Mrs. Donald Fridley . . . a bride in church rite. — O'Neill Photo Co.

Cpl. Dale Summers is spending a 30-day furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Summers, and other relatives and friends after being in Korea for the past year. At the end of his furlough he will report back to Camp Pendleton, Calif., for further duty in the marine corps.

Jenine Evelyn Jones Weds Don Fridley

The Methodist church in O'Neill was the scene of the wedding ceremony of Miss Jenine Evelyn Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Preston Jones, to Donald Fridley, son of Mrs. C. D. Kaufman of Wood, S.D.

Jo Ann Sanders Weds in Atkinson

ATKINSON—Baskets of mixed fall flowers decorated the altar of the Methodist church in Atkinson Saturday evening for the pretty 9 o'clock wedding rite for Miss Jo Ann Sanders and Arlen Brown, both of Atkinson.

Rev. E. G. Hughes performed the ceremony. Mrs. Hughes played the wedding march. Miss Marion Baker was candlelighter. The flowers were from the gardens of Mrs. George Frohardt and Mrs. Weaver Bausch.

The bride and bridegroom wore matching suits of grey. She appeared with navy blue accessories and a white carnation corsage. He wore a white carnation boutonniere.

Miss Pauline Bausch of Atkinson was bridesmaid. She wore a navy blue suit with navy blue accessories and a white carnation corsage.

Marvin Johnson of Stuart was his friend's bestman. He wore a navy blue business suit with a white carnation boutonniere.

For her daughter's wedding her mother chose a black suit with black accessories and white blouse. The bridegroom's mother chose a black crepe dress with red accessories.

Only very immediate relatives and Miss Evelyn Weichman of Stuart were the wedding guests. After the ceremony the party returned to the Brown home, where the wedding cake and coffee were served to them by Mrs. Evan Lane of Newport and Mrs. Louis Brown of O'Neill, sister and sister-in-law of the bridegroom.

The bride and bridegroom cut the cake. It was baked and decorated by Mrs. Louis Brown.

Both bride and bridegroom were members of the 1952 Atkinson high school senior class. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sanders, who came to Atkinson three years ago to live from Butte and is now employed at Claude's cafe.

Arlen is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe H. Brown. He has lived in Atkinson all his life and has never attended any other school than the Atkinson public school. He is now working on a brief wedding trip they REA.

will return to live at the Brown home, and both will continue their employment.

In a setting of fall flowers the single ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Wallace B. Smith on Sunday, October 5, at 2 p.m.

Rahe ("Benny") Johnson sang "I Love You Truly" and "Because." He was accompanied on the organ by Mrs. John Harbottle.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She appeared in a ballerina length gown of white nylon net over white taffeta. It was fashioned with a pleated net skirt with an overskirt and blouse of embroidered nylon net, held in at the waist by a white taffeta sash. The boat shaped neck and short sleeves were trimmed with multiple ruffles of plain and embroidered nylon net. The beaded tiara was outlined with small rhinestones and seed pearls holding a circular fingertip length veil of nylon net edged with lace. She carried a bouquet of red roses. She was attended by Miss Doris Sterns of Lincoln, who wore a ballerina length gown of blue net over taffeta with a tiara of blue sheer. She carried a bouquet of talisman roses. The bestman was Charles Jones and the ushers were Frank and James McKenney. The men wore conventional business suits.

Following the ceremony the reception was held at the bride's home at which 85 guests were present. The wedding cake, decorated with pink and white roses, was flanked by pink and white candles. For going away, Mrs. Fridley chose a dress of gold nylon suede with brown accessories.

The bride is a graduate of the O'Neill public school with the class of 1950 and has been employed by the Northwestern Bell Telephone company the past two years. The bridegroom is a graduate of the O'Neill public school with the class of 1951 and is employed at the Gamble store.

Out-of-town guests were from Ainsworth, Bassett, Ewing, Niobrara, Columbus and Wood, S.D.

After a short wedding trip the couple will reside in the basement apartment of the Freeman Knight residence.

VISITS CREIGHTON Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kalkowski spent a couple of days at the Dale Barta home in the Walnut community. They also visited in Creighton while there.
