 We welcome everyone to these services.

METHODIST (O'Neill)
 Rev. Wallace B. Smith, pastor
 Today (Thursday) delegates to the state conference of the Methodist youth fellowship will depart. They will be attending a two-day meeting at Cozad. Attending from O'Neill are Misses Alice Young, Carol Leidy and Marilyn Fetrow. Their sponsor is the pastor.
 There will be no choir rehearsal.
 Friday: The Dorcas society of the church will meet at 2 p.m. at the church for quilting and fellowship. A lunch will be served. Mrs. Grant Peacock is the hostess.
 Sunday: Church school at 10 a.m. Attendance this fall has been above average. There are classes with excellent teachers for all ages including adulthood! A welcome awaits each newcomer.
 The morning worship service, at 11 a.m., will feature the singing of the hymns everyone loves, special music by the choir, and a special message by the pastor on the subject of "International Christianity."
 The youth fellowships begin their sessions at 6:30 p.m. The intermediate fellowship meets in the new addition to the basement. They will have worship, a lesson, and junior choir practice. All children from the sixth through the eighth grades are invited.
 The senior youth fellowship will have worship, a lesson, and a time of recreation on a Halloween theme. A lunch will be served.
 Thursday, October 29: Choir rehearsal.
 Sunday, November 2: Hear the pastor's election time sermon: "My Candidate!"

Riverside Honors
2 Club 'Graduates'
 The Riverside 4-H club met at the Leo Schneider home Sunday, October 5, for the final meeting of the year.
 This was demonstration day, also graduation day for two of the charter members, Romona Schneider and Patrick Boyle.
 Romona celebrated her birthday along with her graduation from an 11-year course. She has been a member of the Riverside club since 1941, and has completed the following projects: Forestry I, II and III, food preservation for two years, yard beautification, stocker feeder, girls' room and cooking.
 Romona has been a very active 4-H member and has served as president two years, secretary, song leader, treasurer and junior leader for two years.
 Patrick joined the Riverside club in 1945 and in his seven years of club work has completed the following projects: garden three years, stocker-feeder three years, forestry four years, poultry five years, yard beautification two years and fix-it one year.
 As a result of his activity in 4-H Patrick was awarded three trips to club week in Lincoln as a county winner and one trip to club congress in Chicago, Ill., as a state winner in his garden projects. He served as treasurer of the club one year and junior leader one year.
 Romona and Patrick both graduates of St. Mary's academy, have been good club members and were presented gifts from the club.
 Romona received a Black Hills gold ring and Patrick a camera.
