100 View Clover Club's Projects State Fair Laurels on Display

The 22 members of the Clover 4-H club, members of which live in and near Atkinson, handed in completed record books for the 50 4-H projects they elected last spring. These projects included a variety of activities—rural electrification, tractors, food preservation, meal planning, let's look, summer wardrobe, dress-up dresses, keep well, yard beautification, home improvement, forestry, pure seed, poultry, garden, stocker-feeders, swine, and riding horse.

As a climax of this year's project activities the club held its achievement Monday evening, Sept. 29, at the Memorial hall in Atkinson. About 100 visitors attended to view the various exhibits and enjoy the program which included: Group singing; a short business meeting; presentation of awards; presentation of the state fair prize-winning demonstrations; presentation of the skit, "The Thing," the club's entry in the share the fun festival in Stuart, winner of a red ribbon; "Alice Blue Gown" and "Place in the Sun," a special 4-H song—also a red ribbon winner at the state fair.

County Agent A. Neil Dawes presented an interesting 4-H story through colored slides. To complete the evening Leon Kaiser and George McJor played for the square and folk dancing. Lunch was served. The ribbons won by Holt county at the state fair were on display. The ones won by the Clover club included blue ribbons on three demonstrations given by Kay Dvorak, Ronnie Hickman, and DeMarus Wefso; a red won by the song group; a red won by Kay Dvorak in song identification; a silver medal won by Carol Schultz for being second in the state in food preservation judging; a red won by Raymond Wagon in the tractor driving contest; a white won by Lois Puckett in style show; a medal won by Benton Mellor in tree and leaf identification, and a pink ribbon won by Ronnie Hickman in tree and leaf identification.

Also entered in state fair competition were Jo Ann Determan and Joe Livingston. Many of the Clover members entered exhibits, demonstrations, judging, song contest, style show and other activities of the tri-county fair, achievement day, and Holt county fair.

Members of the stocker-feeder division of the club will show and sell their calves in O'Neill at the calf sale October 15. During the past year three of the Clover members have left the club to do other things. They are Murray Mellor, army; Doris Ward, who with her mother went to join Mr. Ward, a captain in the air force of the Japan; and Marilyn Ries, who is a student nurse at Sacred Heart hospital, Yankton, S. D.

The club will continue to meet throughout the fall and winter months, the next meeting being a Halloween party.

IT'S A SWELL DAY FOR THE GAME!
Here it is again... Nebraska's Football Season... the time of year many Nebraskans enjoy most. It's wonderful to start for the game... crispness in the air... trees blazing in color... flags and banners sparkling in the sun. Inside the stadium, our band stirs the crowd to support our team... It's a swell day for a game! Football is the favorite sport of a host of Nebraskans... including your tavernkeeper. He is as proud of a winning team as you are. His problems may be more difficult—his hours longer—the laws governing his business more strict, but he takes the same interest in state and local events. He takes the same pride in being a part of his community. He's a good citizen and neighbor, and worth knowing better.

PAY MORE? WHAT FOR?

Before this year, if you wanted a big-car ride... a high-compression engine... a complete choice of interior-exterior appointments... or a curved one-piece windshield and a car-wide rear window, you had to pay hundreds of dollars more. Now FORD offers all these features at no extra cost. It's the one fine car in the low-price field. Take 10 minutes and "Test Drive" a Ford. You'll agree... you can pay more but you can't buy better.

Anybody care to run for this office?

Candidate Wanted: Must be efficient, honest, experienced. Pay and term of office uncertain, since public will vote every day to see if candidate stays in office.

We bet you don't want that job of being forced to get elected every day. Yet it's a reasonably accurate description of what a manufacturer must do to hold his job. Every day at the sales counter, millions of women and men vote General Electric in or out of a job. When you stop to think of it, we don't hold office for four years—or even two. We have a daily fight on our hands. Hands at the sales counter pick up G-E products—hold them, turn them over, inspect them, try them against competitive articles for value and price—then decide for or against. The only way we can win the election is by constantly improving our product. Thousands of engineers are paid to think up ways to improve, redesign, simplify. We use every known device of mass production to deliver more for the money. And our employees are as keen on winning our daily "public election" as is the salesman at the counter. Manufacturers sell products on the basis of "be good every day—or get out of office." The result is the American public has the world's highest standard of living.

You can put your confidence in—

GENERAL ELECTRIC
