

Girl, 3, Crushed by Heavy Wheel

Guy Young Dies Early Wednesday

(Special to The Frontier)
Ewing—A 3-year-old brown haired Ewing girl was crushed to death about 10:30 Tuesday morning by the heavy wheel of a hay underslung rack.

Father of 2 Sons Killed in WWII

Guy Young, 63, an O'Neill man who has been ill several years, died early Wednesday, November 5, in a Norfolk hospital.

Funeral arrangements were not completed Wednesday. The body is at Biglin Brothers.

The late Mr. Young was born at Seward—one of six brothers. On May 18, 1916, he married Edith Rouse at O'Neill. The couple farmed for many years in the Atkinson and Opportunity localities, retiring in 1945.

They became the parents of three sons and two daughters. Two of the sons, Pvt. Richard C. and Marine Sgt. Ermund Lester, were killed in action during World War II. Richard died on May 23, 1944, during fighting at the Anzio, Italy beachhead, and Ermund died April 24, 1945, a few days before the war ended, while fighting on Okinawa.

Survivors include: Widow, son Stanley, who is in the air force and is stationed at Kelly Field, near San Antonio, Tex.; daughters—Mrs. Carol (Mary) Summers of Ewing and Mrs. Walter (Dorothy) Husted of Kansas City, Mo.; four grandchildren; brothers—Walter, Ralph and Otton, all of O'Neill; Paul of Doniphan, and Robert of Onak, Wash.

One brother, Roy, preceded him in death.

The late Mr. Young was a member of the Methodist church here.

Curtis DeVall, 7, Runover by Tractor

BRISTOW—Curtis DeVall, 7, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard DeVall of Bristol, was killed in a fatal injury about 10 o'clock Saturday morning when he fell from a tractor in the path of one of the wheels.

He was riding on the tractor with his father who was picking corn. Mr. DeVall saw his son fall and he made an effort to grab him. The father realized it was too late so he lifted on the wheel to lessen the load as the wheel struck the boy.

No bones were broken, attendants at Sacred Heart Hospital, Lynch, reported, but the lad was detained at the hospital for observation.

2 Volunteers with Group of Inductees

Two volunteers were numbered among the group of seven Holt county selective service registrants leaving O'Neill Monday for induction. Volunteers were Robert J. Kocij of Chambers and Nick Ramold of Atkinson. Others in the group were Patrick J. Boyle of O'Neill, John D. McClenahan of Ewing, John P. Tielke of Stuart, Bernard D. Janzing of Atkinson and Robert G. Reed of Chambers.

Meanwhile Sgt. James R. Lyons of the army, at the recruiting station at O'Neill has announced these recent enlistments:

For regular army: Floyd K. Wagner of O'Neill, Charles H. Thoin of Elgin, George C. Gaylord of Wood Lake and Leroy A. Reschman of Valentine. Army enlistees have gone to Camp Crowder, Mo.

For air force: Richard F. McIntosh of Page, Kenneth D. Johnson of Spencer, Donald L. Riley of Valentine, Ramon P. Faustina of Bloomfield, Clinton J. King of Kilgore, Kenneth E. Mundorf of Johnston, Robert B. Burkhead of Neligh, Richard L. Hand, James E. Snyder of Ainsworth and William Escritt, jr. These air enlistees have gone to Parris air force base, Pleasanton, Calif.

P-TA Hears Ministers in Panel Discussion

The regular monthly meeting of the O'Neill P-TA was held in the band room of the O'Neill public school Monday evening. The entertainment consisted of a solo by Sandra Thomas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Thomas, accompanied by Mrs. Howard Manson. Two saxophone solos were offered by Miss Elizabeth Schaffer. Miss Schaffer was accompanied by Leonard Jones.

The topic for a roundtable discussion, the cooperation between church and school, was well presented by the following O'Neill ministers: Rev. R. W. Olson, Rev. Samuel Lee, Rev. Wayne Hall, Rev. Melvin Grossenbach, Rev. Wallace B. Smith and Rev. John Thomas.

