

Faculty Members in Boxing Hoax

Carlson, Pruden Need Referee

EWING—The widely-advertised faculty "boxing match" proved to be one of the most entertaining features of the Ewing public school carnival held Wednesday evening, October 29, at the school.

The participants, "Canva's Back" Carlson and "One Punch" Pruden, entered the ring with their trainers, Martin Pofahl and "Coon" Bennett. They shook hands, put on their gloves, and proceeded to put four slabs together to form a box. "One Punch" fumbled, giving the bout to the redoubtable "Canva's Back" Paul Cooper as the referee.

The identity of the antagonists was revealed as Miss Fern Pruden, homemaking instructor, and Mrs. Catherine Carlson, eighth grade teacher. Mr. Cooper is the band instructor.

Other numbers on the program were: Pep club, by Jocelyn Eacker; E club by Coach Dale Vandenberg and Supt. Lewis Carter; Future Homemakers by Judy Jeffries, Vlanda Biddlecomb, Sandra Dierks, Marcia Gibson.

Guest entertainers were Archie Johnston and his accordion, Mrs. Bernice Schindler as yodler and Harold Bennett, vocal solos.

The carnival atmosphere was enhanced by the use of Hallo-wen noise-makers and a large number of booths of various kinds.

The freshman class provided cakes for a cake walk. The sophomores brought pies and the juniors and seniors brought candy.

An auction of donated articles was held. All proceeds from the carnival will go to the athletic and homemaking departments.

The FFA chapter served refreshments in the "orange and black" room.

"My toughest winter jobs are easy ...my FARMHAND does the work!"

FEEDING FROM THE STACK IS EASY. Breaking frozen stacks is no problem with a Farmhand Loader. The rugged Manure Fork digs in, Grapple Fork Attachment pins down the load . . . then husky hydraulic power tears it loose from the stack. I clear snow from feed lots, too, with the high-capacity Scoop and use the 8-foot V-Plow to ridge fields, open drifted roads. My Farmhand Loader saves me work every week in the year.
