Dwight Griswold Political experts are agreed that Dwight Griswold, the republican nominee, will be elected next Tuesday for the short term in the United States senate, to fill the balance of the term of the late Senator Wherry. Griswold was elected governor in 1940, 1942 and 1944, winning by the largest majorities any candidate ever received in Nebraska's history. He was always fair in his approach to public questions and gave Nebraska excellent leadership during the tough war years. Dwight Griswold's parents were homesteaders in western Nebraska in 1886 and he was reared out in the "short grass" country, having a fine understanding of the state's problems. He is a former state commander of the American Legion and a former president of the State Press association. Adv.

Ralph H. Walker O'Neill, Nebr. NON-POLITICAL CANDIDATE for COUNTY JUDGE of HOLT COUNTY TO THE VOTERS OF HOLT COUNTY As it is impossible for me to contact you personally, I am using this means of making myself known to you. Before filing for the office of County Judge, I sought the opinion of professional and business men, as well as farmers and ranchers throughout the county.