This discussion proved informative and interesting to the large crowd in attendance. Lunch was served by the eighth grade mothers.

CDA in Session

The Catholic Daughters of the Court of St. Michael 697 held a business meeting Monday night at the K. of C. hall. Following the meeting the group played pitch. The prizes were won by Mrs. John Turner, Mrs. Grover Shaw and Mrs. E. Murray. A lunch was served by the committee.

Leaving for Navy

William Froelich, jr., was honored at a farewell party Friday evening at the Town House given by Mrs. H. J. Birmingham and Mrs. Edward Campbell. Mr. Froelich will leave November 10 for Rich departed for the Great Lakes naval station where he will begin active reserve.

VOICE OF THE FRONTIER
Mon.
Wed.
Sat.
780 k.c. 9-45 a.m.

Volume 72.—Number 27.

TEN PAGES
SECTION ONE
Pages 1 to 10

Polio Takes Atkinson Mother of 2

Dread Disease Fatal in 48 Hours to Wife of Druggist

ATKINSON—Mrs. Bernie Wilson, 35, prominent Atkinson woman and mother of two small children, died unexpectedly Wednesday morning in St. Francis hospital, Grand Island.

Mrs. Wilson was stricken suddenly. She had been a guest of friends Sunday for dinner, complained about "not feeling well" late Sunday night, entered Atkinson Memorial hospital early Monday. Later that day she was transferred to Grand Island where she died.

Results of tests had not been announced late Wednesday but attendants believed death was caused by bulbar polio.

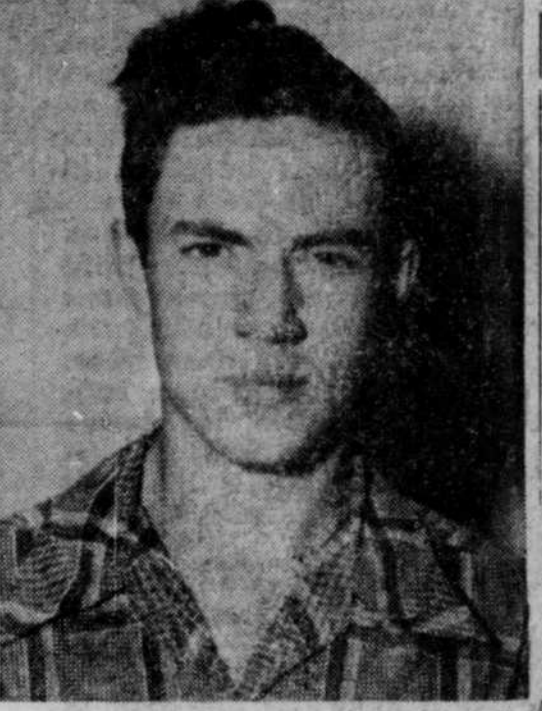

Survivors include: Widower; sons—Joseph, 4, and Edwin, only 3-weeks-old; mother—Mrs. Marousek of Des Moines, Ia.

Funeral services will be held Friday at 2 p.m., from the Presbyterian church. The family requests no flowers. Rev. Edward Marousek of Jefferson, Ia., an uncle of Mrs. Wilson's, will officiate.

Joseph has been staying with friends, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Chace and the baby is still in the hospital where it was born.

The late Mrs. Wilson has been prominent in Atkinson social and business circles since coming to Atkinson after World War II. She was a member of the Atkinson Veterans Wives club, which sponsored construction of the Memorial hospital, and belonged to the American Legion auxiliary and Presbyterian church ladies' group.

The Wilson family owns the Wilson drug store.

Speech Winner ... Edward Price

17 (above), son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Price of O'Neill, won a 4-E and FFA speech contest here last Thursday. Subject: "The Job Ahead in My Soil Conservation District." Text of prize-winning talk will appear in next issue.—The Frontier Photo.

