary printing set to school.

Sincerely yours,
GENE SCHNEIDER

Dear Mr. Stewart,

Our school wishes to thank you for letting us tour your office. Everyone said that they liked to go through it and I wish to thank Mrs. Sausser for taking us through. It was very interesting. We have been talking about it ever since we came from there.

Respectfully yours,
BETTY JANE SCHNEIDER
District 5, Grade 5.

Mrs. Don Peterson and Pam left Wednesday for Lake Andes, S.D., to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Padmos. She plans to return Sunday.

Mrs. Elsa Redlinger left Monday afternoon for Panama, Calif., to spend a month visiting her two sisters, Mrs. Merle Pereboom and Mrs. Velma Crawford.

FHA Holds a District Meeting

District VI Elects Ainsworth Girl as Its New President

EWING—The largest meeting of the Future Homemakers of America for district VI gathered in Ewing on Saturday for the annual session. The Ewing Homemakers and their advisor, Miss Fern Pruden, were hosts.

Activities began with registration at 9 a. m. at the Eldorado theatre as follows: Ainsworth—29 students and one adult; Bassett—28 students and one adult; Creighton—14 students and one adult; Ewing—34 students and three adults; Neligh—26 students and one adult; Plainview—27 students and one adult; Springfield—16 and one adult.

Norfolk and O'Neill were not represented. There were two students and one adult visitor from the Chambers FHA. Each received a FHA badge and program.

The morning session was opened with a welcome given by Miss Pruden, district advisor. She also introduced Supt.

Lewis Carter, who welcomed the group to Ewing.

The Ainsworth chapter gave the opening ritual followed by the devotions in charge of the Creighton chapter. This inspirational part of the program consisted of the reading of the 95th Psalm, followed by "Thoughts for the Day," a duet, "In the Garden," and closed with a prayer. Lois Ann Bergstrom of Ewing led the group in the pledge of allegiance to the American flag.

The next half hour was spent in group singing led by the music instructor, Paul Cooper of Ewing, assisted by a trio from Neligh.

In the six-six method of "Teen Talk" many and various ideas were suggested to Miss Loleta Gilchrist, publicity chairman of Ainsworth. She requested that all items to be published in "Teen Talk" be sent to her by November 10. Each member was urged to subscribe to "Teen Talk" which covers the FHA activities of the district.

The Ainsworth chapter installed the new district officers. The following officers were installed: Eleanor Davis of Bassett—president; Shirley Boyd of Ainsworth, vice president; Helen Rotherham of Ewing—secretary; Barbara Sturek of Wheeler county (Bartlett)—parliamentarian; Bethyl Daniels of Ewing, historian; Loleta Gilchrist of Ainsworth—publicity chairman; Marilyn McClurg of Bassett—recreation chairman; Elayne Reimer of Wheeler county (Bartlett)—song leader; Pat Squire of Wheeler county (Bartlett)—pianist; Miss Pruden—advisor.

Meeting adjourned with the FHA pledge at 12 o'clock. Two hundred persons were served a noon day luncheon at the Ewing gymnasium. This had been prepared by the Ewing FHA. Table decorations were carried out in red and white, the FHA colors. The guest table was centered with a bouquet of red roses. The menu included meat loaf, scalloped potatoes, buttered corn, beet pickle, jello salad, hot rolls, butter, jelly, gingerbread with whipped cream and milk.

The welcome was given by Miss Jeanne Welke of Ewing and the response by Harriet Stolp of Plainview. Joelyn Eacker of Ewing sang two solos, "Blue Moon" and "Deep Purple," with Miss Marcia Gibson accompanist. Miss Pruden introduced the guests.

Springview chapter presented a song, "Neapolitan Nights," by their girls' quartet composed of Janice Van Metre, Virginia Thiede, Lucy Painter, Hazel Haley, with Mr. Joel Sands at the piano. The luncheon program was concluded by Paul Cooper of Ewing playing request numbers on the piano.

The guest speaker for the afternoon was Miss Judy Williams of Coleridge, a senior who was chosen as a delegate to the national FHA held in Wisconsin this year. She gave interesting sketches of the proceedings of the convention and explained the stamp system which is being used to raise funds.

The recreation period was in charge of Marilyn McClurg. Other entertainment included two skits, "Toward New Horizons," the FHA theme for the year. The skits were given by the Springview and Plainview chapters. The FHA emblem ceremony was presented by the Neligh chapter followed by the closing ritual.

Miss Pruden, then invited the guests to make a tour of the Ewing home-making department in which several new improvements have been made this year. The Ewing FHA treated the girls to ice cream bars.

Visit Iowa—Mesdames Clyde and Dean Streeter returned Monday evening from a four-day visit in Melrose, Ia. They went to Lincoln Thursday and were joined by their sisters, Mrs. Bernard Matthews and Mrs. Ray Williams, who accompanied them to Omaha where a cousin and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Knowles, joined the group. They drove to Melrose together.

Star Meets Tonight—Symphony chapter, Order of Eastern Star, will meet tonight (Thursday) for a stated meeting. The Job Daughters and their sponsor of Ainsworth will be guests. All Eastern Stars and Masons are invited.

Buzz Hill of Winner, S. D., spent the weekend visiting his sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Buckmaster.
