Grover Shaw, Wife on Extended Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Grover Shaw returned home Thursday after a six weeks vacation through the West.

They visited their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Shaw and family of Cowley, Wyo. While in Wyoming, they took in the rodeo at Lovell on August 24. At Cody they visited the church which has the paintings of the famous Catholic artist, Griewaker.

Other sights seen were: the Shoshone Dam and Yellowstone Park in Wyoming, the Craters of the Moon in Idaho, the Blue mountains of Oregon and the McNary dam in Washington.

At Richmond, Wash., they visited their daughter, a son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Rohde, and helped to celebrate the birthday of their new granddaughter, Colleen, who was one year old on September 13. They stopped to see Mrs. Shaw's brother, Thomas E. Carney, and attended the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Shal's nephew, Thomas J. Carney to Miss Phyllis Ratsch in a nuptial mass at the Church of Christ the King with the Rev. John H. Schindler officiating.

On Sunday, September 23, the Carneys, Rohdes, and Shaw's had a picnic dinner at the Sacajawea state park in Washington. Leaving Richmond they went to Kennewick, Wash., to visit Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Rector and family. Mr. and Mrs. Shaw took the north route home through the Black Hills.

HURT ON GRID LYNCH—Sidney Greene suffered a fractured collarbone recently during football practice. He spent several days in the hospital but is now able to be in school wearing a shoulder cast. Mrs. Joe Micaneck, jr., returned home from an Omaha hospital where she underwent surgery. Mrs. Ed Johns received word that her father, Pete Nelson, of Grand Island, is on the sick list.

Teachers to Convention—St. Mary's academy will be closed Friday, October 10. The teachers will attend the teachers' convention in Omaha that day.

Return from Extended Tour

CHAMBERS—Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Tangeman and Mr. and Mrs. Ruben Peltzer left Thursday, September 24, for an extended tour through the southern and eastern states.

Their first stop was in Waynesville, Mo., where they visited the Tangemans' son-in-law and daughter, Pvt. and Mrs. Vernon Schmidt. Vernon is stationed at Ft. Leonard Wood, which is located near Waynesville.

After spending a couple of days with the Schmidts, they drove to Nashville, Tenn. where Doreen Tangeman has been employed since March. Leaving Nashville September 9, accompanied by Doreen, they drove through the Smoky mountains. The next stop was Fayetteville, N.C., where they visited the Peltzers' nephew and his wife, Pic and Mrs. Raymond Walter. Raymond is in the airborne division stationed at Ft. Bragg, one of the largest army camps in the U.S.

From there they drove to Clinton, Md., where they called on one of Doreen's friends, Mrs. Ronald Sandlin, and then on to the nation's capital where they took a very interesting tour of the city including visits to the white house, capitol building, Smithsonian institute, art museum, Lincoln and Jefferson memorials and Washington's monument.

Driving from there to Baltimore, Md., they visited Pvt. Larry Tangeman and his wife over Sunday. Larry is stationed at Ft. Holabird, Md.

Monday morning, September 15, they left for Stockton, N.J., where they spent a few days with the George Unfried and Mai families. They are cousins of Mrs. Peltzer.

While there they enjoyed a day at Asbury beach on the Atlantic ocean and also spent a day viewing sights in New York City. Leaving there the next stop was Glover, Vt., where relatives of Arthur Tangeman live. They spent a couple of days visiting and sightseeing. One point of interest was an asbestos mine in the Green mountains. From Vermont they drove to Niagara Falls, N.Y., where they took a tour which included both American falls and the falls on the Canadian side.

Leaving Niagara Falls the morning of September 25, they drove to Princeton, Ill., where they called on Clarence, Arthur and Ida Larson, cousins of Mrs. Tangeman. Continuing on to Des Moines, Ia., they visited the Werner Huth family. They found the Huth family packed and ready to move to Chicago, Ill. On Sunday, September 28, they stopped in Stanton for a short visit with Mrs. Clara Peltzer, arriving back in Chambers that afternoon.

They were on the road 25 days and drove through 18 states, not including the District of Columbia, covering a distance of 5,032 miles without car trouble.

Monday evening in Ainsworth, being called there by the serious illness of Mrs. Clark's and Mrs. Hutton's brother, Tom Berger. Mr. and Mrs. Chester Smith and daughter, Susan Kay, of Neigh spent Monday evening visiting Mr. and Mrs. John Mattson, Harry McGraw, Mrs. Lee Conger, sr., and Mrs. David Morsbach and Mary accompanied Mrs. Ballantyne and Faye Irene of Page to Bonesteel, S.D., Sunday where they attended the RLDS conference.