Blues Win No. 7; Atkinson Next

Miller's Kids Are Undefeated

The 1952 grid season will close Friday night for the O'Neill high school Eagles in the traditional Atkinson-O'Neill game to be played this year under the lights at Atkinson.

Coach Marvin Miller's Blues will be in quest of win number 8, having bowled over seven earlier opponents in rolling up 183 points compared to their opponents' 43. The Eagles are unbeaten and are gunning for one of the best records in grid history at the school.

Davey Eby, Bob Carroll, Ronnie Bazelman, Gaylen Hull and Ed Davis, all regulars, are among those who'll be in Blue uniforms for the last time. They are seniors.

In stretching their perfect string to seven Friday, the Eagles played the Valentine Bangers on even terms for the first period, then the safety valve was lifted. Final score: O'Neill 38, Valentine 6.

In that first period, O'Neill kicked off to the Bangers. The Blues head and Valentine kicked off to O'Neill. He did it of a heart ailment and had been seriously ill for three days.

Funeral services were conducted Wednesday morning, November 5, from St. Patrick's Catholic church in O'Neill.

Burial was in Calvary cemetery under the direction of Biglin Brothers. Pallbearers were James Cavanaugh, Walter O'Malley, William Morgan, Peter Morgan, James Mullen and Edward N. Flood.

James McCaffrey Expires in Omaha

James H. McCaffrey, 73, a former O'Neill rancher who had been residing in Omaha for the past 11 years, died at 11:30 p.m., Sunday, October 30, at St. Elizabeth's hospital, Omaha.

He married Wilma Clark in St. Patrick's church in O'Neill.

For many years he was a rancher on a place 18 miles south-west of O'Neill. Mr. McCaffrey died in 1938. In 1941 he moved to Omaha to live near his daughter, Alma. During recent years he had been in poor health.

Survivors include: Daughter—Mrs. Alma Goodwin of Omaha; four grandchildren; sisters—Mrs. Michael Mullen of Atkinson and Mrs. Guy White of Casper, Wyo.; brothers—Leo and William, both of Boulder, Colo., and Emmet of O'Neill.

Mizzou Surprises with 10-6 Victory

Among O'Neilles attending the Nebraska-Missouri football game Saturday at Lincoln, won 10-6 by the Mizou Tigers, were: Loren Nelson, Val Darling, W. B. Gillespie, George Kilcoen, Harley Booth, Duane Booth, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Appleby, Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Yantzi, Mr. and Mrs. Elgin Ray, Mr. and Mrs. John Stuijbergen, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Kersenbrock, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Bright, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Holz, Robert Clouse, Darel Bright, J. D. Cronin, Ben Gilligan, Mike H. Horiskey, M. J. Golden, Mariner Miller, Cal Stewart, W. J. Froelich, sr., W. J. Froelich, jr., James Froelich, Darel Dexter, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Panowitz, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Tomlinson. From Emmet: Guy Cole. From Ewing: Jay Butler.

Rev. Grosenbach Ministerial Head

In a recent business meeting of the protestant ministers of O'Neill the ministers voted to organize as the Ministerial Association of O'Neill with membership open to all residents who desire membership.

Officers elected are: Rev. Melvin Grossenbach, president; Rev. Robert W. Olson, vice-president; and Rev. Samuel Lee, secretary and treasurer.

Ike Leads GOP in Smashing Victory

Nelson, Reimer and Waring Win in Holt; Near-Record Vote

Nebraska, 38 Other States in General's Column in Upset

Dwight D. Eisenhower... victor over Adlai Stevenson in republican sweep.

O'Neill's State Sen. Frank Nelson earned another two-year term in Nebraska's unicameral legislature in Tuesday's balloting in the four-county Twenty-eighth legislative district. He defeated Harry Copeland of Mariaville, 5,754-to-4,112, according to unofficial incomplete tabulations. Nelson, a longtime farmer in northern Holt, built an enormous lead in Holt county. He also won

For Abstract of Holt Voting Turn to Page 4

	Nelson Cope'd
Holt	3,846 1,977
Keya Paha	378 467
Rock	413 898
Boyd	1,187 776
	5,754 4,112

in Boyd county. But Rock, where Copeland has been a county commissioner, and in Keya Paha county the candidate from the west end of the district tabbed the greatest number of votes.

The proposal for a state board of education, placed before Nebraska voters in Tuesday's general election, carried.

Incomplete results on the amendment voting in 1,990 of the state's 2,067 precincts follows:

To alter the system of electing pay changes for a court board of commission for $188,002; against 133,908.

To permit a change in the system of taxing motor vehicles: For 207,478; against 148,585.

To increase a legislators pay: For 164,022; against 162,887.

To create a state board of education: For 204,255; against 125,513.

To change the procedure in the state constitution convention: For 191,330; against 122,703.

To reduce the number of titles a proposed constitutional amendment shall publish: For 231,213; against 81,693.

Rock Likes Ike, Butler, Crosby

BASSETT—Rock county voters turning out in great numbers in 70-degree temperature generally reflected the trend of the state. Rock is a stout republican balliwick.

Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower was given an overwhelming margin over Gov. Adlai Stevenson, 1,187-259. U.S. Sen. Hugh Butler, republican, was accorded a 1,126-239 margin over the contender, Dwight Griswold, former Nebraska governor, defeated William Ritchie, democrat, for the short-term U.S. senate berth, 1,005-361. Griswold, a republican, served two terms as governor.

Narrowest margin in the major races was Robert Crosby's 2-1 triumph over Walter Ræcke, the GOP gubernatorial candidate gathered 960 votes; Ræcke, democrat, 418.

Reimer Victor Over Walker in Holt

Louis W. Reimer of O'Neill, incumbent, was a 2 1/2-1 victor over Ralph Walker of O'Neill, a contender in the nonpolitical race for Holt county judge. Reimer built a 4,383 count compared to Walker's 1,844.

Kenneth Waring, appointee to the board of supervisors, was a hand winner in a three-way race. Other contenders were Roger Rosenkrans, republican, and George Hansen, democrat.

Presbyterian Church Issues Call to Texan

ATKINSON—The Presbyterian church of Atkinson has voted to call Rev. Frank Paves of El Paso, Tex. Reverend Paves has indicated that he would accept the call and plans to move to Atkinson in about a month. He has been pastor of the Church of Divine Service at El Paso.

The Atkinson charge has been without a pastor since the departure several months ago of Rev. Orin C. Graff, who served the Atkinson parish and the Stuart Community church.

Reimer returned to Korea—CHAMBERS—Pvt. Gerald Potts has returned to Korea. He had served five months there—until January, 1952, when he was sent to Japan. He has been in Korea since mid-October.

Cardinals Win Over Irish, 37-33

General Platoff's world-famous Don Cossack chorus stopped briefly in O'Neill last Thursday enroute across the country on tour.

The group rolled into the city aboard a special bus. The 25 male singers and dancers and their lone ballerina unlimbered, visited snack bars and made a 30-minute tour of the town. Foreign in language, attire, manners and all except citizenship, they apparently enjoyed their brief sojourn and continued on.

The chorus, directed by N. Kostrukoff, was organized in Prague, Czechoslovakia, in 1927. Since the group has travelled on 107 different ocean liners, visited 6 different countries, has appeared in Notre Dame Cathedral in Paris, Radio City Music Hall in New York City, presented uncounted concerts for the USO at home and abroad and has been heard in more than one hundred concerts in Veterans hospitals.

All members of the choir are American citizens. One press clipping Mr. Kostrukoff exhibited to a Frontier reporter quoted the Chicago Tribune:

"There is no apparent limit to the number of capacity crowds these singers can draw year-after-year."

The choristers are White Russians—political opposites of the Soviets.

The Don Cossack choir's visit followed by 24-hours the overnight stopover here for David Rubinoff, famous violinist. Rubinoff went from here to Winner, S.D.

Spalding Academy Is Hit in Thriller

The St. Mary's academy Cardinals annexed a thriller in north-central Nebraska six-man grid circles here Friday night, trouncing Spalding academy, 37-33.

It wasn't until the final gun that the victor was determined. Fullback Wayne Donohoe ploughed across two first-half TD's by reeling off long, hard runs. Center Mike London took a pass in the flat from Quarterback Bobby Fritton and romped 30 yards to add a TD to the first half total.

Spalding led, 20-15, at intermission, the score having seened through the first two periods.

In the second half, Big Jerry Wanser forged across two and Donohoe once.

The Donohoe tally came on a nifty play that Coach Joe George had cooked up and wrinkled out. Fritton, the quarterback, shot a short forward to London, the center, who laterally to Donohoe who was sweeping wide. Donohoe sped 55 yards into pay territory—the longest run of the evening.

W. A. Utry, 80, Burial at Page

PAGE—William Alford Utry, 80, died Thursday in the Tilden hospital. He had been a patient in the hospital for six weeks.

Funeral services were conducted Sunday in Page. Brief rites were held at the home at 1:30 p.m., followed by services at the Wesleyan Methodist church at 2 p.m. Burial was in the Page cemetery.

The late William Alford Utry was born in Adams county, Illinois. He moved to Tilden in the pioneer era with his parents. Later he spent a few years in South Dakota.

In 1911, he purchased a farm four miles east of Page, where he resided until 1945, when Mrs. Utry died. His wife was the former Laura Oelsigle. They were married at Neligh.

Survivors include: Son—Clay Utry of Rio Vista, Calif.; daughters—Mrs. Plen (Eva) Nickel of Caldwell, Ida., and Mrs. Earl (Christina) Parks of Page; six grandchildren; brothers—Howard Utry of Calgary, Cana., and Raymond, who lives in South Dakota; sister—Mrs. Roy Bell of Spokane, Wash. One daughter, Ivy Laura, died in infancy.

REHEARSAL CHANGED

Henceforth the O'Neill Civic chorus will rehearse Handel's oratorio, "The Messiah," on Monday evenings at the O'Neill public school music room, it was announced this week by Director Charles B. Houser. There are 35 candidates for the chorus. The first two rehearsals were held on Wednesday evenings.

Famed Don Cossack Chorus Visits Here

General Platoff's world-famous Don Cossack chorus stopped briefly in O'Neill last Thursday enroute across the country on tour.

The group rolled into the city aboard a special bus. The 25 male singers and dancers and their lone ballerina unlimbered, visited snack bars and made a 30-minute tour of the town. Foreign in language, attire, manners and all except citizenship, they apparently enjoyed their brief sojourn and continued on.

The chorus, directed by N. Kostrukoff, was organized in Prague, Czechoslovakia, in 1927. Since the group has travelled on 107 different ocean liners, visited 6 different countries, has appeared in Notre Dame Cathedral in Paris, Radio City Music Hall in New York City, presented uncounted concerts for the USO at home and abroad and has been heard in more than one hundred concerts in Veterans hospitals.

All members of the choir are American citizens. One press clipping Mr. Kostrukoff exhibited to a Frontier reporter quoted the Chicago Tribune:

"There is no apparent limit to the number of capacity crowds these singers can draw year-after-year."

The choristers are White Russians—political opposites of the Soviets.

The Don Cossack choir's visit followed by 24-hours the overnight stopover here for David Rubinoff, famous violinist. Rubinoff went from here to Winner, S.D.

Bill Froelich, Jr. and Don Cossack Choir Director, N. Kostrukoff

Bill Froelich, jr. (left) and Don Cossack choir director, N. Kostrukoff... "no apparent limit to crowds."—The Frontier Photo by John H. McCarville.